To The Electors of the City of Kingston AND THE VILLAGE OF PORTSMOUTH

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:— I beg to announce that I have accepted the nomination of the Liberal Party of this City, and respectfully solicit your votes and influence at the coming election for the House of Commons.

If you think favorably of my candidature and elect me, I will give your interests FIRST CONSIDERATION, and devote my energies and what ability I possess to bring about a business administration at Ottawa, and to make our home town a safer and better Kingston.

JOHN M. CAMPBELL.

To The Electors of Kingston and Portsmouth

At the request of many Liberals and Conservatives, and by selection at a very large convention, I have consented to stand as candidate for the constituency.

I stand for a protective policy, which will provide work for our workmen and keep our money at home; for support of men who have stood by our country in time of need; for support of sound leadership as we have it in Right Hon. Arthur Meighen.

I solicit your vote and influence, and if elected my whole time will be at your service.

—A. E. ROSS.

Admitted Stealing Tools.
Harry Sharp, alias J. Fowler, was brought to the penitentiary from London, to serve three years for theft. He pleaded guilty to stealing tools from the Grand Trunk Railway, and also from one of the homes in London. He also burglarized two stores at Strathroy.

Wilson-Armstrong Wedding
A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday at Brandon, Man., when Mervie L., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson, Picton, Ont., was united in marriage to Milton Coulter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, Alida, Sask. The young couple were unattended.

Named Editor of "The Veteran."
T. C. Lapp, son of the late C. A. Lapp, for many years editor and proprietor of the Brighton Ensign and a brother to Clarence Lapp the present proprietor, has been appointed editor of The Veteran, the official organ of the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada.

Elected to Directorate.
The annual election for the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce concluded at Belleville, has resulted in the return of five energetic and influential citizens. The five chosen will serve for two years. They are: Messrs. H. W. Ackerman, Jamieson Bone, Arthur McGie, J. G. Moffat and Mackenzie Robertson. Mr. McGie will be new to the board.

Pushing Along the Work.
McKelvey & Birch, who have the contract to build the concrete tunnel which will enclose the steam heating pipes to supply the Kingston General Hospital and the Queen's University are pushing along the work as rapidly as the weather will permit. The men have to be very careful in putting in the concrete during the very cold days.

Died Recently at Perth.
After a period of declining health Margaret Jane Hogan, relict of the late John Murray, passed away at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McLean at the age of sixty-seven years. Mrs. Murray had been a resident of Perth for a great many years and was highly thought of. Surviving Smith's Falls, Mrs. Daniel Lee and are three daughters, Mrs. John Kelly, Smith's Falls, Mrs. Daniel Lee and Mrs. A. V. McLean, Perth, and two sons, Thomas, Renfrew, and John, Lombardy.

Forty Years Married.
Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Furlong, Perth, celebrated their fortieth or ruby wedding anniversary at their home in Perth on Wednesday. They were married in Perth on Nov. 23rd, 1881, by the late Dean O'Connor. Mrs. Furlong's maiden name was Miss Mary E. McCabe. The only living relative who attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Furlong is James Conlon, Glen Tay. Thomas Mitchell of the 3rd concession Bathurst, was groomsmen. A dinner was served to the immediate relatives when hearty congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Furlong who are held in high esteem by their many acquaintances.

Silver Wedding.
A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Osterhout, Edmonton, Alberta, at the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Osterhout were married in Wellington, Prince Edward county. They made their first home in Rose Hall and lived in that vicinity until the spring of 1906 when they went to Edmonton. Mr. and Mrs. Osterhout spent eleven years on the farm and have been residing in the city for the past five years. Their friends showed their esteem by way of beautiful gifts of silver and combinations of silver and cut glass.

Literary Supplement.
On Saturday the Whig will issue a special literary supplement in addition to the comic section and other features of that day. This will contain a survey of the general book field at the present time and dozens of articles written by prominent Canadian authors especially for this issue.

Besides the general informative value of the supplement to those interested in books, the special articles will give an opportunity to all to become informally acquainted with the Canadian authors of the present day.

Among those contributing are: J. Murray Gibson, president of the Canadian Authors' Association, Robert Stead, Arthur Stringer, Hopkins Moorhouse, Agnes C. Laut, Prof. W. T. Allison, Sergt. Ralph S. Kendall of the R.N.W.M.P., Robert Watson, J.

A. M. Edwards, M.A., H. Gerald Wade, Hugh S. Eyras, E. J. Moore, Robert A. Hood, and others.

The French Alliance.
The members of "L'Alliance Francaise" are achieving distinct success with their organization and several applications have been received for membership in the Kingston branch. It appears that the opportunity to improve their knowledge of the French language is being eagerly grasped by a number of returned officers and soldiers, who, during their period overseas attained a certain degree of proficiency in the tongue, and are now adopting this method of completing their linguistic education.

Professor Vattier of the Royal Military College is the president of the local branch and those making application to him for admission to the body are assured of a genial welcome. The next meeting of L'Alliance Francaise takes place early in December and the committee arranging for the entertainment of the members has made splendid progress in the formation of an attractive programme.

A Worthless Cheque.
A certain Barrie street butcher is mourning the loss of three pounds of pork and the small change from a fifteen dollar cheque tendered in payment for same. On Saturday last, a would-be customer walked into his store and after making the above purchase, handed over the cheque which was endorsed by one Brown.

THE BALLOT SECRET.

Some canvassers for the Melton campaign are trying to throw a scare into patients and others connected with hospitals of the city and Portsmouth that if they vote for Campbell the government workers will at once know from the ballots. Let it be known that the ballot is secret.
