Nervous Breakdown COULDN'T SLEEP NIGHTS

To those on the verge of a nervous breakdown the following symptoms present themselves; nervous—headaches, a feeling of depression, fitful, disturbed, restless and unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with frightful dreams, avoidance of crowded places, dread of being alone, horror of society, etc.

When the nerves become affected in this way the heart generally becomes affected too, and on the first signs of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown do not wait until your case becomes hopeless, but get a remedy that will at once quieten the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system.

This you will find in—

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. M. Damand, Young's Cove Road, N. B., writes:—"I was bothered very much with my heart and nerves; had nervous headaches and dizziness, could not sleep at nights, and my appetite was all gone. I was on a nervous breakdown when a neighbor told me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This I did, and before I had the second box used I was better and would advise anyone who has nerve trouble to take them."

Price, 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A Closing Festivity.

Loss to a Family.
Much sympathy is felt with Mr. and Mrs. George Haylock, Picton, in the loss of their only son, Fred, a young man of great promise. Previous to the war he followed the profession of teaching in which he was eminently successful, but resigned his position in order to do his bit in the great struggle. At its close he returned home with health much impaired, and gradually declining, entered into rest last Saturday morning.

Brought to Hospital.
Leo Pearson, Tamworth druggist, and war veteran, who was arrested last week on a theft charge preferred at Guelph, was brought to the Kingston General Hospital on Monday for treatment. Pearson felt his position so keenly that he took poison in the Tweed lockup, but doctors saved his life. It is understood that the charge against him is over a difference of $22, which he declares he turned in. The matter may be adjusted.

It Was Only a Mouse.
There was quite a commotion in the city buildings on Saturday when two young lady members of the municipal staff appealed for help. They had seen so they declared, a strange animal of large dimensions in their office, and its eyes were fierce. The caretaker and the assistant engineer hurried to the scene with weapons, and after the attack they found the cause of the excitement to be a small mouse, which measured one inch in length, so civic officials swear.

Died in His Sleep.
Although known to be in poor health few thought that the end was so near for Joseph McFarlane, Carleton Place, so when the announcement was made that he had passed away Friday afternoon last the news came as a decided shock. Born in Drummond in March, 1855, Mr. McFarlane was in his sixty-seventh year. He was a son of the late John McFarlane whose father was one of the pioneer settlers of Drummond township.

Y.M.C.A. Gift Service.

Two Turkeys Equal One Cow.
At current market prices an ordinary cow is worth no more than two turkeys, according to the estimate of values made by Councillor T. S. Baker, Campbellford, who has already shipped six tons of turkeys to Montreal and Toronto. "What are known as canners" in the cattle trade are selling around $10 and $12 each," said Mr. Baker, "and turkeys at forty-five and fifty cents a pound. I have been paying forty-five cents to the farmer for the bulk of the turkeys I've bought and the average turkey weighs eleven or twelve pounds. So two twelve pound turkeys at fifty cents a pound bring $12 to the farmer and that's just the price a lot of cattle are selling for." Mr. Baker said he had paid $57.15 for seven turkeys which he bought from John Buchanan of Seymour township.
