Constables Recover the Plunder—Guilty Boys to be Thrashed.

Two twelve-year-old boys, who should have been at church or at their homes, secured an entrance to St. Mary's school on Sunday night, and made off with seven hundred rounds of ammunition, which is used by the school cadets in their shooting. However, thanks to the good work of Constables Mullinger and Timmerman the plunder was recovered the same night, and the two guilty parties rounded up.

In the juvenile court on Monday morning the case was disposed of. The two lads are to be given a dose of the cat-o-nine tails on Saturday next.
