Christmas Trees Arrive.

The first lot of Christmas trees arrived in the city on Monday afternoon and there was great gladness among the "Kiddies" as the drivers of the wagons carrying the trees made their way down the streets. From now on until Christmas day, Christmas trees will be much in evidence.

Refused the Job.

On Saturday morning an able-bodied man waited upon the local representative of the Ontario labor bureau and asked that he recommend him for city relief. When Mr. Stroud advised him that he would be able to give him work on the Johnson street drain, he refused to take the job.

Was Special Music.

At the unveiling and dedication service of the memorial to the late Judge Herbert Stone McDonald erected in St. Peter's church, Brockville, special music was prepared for the occasion, including an anthem, "The Souls of the Righteous are in the Hand of God," which was written in memory of the late Judge.

Was Good Attendance.

Principal R. B. Taylor in introducing Prof. J. L. Morrison at Queen's on Sunday, stated that the fine series of afternoon services this year had been the result of Dr. Morrison's interest and work for the programme and the attendance at the services had been better than for some years past.

Storms-Moy Wedding.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Storms, Ameliasburg, on Nov. 23rd, when their only daughter, Leona Pearl, was united in marriage to Clarence Moy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moy, Rossmore, Rev. Mr. Seymour officiating. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Helen McKinley, the bride entered the drawing room, leaning on her father's arm, and was assisted by Dorothy Moy, sister of the groom, while Earl Storms, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

The Late Mrs. Rogers.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers took place from her late residence Wolfe Island to Christ church at 1 p.m. Saturday under the direction of James Reid, undertaker. Rev. Frank Kirkpatrick officiated. The pall bearers were five brothers of the deceased, Marshall, Stewart, Leslie, Richard and William Armstrong and a brother-in-law. Interment took place at Cataragui cemetery.

Presentation at Moscow.

On Nov. 24th friends of Mrs. George Scott, Stratcona, gathered at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark, and after spending an enjoyable evening, presented Mrs. Scott with a purse of money, and an address. The address was read by Miss Eloise Darling, and a presentation was made by Miss Gladys Asselstine. Mrs. Scott is leaving the neighborhood.

Capt. Julian Mallette Dead.

At St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, Belleville, on Saturday the death occurred of a well known resident, Capt. Julian Mallette, who had been in failing health for the past fifteen months. The deceased was born there sixty years ago in June last, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mallette, and always resided there. He had been in the employ of the late Hon. George T. and Mrs. Fulford for about twenty-eight years.

The Late William H. Brandon.

There entered into rest on Nov. 20th, William Henry Brandon, in his seventy-second year, at his late residence, Violet, Ont. Deceased had been ill of pneumonia but five days previous to his death. He leaves besides his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Walter Scott, and one grand daughter, Mrs. John Williams, Violet, Ont.; also one sister and two brothers survive, Mrs. John Grange, Sr., Selby; James, Morven; and David, Fort Bragg, California.

Winter in Algonquin Park.

Algonquin Park is just the out-of-the-way sort of place for a holiday, or for rest and recuperation for those who are run down and need a change. At an altitude of 2,000 feet the air here is pure and bracing. All winter sports are indulged in at the Highland Inn, which will be open from December 15th, 1921, until March 15th, 1922. The Park is 200 miles north of Toronto and 170 miles west of Ottawa, and is reached by the Grand Trunk Railway. An illustrated booklet telling you all about winter in Algonquin Park sent free upon application to, J. P. Hanley, C.P. & T.A., G.T.R., Kingston, Ont.

Queen's War Memorial.

The plans of the war memorial committee are being energetically carried out, and the committee which is to a large extent composed of new men, the first committee having graduated, are energetically forwarding the scheme started by the committee a few years ago. The plan of the proposed union building has been drawn and a slide made from the plans shows the building to be a fine large structure, modelled on the plan of some of the similar structures in the American universities. The building will have in addition to offices for the officers of the different societies and club rooms, a theatre where the Dramatic club will stage their performances. Part of the proceeds from this year's entertainment will go to this fund. The students are being canvassed for donations.

ODESSA TIDINGS.

The Death of Robert Gilbert — Salvation Army Concert.

Odessa, Dec. 5.—Mrs. Robert Gilbert passed away last Tuesday morning after a long illness. The funeral was held from her late home on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Nickle officiating. To mourn her loss are her husband one son, Edward Gilbert, on the homestead.

Memorial Dedicated.

Sunday afternoon a special service was held in St. James Sunday School for the purpose of dedicating memorials that have been placed, either in the church or Sunday School, by loving hands, for those who have departed this life. The service was conducted by Archdeacon Dobbs and Rev. T. W. Savary, and on the platform were relatives of the deceased. The memorials are in memory of Mr. and Mrs. James Shannon, Albert E. Shannon, Robert Cousins, W. J. Cousins and Robert Edward.

A Noted Occasion.

Elmer Harold and E. J. Davis Jr., were at Newmarket on Friday at the celebration of the seventieth birthday of their father, Hon. E. J. Davis. To mark the day Mr. Davis entertained his 260 employees and their families at a concert in the town hall. Mr. and Mrs. Davis were remembered with gifts from the workmen. Mr. Davis has spent fifty-four years in the tanning business which has grown in half a century to be the largest factory of its kind in the British Empire.

Expect Close Vote in County.

James Sprott, returning officer for the county of Frontenac, states that there are sixty-one polling places in the county. He had sent out seventy ballot boxes. Two ballot boxes will be used at the following points: Cataragui, Barriefield, Fermoy, Inverary, Harrowsmith, Battersea, Bath Road, Mountain Grove, Wolfe Island No. 2, Sydenham, Verona, Sharbot Lake and Parham. It is expected the election will be keenly contested. The supporters of W. S. Reed, the U.F.O. candidate, and Hon. Dr. J. W. Edwards, Conservative, are well organized.

Working For W. S. Reed.

James Henderson of the Front Road, who presided at a meeting on the Bath Road that was addressed by Hon. Dr. Edwards, objects to the inference that was drawn from the incident. He is a member of the U.F.O. and a strong supporter of the U.F.O. candidate, and states that he will be working for W. S. Reed, the U.F.O. candidate, on Tuesday. Mr. Henderson states that there was no significance attached to his presiding at the Bath Road meeting because every person attending it was a member of the U.F.O. and there was no one else to preside. As a matter of courtesy he consented to do so when requested by the members.

Your Winter Holiday Plans.

Are you planning a winter holiday in California or some other Pacific Coast point, or at one of the well known winter resorts in the Southern States, Bermuda, Cuba, or the West Indies? Golf, tennis, bathing, fishing, etc., await you. If you intend to visit California you can see the "Rockies at their best" on the Canadian National-Grand Trunk Railways, and it will be to your advantage to travel at least one way through Canada. Information regarding fares, routes, etc., will be gladly given on application to J. P. Hanley, C.P. and T.A., G.T.R., Kingston, Ont.

Court Will Administer Estate.

On the application of Mrs. Mary I. Benedict, daughter of the late Senator Peter McLaren, the Perth millionaire, an order for the administration of the estate under the direction of the court has been made by Justice Masten. It was the suggestion of Mr. Benedict that the estate be taken out of the hands of the executor and executors and be administered by the court. The widow of the late senator is the executrix and the executors are the two sons, J. L. T. McLaren and William McLaren, and George Ritchie, barrister of Toronto. The estate, which is valued at millions, includes a huge mineral tract in Virginia.

Appetite Good, Gained 20 lbs.

Could Not Feel Better

From a nervous wreck this man was restored to health, strength and happiness.

He tells his own story in this letter.

Mr. Ralph A. Roberts, Loversburg, Sask., writes:

"In 1917 I had lost all appetite, failed 25 pounds in weight, became very nervous and shaky and in fact given up all hope of recovery. For some time I had suffered from constipation, which kept getting worse, until I was fast becoming a total wreck. Doctors and their drugs were sending me to my grave at the age of 39.

"Then I read about people being restored by Dr. Chase's Medicines and after three months' use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I found that my bowels were restored to normal movement each day and the constipation was no more. I had a good appetite, had gained 20 pounds and could not feel better. I shall always be grateful for these benefits."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box; Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.
