CHALMERS CHURCH SALE

It Was a Fine Event and Was Very Liberally Patronized.

The annual sale held by the Ladies' Aid of Chalmers church, drew large crowds to the lecture hall on Friday afternoon, where they were received by Mrs. R. J. Wilson, the president. Evergreens and flags, the scarlet and white decorations on the tables gave an air of Christmas to the scene, and many suitable gifts were to be found on the well-laden tables. Mrs. W. H. Macnee was at the door and at the long work table were Mrs. Isaac Allen, Mrs. R. N. F. MacFarlane, Mrs. John Matheson, Mrs. George Mahood, Mrs. Halloway Waddell, Mrs. W. K. Macnee, Mrs. Herbert Robertson, Mrs. F. Stewart, Mrs. McFadyen, Mrs. Yule, Mrs. Menzies, Mrs. Norman Miller and Miss Nora Macnee.

All sorts of pretty wools for the little ones were at another table with Mrs. F. Mahood, Mrs. D. W. Taylor, Mrs. T. H. Renton, Mrs. A. Cavin, Mrs. Henry Connell, Mrs. Perry Mahood and Mrs. Roy Allen presiding. The home-made dainties were sold by Mrs. Hobart Dyde, Mrs. W. J. Renton, Mrs. W. Nicol, Mrs. G. H. Williamson, Mrs. M. G. Johnston, Mrs. J. Gow, Mrs. Stuart Parsons, Mrs. T. H. Cook, Mrs. W. F. Inman, Miss Nelsh and Miss Driver.

A red and white candy table, centered with a poinsettia, with three little maids all in red and white too, Miss Nancy Wilson, Misses Kathleen and Eleanor Murray, selling red boxes of sweets on red trays, was in charge of Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. J. Newlands, Mrs. Thomas Clatter, Miss Redden and Miss Frances Murray.

The tea table with its lovely yellow mums, was in charge of Mrs. H. C. Welch, Mrs. Malcolm Macgillivray, Mrs. J. C. Connell, Mrs. Barlow, Mrs. T. G. Smith, Mrs. G. Mackenzie and some energetic waitresses.

The proceeds amounted to $425.

Death of Oak Leaf Lady.

Oak Leaf, Nov. 23.—Following an illness of three weeks' duration, Mrs. Charles Murphy, Oak Leaf, passed away at the General Hospital, Brockville, on Saturday night. Deceased was about fifty years old, and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Godkin and spent her whole life in this section. She was a member of Trinity church, Oak Leaf, and an active worker in everything pertaining to it. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter, Marion, and two brothers and three sisters, George and Jesse of Balcarres, Sask., Mrs. E. Murphy, Balcarres, Sask., Mrs. M. Tennant, Ottawa, and Miss Lizzie Godkin, Winnipeg. Mrs. Murphy of Balcarres arrived a week ago and was with her sister during her last moments. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from her late residence to Trinity church and was largely attended. The service was conducted by the rector, Rev. V. O. Boyle. Many floral tributes rested on the casket. The pallbearers were J. A. Flood, Wallace Johnson, Howard McNeil, Oscar Willis, Bryce Warren and Lloyd Warren.

Rejected the Bill.

The Deseronto council has rejected the account of Dr. H. A. Boyce for treatment of Mrs. Susannah Barnhart who claimed her leg was injured by a fall on a sidewalk.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Commencing on Monday an entirely new feature will start for the children in the Daily British Whig under the heading of "The Junior British Whig." It is merely a little newspaper within a newspaper. The shivers and thrills of "The Saturday Special," the "One-Reel Yarns," Home Talent Plays, Riddles, Puzzles, Jokes, Boys' Cartoons, School Yells, Dingbats, Sports and special features like Timbline, Easy Juggling, Clay Modelling, Shadow-graph, etc., all form a part of the Junior British Whig. The young readers of the Daily British Whig will be delighted with the Junior. It will stand out as their own part of the paper and will furnish a condensed world of amusement and instruction every day. It starts on Monday. Watch for it.

Fully 500 people visited the new steamer Paul Smith yesterday.

Won't Be Allowed to Grind the People

"The manufacturers of this country will be safe when the Liberal Government is formed. They will not be allowed to grind the people, but will be permitted to make a fair profit on their goods."
—(From J. M. Campbell's nomination address.)

SAFEGUARDING STEPS TO PUBLIC BUILDINGS

And by-the-way It Would Be Good Plan For the Citizens.

The steps leading up to the various public buildings in the city are being covered with planks to prevent the accumulation of ice, so dangerous to pedestrians. During the winter whenever a thaw comes, the ice melts much more quickly over wood, than stone, and by the same token does not freeze so easily. Citizens in general could take this lesson to heart, and by covering their private steps and walks, etc., do much to prevent the usual long list of minor and serious accidents throughout the winter.

WERE ON TIME.

Grand Trunk Trains Make a Fine Record.

A summary of the operations of passenger trains during the month of October, 1921, on the Grand Trunk Railway System, each of the St. Clair and Detroit Rivers, shows that out of 9,953 trains, ninety-one per cent. reached the terminal station on time. This record is a very gratifying one and such a performance is regarded as evidence of the efficiency with which the passenger service of the Grand Trunk is being operated. The record for September was equally good.

Meighen Responsible For All This Mess

"Who is responsible for the mess the country is in—closed factories, unemployment, everywhere, finances in the worst condition, the country swamped with debt, while expenditures are far in excess of the revenues? Is it not the Meighen Tory government who have been in power? What have they done? They do not come forward and tell us any good they have done but only what they promise to do in future."
This was J. M. Campbell's reply to the piteous story told of Canada's position, by R. Ross at the nomination meeting.

SENDS CATHOLIC TO ORANGE HALL

Alleged Trick By Returning Officer of Lennox and Addington.

Toronto Globe.
What looks like an attempt to compel a score of Roman Catholic voters to mark their ballots in an Orange Hall, or to discourage those twenty electors from voting at all because of their aversion to Orangism, was explained to The Globe yesterday by J. L. Haycock, the old-time leader of the Patrons of Industry, whose postoffice address is Adolphustown, in the riding of Lennox and Addington.

Mr. Haycock showed The Globe a copy of the election proclamation sheet, for which George F. Rutan, K.C., of Napanee, the Chief Returning officer for that constituency, is responsible. In all but one of the two subdivisions where two polling booths are necessary the electors are alphabetically divided into two groups: those with the initial letter between "A" and "M", and those between "N" and "Z" inclusive in both cases.
The exception is the subdivision of the township of Richmond, in which is situated the village of Selby. In this subdivision they are divided "A" to "L", and "M" to "Z", inclusive in both cases. Mr. Haycock told The Globe that there are twenty-three Roman Catholic voters in that subdivision, three of whom fall in the first group, and twenty in the second group. And here is where the rub comes in: The group "A" to "L" vote in the Town Hall of Selby, and the "M" to "Z" group vote in the Orange Hall in Selby. Why, Mr. Haycock asks, was the alphabetical division for the township of Richmond made different from that of all the other subdivisions in that riding and elsewhere? The moving of the boundary line one letter to the left throws all the Roman Catholic "M's" into the Orange Hall. Mr. Haycock adds that he is sure it will not deter any of them from voting.

WHOLE BUNCHES OF CAMPBELL VOTERS

A resident of Sydenham street states that there are thirteen votes in his household, and all are going to be cast for Campbell on election day. At a certain place where forty-four men are employed, a canvass showed that forty-two are voting for Campbell.

The Saucy Lads.

Three Smith's Falls boys, whose ages were respectively thirteen, twelve and ten years, went out to the premises of Hugh Condie, taking along a .22-calibre rifle, and began to shoot pigeons in the barn. Mr. Condie appearing, they made off. He followed after them in order to get their names when the one carrying the rifle turned and threatened to shoot him. In police court the trio got off with a lecture and suspended sentence, after the payment of $20.50. Chief Phillips states that he intends to be on the watch against such actions on the part of boys, and will confiscate and send to Toronto all rifles found in the hands of boys under sixteen years of age.
