CO-OPERATION PROMISED BY FRONTENAC MEMBER

In Regard to Kingston Harbor Improvements—Annual Meeting of the U.F.O.

W. S. Reed, M.P.-elect for Frontenac county, will co-operate with the city of Kingston to secure the Kingston harbor improvements and the erection of terminal grain elevators for the trans-shipment here of the grain and to retain the business for the all-Canadian route to the sea.

This announcement was made by Mr. Reed in reply to questions put to him at the annual meeting of U.F.O. of Frontenac county held in the Court House on Saturday afternoon, and at which the election of officers took place. The business of the meeting had been disposed of and Harry Chambers, Pittsburg, rose and said: "Gentlemen, I want to know if Mr. Reed will give his co-operation to Kingston in getting the harbor improvements and terminal elevators here? This is a matter of great importance to the farmers of this district, and it is in our interest to do everything possible to help bring these elevators here."

Mr. Reed stepped forward and said: "We will try our best and will work for every end in the interest of the farmers and Kingston." (Applause.)

J. L. F. Sproule, county director who has done good work during the past two years, presided, and there were representatives present from the following clubs: Harrowsmith, Joyceville, Glenburnie, Cataract, Verona, Inverary, Westbrook, Wolfe Island, Barriefield, Crystal Springs, Pitts Ferry, Parham, Howe Island, Glenvale, Hinchinbrook.

A. E. Weller, secretary, presented the reports on the various clubs, all of which showed great growth in membership. The financial statement showed receipts amounting to $15 and disbursements $57. In order to meet the deficiency a collection was taken up which amounted to $59. Some members objected to this method of raising money as it penalized the faithful members, and a motion to assess each club twenty-five cents a member was passed.

Political Association.

The director announced that on Saturday next the meeting of the U.F.O. political association would be held in the court house. He gave an extended report on the activities of the organization during the year. "We have only started the work in Frontenac," said he, "and have only touched the fringe. We must look forward and plan for the future for this movement has to grow and last for the benefit of the common people of rural Ontario." He called on J. W. Bell, president of the U.F.O. Political Association, who reported on the work done in the recent election. Mr. Bell was received with applause when he rose to speak.

"When we consider what has been done," said Mr. Bell, "against great odds, and the manner in which the election was conducted, we have great cause for thankfulness. We placed our campaign on a high plane, viz. on the merits of our platform and policy, and the people of Frontenac nobly responded. Our opponents appealed to narrow partyism, but the conservatism of today is not the old conservative party of the past, and it is no longer capable of representing the great agricultural population of Canada."

James McGlynn, reported on the work done on Wolfe Island; James Henderson, Kingston township, on the work performed by his club under his able direction.

R. J. Vair, Glenburnie, said: "I am glad to rejoice with you over our victory. This is not a lull after a storm, but the time for rejecting after victory. There should be great interest taken in the annual meetings of the U.F.O. and U.F.W.O. It is important to select an able director, one who can take his place at Toronto on the provincial executive, and a five wire for county organization, for we must go on. We cannot sit down for there is much to be done yet. We require funds, and if you are satisfied with the security you must come along with the dust. We must have funds for the work. A good deal of the credit for our success belongs to Mr. Bell, who displayed exceptional ability in the campaign, and who voted for a clean government." B. J. Snider, township director, Verona, said: "I want to thank the workers for the splendid work done. We have caught the Conservatives in a trap and we must see that they do not get us in a trap. We must carry on our organization for we have got to encourage those who stood by us."

Member-elect Speaks.

W. S. Reed, M.P. elect, was warmly received. "I don't know how to express my thanks," said he, in opening his address. He told of the work carried on and of the response of the people who showed the real strength of the U.F.O. by their ballots in the north. "My work in the county council was for the north and it showed itself for I found the results ahead of me there. When I went through the county and met the men who had worked for me, I felt greatly pleased. Some things that were said hurt but we can let them pass. I want to thank the ladies and gentlemen for what you have done for us. You all did your duty and it is now up to me to do mine by you and it will be done." (Applause.)

Mr. Sproule paid high praise to the north townships for turning defeat into victory. The defeat of Dr. Edwards was not the only thing involved. They were working for the advancement of the people socially and economically. "This organization has shown us that as a class of farmers we have got to become nation conscious. We must stop the noise of the men in parliament who stand for racial and sectional antagonisms. The one thing that we lack is national consciousness. Sir Wilfrid Laurier predicted that the twentieth century was Canada's and that we were to become the greatest nation in the world. We have lacked national unity in the past, but I think today that we are standing on the threshold of a great future and the farmers have made a great advance. Agnes is going to be there. (Cheers.) As director I have reason to be proud of this year for we have done what many people thought impossible, and I want to thank you for the support given everywhere in my work and I will stay with you, no matter whom you may choose as director."

B. J. Snider Elected Director.

J. L. F. Sproule, B. J. Snider and J. W. Bell were nominated for the office of county director and Mr. Sproule and Mr. Bell retired. Mr. Bell said that as president of the campaign committee in the recent election, he should not accept the office of county-director which was not a political office. His acceptance of it would be prejudicial to the real interests of the U.F.O. Mr. Snider was declared the unanimous choice. Mr. Snider is directed for the township of Hinchinbrook and resides at Verona. He has been a most active worker and has shown splendid ability. Colin Rogers, Pittsburg, was the only nomination for vice-director. He is widely known as a most zealous worker and was prominently mentioned as candidate to contest the election but declined to permit his name to go before the convention. A. E. Weller was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Sproule, the retiring director, on the motion of James McGlynn, seconded by Col. F. J. Ferguson.

The new officers of the U.F.W.O.

A Splendid Cantata.

Three or four hundred people were unable to gain admission to Sydenham Street Methodist church on Sunday evening to hear the musical cantata, "The Coming of the King," sung by the choir under the able direction of Miss Shaw. The officials of the church found it necessary to place about two hundred chairs in the gallery to accommodate those who were able to get inside the building. The cantata was one of the best heard in Kingston in some time. The soloists were Miss Olive Woodman, Miss A. Pollard, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. R. G. Andrews, John Tompkins, Harold Angrove and G. S. Lyons.

AN APPEAL FOR WORKERS

The Anglican Church Needs Workers For Missions in the West.

A strong appeal for mission workers in the northwest was made in St. James' church on Sunday morning by Rev. H. W. K. Mowll, M.A., of Wycliffe College, who occupied the pulpit at St. James' church at both services, and delivered most inspiring sermons.

Rev. Mr. Mowll stated that the work in the west was being handicapped through lack of workers, stating that ministers had large areas to cover. The church had all the equipment necessary, but there was great need for men and women to enter the work. There was great need for women as deaconesses, nurses and teachers.

"The great need of today is for men and women who will offer themselves for this work," said the speaker.

Died on Sunday.

The death occurred on Dec. 11th, at her son's residence, 273 King street west, of Adelaide Burleigh, dearly beloved wife of W. R. Davis, Murvale, after a long illness borne with patience and Christian fortitude. Her many friends will remember her for her kindly and charitable disposition. She leaves to mourn the loss, her husband, one son, Ross M. Davis, and grandson, Billie; two sisters, Mrs. Helgarty, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Bartola, Almont, Mich., and two brothers, Charles, Bay City, Mich., and Isaac, Walkerville, Ont.

Talk to the Children.

In his talk to the children at St. James' church on Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. T. W. Savary referred to the recent election in Kingston, pointing out that in this election the people were called upon to make their choice.

"Every day we are all called upon to make our choice," said Rev. Mr. Savary. "And it is to make our choice for Jesus. In the election campaign the two parties had slogans. Let us have as our slogan, 'Make Jesus King.'"

James Fleming Has Taken Whig for That Period.

The Whig office was, on Saturday, favored by a visit from James Fleming, Collin's Bay, R.R. No. 3, who came in for the purpose of paying his fifty-sixth subscription to the British Whig.

Mr. Fleming was born on Amherst Island and came to the main land when about eighteen years old, settling near Collin's Bay. When he was twenty-seven years of age he subscribed to the Weekly British Whig. The paper was printed on Bagot street under the guidance of Dr. Barker. Mr. Fleming has been a Whig reader ever since and is now eighty-three years of age.

Before leaving the building the Whig's visitor asked to see the big newspaper press and expressed his admiration for its perfection.

NOTES FROM WELLINGTON.

Thankoffering Services in the M. E. Church on Sunday.

Wellington, Dec. 10.—Garfield Shepherd returned to Peterborough after a visit at Mr. and Mrs. R. Morrison's, Vernon Smith who has been seriously ill at Toronto, returned home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Elsa Turrell and Mrs. Isa Palmer, of Wooler, attended the Friends Quarterly Meeting this week here. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen White, of Bloomfield, attended the quarterly meeting here on Sunday last.

Arthur King, who underwent a serious operation at the Picton hospital recently, is home and doing fine. Mrs. Sam McGowan has gone to California to spend the winter.
