THE STEAMER PENNINGTON IS SAFE AT MONTREAL

Life Belts Found Near Oswego Are Not From That Vessel.

A despatch from Oswego, N.Y., says: Pieces of cabin, a large full length yellow spar, life belts with the name "Pennington" and an oar marked "City of New York," and cabin furniture washed ashore near here, led to the belief that the steamer Pennington had been lost. It is owned by the Century Coal Company and has not been on the lakes this fall. The spar found is not from the City of New York. Captain Jackson of the coast guard says he has examined the wreckage found, and is trying to clear up the mystery. The oar found is marked "City of New York." A watch is being kept for bodies that may come ashore.

OBITUARY

The Late Miss H. Chisholm. The last member of a distinguished old Scottish family passed away at the House of Providence on Wednesday afternoon, in the person of Miss Hannah Chisholm, who was a daughter of the late Colonel Chisholm, who came out from Scotland with Bishop Macdonell and founded the historic county of Glengarry on the shores of the St. Lawrence. In what was then Upper Canada. Both in the old land and in new home at Alexandria, Ontario, the record of this old family has been very distinguished, and they have been held in high esteem by all who have been associated with them.

The late Miss Chisholm was eighty-five years of age, and after the death of her father, lived for many years with her brother, the late Rev. Dr. Chisholm at Perth. Then for some time she kept house for her nephew in Edmonton, until he enlisted in the C.E.F., and when he returned from France an invalid, and was forced to go to a sanatorium, she was persuaded by the Rev. Mother of the Kingston House of Providence, who was visiting in the west at that time to come and live in this institution, which Miss Chisholm was most anxious to do, as her home was then broken up by her nephew's illness. This was two years ago last August, and this dear old lady has always been happy in her choice. Until a week ago, Miss Chisholm had been in the best of health. Deceased was a splendid musician, was an organist in churches in Perth and Edmonton, and also gave lessons in music.

Besides the brother in Perth, deceased had a brother, Colin, formerly the registrar at Alexandria, and another, Alexander, who lived at Paynton Sask., also two sisters, Jane and Janet, Alexandria; all of whom predeceased her some years ago. The remains were sent to the old home in Alexandria where the funeral will be held, and the lady will be laid to rest in the old family plot.

Late W. A. MacFarland. William Alexander MacFarland passed away on Thursday at his residence, 220 Nelson street. The deceased was formerly a resident of Pittsburg, and was fifty-two years of age. Up to last spring he operated a farm, but failing health compelled him to retire and he moved to the city. He was a Presbyterian in religion. Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. D. Baker, Miss Anna, and two sons, Ewart G., this city and a boy one year old.

The Late Mrs. R. Coleman. The funeral of the late Mrs. Robert Coleman who died in Ogdensburg, N. Y., and whose remains were brought to Kingston by her daughter and son-in-law, took place on Thursday morning to St. Mary's cathedral from the undertaking parlors of James Reid and Company. A solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Lacey. Interment took place at St. Mary's Cemetery.

Frontenac Deanery, W. A. The Women's Auxiliary of the Deanery of Frontenac met in St. James' Parish on Wednesday, at 10.30. There was a corporate communion of the members and a sermon by Rev. G. E. Simmons, Honan, China. At the afternoon session reports were heard and the election of a deanery secretary took place. Mrs. Thomas Leech, Sydenham, being chosen. An address was given by Mrs. J. E. Simmons, Honan, China. In evening the hall was again filled for the missionary meeting at which Rev. G. E. and Mrs. Simmons were the speakers. All the meetings were well attended in spite of many other attractions.

Home and School Club. The Home and School Club of Robert Meek school held a successful meeting on Tuesday evening, when Canon W. F. FitzGerald delivered his popular lecture on "Ireland and the Irish." There was a good attendance and the reverend gentleman gave a vivid picture of his native land from the earliest days, dealing with the church, the literature and matters of general interest. He gave several humorous recitations which were loudly applauded and ended with a special appeal to all to be true to all that was good and best in Canada. Mrs. Tanner delighted all with her rendering of Killarney. Her accompanist was Mrs. A. R. H. Williamson. The ladies served refreshments after the programme.

The clearing reported by the Kingston bankers for the week ending December 1st, was $795,720.16. The clearings for the week ending November 24th were $783,720.16. Many Toronto people support Byng's plea for shorter speeches.

It is stated that the steamship City of New York, which foundered last Thursday morning near the Ducks, underwent an inspection this season at Ogdensburg, and that she might have been fitted out with some of the equipment of the Pennington.

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

W. S. Reed's Workers Say He Will Win in Frontenac.

Those who are working in the interests of W. S. Reed, the United Farmers' candidate for Frontenac, appear confident of victory. A. E. Weller, secretary for the U.F.O. committee, stated that the reports which had been received from the canvassers, who have been busy for weeks, show that the feeling is in favor of the U.F.O. candidate. In many places the workers report the vote three to one in favor of Reed. The U.F.O. campaign committee have carried the fight right into the village, of Catarqui, the home of Hon. Dr. J. W. Edwards. They do not expect to have a majority at that poll, but they think when the vote is counted it will be about even. The back townships, for years have been the stronghold of the present Frontenac member, but in this election there is going to be a great change, so prominent U.F.O. workers in that section say.

When the announcement of the Railway Board was made which freed all the back townships from paying the cost of the provincial highway, built in the townships of Pittsburg and Kingston, was made last week it made the chances of Reed's election in the back townships more certain. It is decided that on many occasions at Conservative meetings it was stated that the Ontario government, which is the Farmers' government, was making the men from the back pay for the roads in the front.

DEFIES PROOF

Col. Thompson gave Meighen supporters an opportunity to show proof that Mackenzie King had wavered in his tariff argument during the present dominion campaign. He stated that during the trip across Canada, the challenge had been sent out to the Tories to prove that he had wavered, and the Liberal leader had offered to pay $1,000 to the man who could produce any such proof. As yet no person has tackled the job.
