UNIVERSITY MAN IS A RED SEDITIONIST
Given Prison Sentence for Treasonable Utterances at Bristol, England.

London, Nov. 17.—Two seditionists have received six and nine months' prison sentences, respectively, at the Bristol assizes.

One of the men declared that the time was approaching when the men of the army and navy would shoot their officers and Premier Lloyd George would be hanged from a lamp-post. This man was educated at Cambridge University.

William Appleton, secretary of the Trades Union Federation, declares that the rank and file of the workers everywhere are, now shaking themselves clear of extremists and facing the fact that their bread must be earned through export trade.
