He Leaves $1,000,000 Estate To College

Boston, Dec. 9.—An estate of approximately $1,000,000 will go eventually to St. Francis Xavier College at Antigonish, N.S., under the terms of the will of Neil McNeil, a retired builder, who died on Dec. 4. His will, filed for probate yesterday, bequeathed the bulk of the estate in trust to Isaiah R. Clark, for the benefit during their lives of sixteen nieces and nephews. At death the income of each beneficiary is to be paid to the college governors. When the last of the heirs is dead the principal, with interest, is to be turned over to the institution.

BOYS ENTERTAIN GIRLS.

To a Banquet in Sydenham Street Methodist Hall.
The members of the three young men's classes of Sydenham street Methodist bible school entertained a number of the girls of the school to a banquet in the lecture hall of the church on Thursday evening. Seventy sat down to the banquet, which had been prepared by the members of the missionary committee of the senior Epworth league, of which Miss Jennie Kavaner is convenor. Elmer Davis proposed the toast: "Our Church" to which Rev. R. H. Bell responded. Dr. G. H. Eitinger proposed "Our Ladies." Recitations were given by Miss Goodfellow and Miss Eva Newell. C. S. Anglin acted as chairman.

Went To Death Calmly.
Richmond, Va., Dec. 9.—Dr. Wilmer Amos Hadley, former army surgeon and ranchman, met death in the electric chair in the state penitentiary today for the murder of his wife in 1918. He went to death calmly.

Announcement was made at the military headquarters in Dublin that if the Anglo-Irish agreement is ratified, the crown forces would be removed from Ireland within a month.
