CHURCH TEAS AND SALES

Held in St. George's Hall and Portsmouth Hall Thursday Afternoon.

Bright music from an orchestra greeted the throngs of visitors who ascended the stairs of St. George's hall on Thursday afternoon when the Church Women's Aid of the cathedral held its annual Christmas sale. The president, Mrs. E. J. B. Pense, received them at the door and they passed on to view the attractive wares for sale at the several tables. Creonna, more used than ever this year, was draping the pretty booth where many handsome articles were made from this gay material. Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. J. Mastr, Mrs. G. McGowan, Mrs. T. W. Rowland and Mrs. Matthew Graham were the saleswomen here, and at the next table, Mrs. W. Watson had aprons of all kinds for sale. At the long work table, gay with Jerusalem cherries, beautiful work was sold by Mrs. W. H. Hughes, Mrs. W. J. B. White, Mrs. Thomas Mills, Mrs. J. C. Ponsford, Mrs. Noel Gill, Mrs. D. E. Mundell, Mrs. W. Johnston and Mrs. George Bawdon.

A table that was always surrounded with eager buyers was in one corner. Here was painted pottery and glass, big bunches of teal and bitter-sweet, vases, flower pots, biscuit jars and all sorts of pretty and useful gifts were decorated by the clever fingers of the committee in charge, who were Mrs. W. E. Kidd, Mrs. R. T. Brymner, Mrs. R. W. Clark, Mrs. Noel Lee, Mrs. Charles Dalton and Mrs. G. B. Brownlee. Evergreens and flags made the platform gay and formed a background for the lighted silver candelabra and gay Christmas decorations on the table where the home-made cooking was sold by Mrs. James Higgins, Mrs. E. Rees, Mrs. Joseph Elliott, Mrs. James Hamilton, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Stewart Robertson, Mrs. Bruce Hopkins, and Miss Edith Pense. Blue birds for luck were above the baby table with its soft woollen garments for the little folk, where Mrs. Easton Burns, Mrs. Annie Robinson, Mrs. G. R. C. Stephens and Mrs. Bernard Browne were in charge. Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. R. E. Kent, Mrs. Hugh Ryan, Mrs. J. F. Preston, Miss Gwendolen and Miss Doris Folger and Miss Laura Kilborn were selling sweets at the candy table in the alcove and the tea table, centred with lovely chrysanthemums in a silver basket, flanked by lighted candles in silver candelabra, was in charge of a committee with Mrs. W. A. Sawyer as convener. Miss Muckleston, Miss Lyman, Mrs. R. J. Carson and Mrs. H. A. Betts poured tea with Mrs. Lusher Brock, Mrs. A. S. Brooks, Mrs. H. Ashby, Mrs. N. Gibson, Mrs. Godwin, Misses Merrick, Bessie McTier, Muriel Neale, Isabel and Grace Mooers and Marlon Sawyer assisting them. Mrs. Bowers had the task of taking the admission fee at the door. Small tables were about the hall with flowers on each and here gay little parties sat while they drank tea and listened to the music of the orchestra stationed in the gallery. Whether it was the enticing strains of music, the certainty of the hot cup of tea or the desire to see their wives made money a great many of the men of the parish were present including the Bishop of the Diocese, the dean Rev. W. E. Kidd, the city clergy and some from the neighboring parishes, as well as a number of the members of St. George's men's club. The proceeds amounted to over $700. This is the fourth sale held in the cathedral parish since Nov. 1st, and brings the total amount of money received to more than $1,200.

Tea and Sale at Portsmouth. The tea and sale held by the Ladies' Aid of Portsmouth Union church in the Town Hall on Thursday afternoon was a most successful one, Mrs. A. Atkins the president, received the crowds of visitors, many of whom were from town, Queen street and Sydenham street Methodist congregations being well represented and Cooke's church sending a large contingent. Miss M. Cuthbert was convener of the candy table with some energetic assistants. Mrs. J. Noble and Mrs. A. Atkins sold the home-made cooking while the useful and dainty articles in the work table were in charge of Mrs. J. Davidson, Mrs. W. Faubet, Mrs. H. Powell, and Mrs. H. Clark. Tea was served from the attractive tea table centred with flowers by Mrs. W. McKay, convener, and Mrs. Donnell, Mrs. J. Walker, Mrs. W. Doherty and a number of assistants. The hall looked gay with flags, greens, etc. The sale was most successful. The proceeds amounting to over $150.

POLICE NAB CHEQUE ARTIST

John A. Clark Admitted Passing Worthless Cheque on a Merchant.

In police court on Friday morning John A. Clark, a young man, pleaded guilty to a charge of passing a bogus cheque for $35 on Arthur Horwitz, a King street merchant. The charge was laid by Provincial Constable Hornbeck.

Magistrate Farrell pointed out that the offence was a very serious one and for this reason he would remand the accused for a week, in order to give the case further consideration and to look up the previous record of the prisoner.

Ivan Burns, alleged to be the "Jack the Huggler," who has been annoying women and young girls in various parts of the city for several weeks, was further remanded for a week.

Frank Baker, arrested on a charge of being intoxicated, admitted that he had two drinks of beer, but declared that he was not intoxicated. "I was gassed overseas, and suffer from spells," he said. "I was just coming out of one of these spells when I was arrested." Constable Leslie Armstrong said that the accused was intoxicated on Ontario street last night. The prisoner had admitted that he had been drinking. He was remanded one day.

STUDENTS OUT FOR FUN

Worried Freshmen Taking Freshettes to Show—Mayor Nickle Gave Them Advice

There was great excitement at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening when about two hundred students attending Queen's University attempted to rush the house. Mayor Nickle, who happened to be near the door at the opera house, was carried in a short distance, but warned the boys what would happen if they rushed the house. The mayor talked to the students in the lobby and at the same time a call was sent in for additional police constables. The students were told that if they attempted to rush the house, some of them would be arrested and taken to the police cells and would appear before the police magistrate on Friday morning.

Last year when there was a "rush" some arrests were made but the offenders were allowed their freedom about twelve o'clock the same night. When they agreed to appear before the police magistrate the following morning. On that occasion small fines were imposed. The mayor told the students that any who were arrested would not be allowed out.

It appears that on Thursday a number of Queen's freshmen decided that they would take their freshettes friends to the theatre. One student was detailed to buy the tickets. It is stated that this student secured twenty-eight double tickets. When some of the seniors heard what the freshmen were going to do, they decided to stop the theatre party if possible. A number of students "rushed" the boarding house of the student who had bought the twenty-eight tickets and secured them. During the rush, the boarding house lady fainted. Some of the freshmen were thrown into wagons and carried out into the country 8 miles and forced to walk home.

How Pearls Are Made. Pearl essence, used in making artificial pearls, is a silvery pigment obtained from the surface of fish scales. In the manufacture of such pearls, the inner wall of the thin glass spheres is coated with this essence and the cavity filled with hard wax.

ENTERTAINED MEMBERS.

The Closing Session of the Board of Education.

After the meeting of the Board of Education last night the chairman, Allan Lemmon, entertained the members to a light repast, served by pupils of the Domestic Science Classes. Following this there were appreciative addresses, breathing good-fellowship and heartiness. The year's duties had been well performed, splendid harmony had been maintained and Kingston's educational interests well sustained. The healths of the Chairman of the Board and the Chairman of the Standing Committee were drunk. All had served faithfully and well. Remarks were made by Trustees J. M. Farrell, T. Bishop, F. Anglin, J. F. McDonald, Canon Jones, L. C. Lockett, J. R. Henderson, J. G. Elliott, W. Campbell and H. Moore, the chairman concluding with appreciation for all the kindness shown him during his term of office.
