THE RETAIL MEN DINE

gather into one great family with one head. The war brought us closer together and the spirit of kinship was formed and we are closer, though separated by flood and time. We earnestly hope that the new state (Ireland) may be drawn closer to the centre by reason of the recent achievement in nationhood and guided by our experience follow our example.

Toast to Association
Albert Patterson, ex-mayor of Brockville, proposed the toast to the Retail Merchants Association which he described as the greatest organization in Canada. He complimented the merchants upon such a fine gathering which gave an impression of what Canadians should be, for here we learn what it is to be a good Canadian. He told of the early efforts to form the association which were not always encouraging, but today the membership is 1,500 and it is soon to be 2,500. This depends upon the men who are now members. Some say, "How does it benefit me?" To that I say we help to extend its usefulness by being members working together.

Henry Wetters, district president, responded and gave an exhaustive review of the association and work, since it last met in Kingston twenty years ago. "I am glad Dr. Ross' is here as he may be of some help to us if he is a member of His Majesty's loyal opposition."
We look forward to a return to parliamentary government as many enactments effecting business have been the work of officials governed by regulations of the departments. Many factors of our business cannot be made problems of politics. We are not looking for special favors, but we are a part of the industrial system of this country as distributors. We must recognize this for our class is not organized politically. The arguments of agriculture, labor and transportation apply equally to distribution without which agriculture would be of little use. There is no more reason for an agricultural political party than for a distributing, a transportation or other occupational party. I am sure Gen. Ross will agree with me that away down in our biological organization there is a law of interrelation, and we believe that there are but two political principles as expressed in Conservatism and Liberalism or reform and reaction. They are always necessary but never indispensable.

To Help Promote Trade.
We should endow our new-comers with all the privileges of citizenship. We believe that the Retail Merchants' Association is just as important as any other branch and must insist upon recognition of our interests and we are obliged to go to the government from time to time and press our claims for amelioration of the conditions of which we complain. We hope by means of organizations of this kind to promote everything in the interest of the best methods and measures in trade, and to eliminate undesirable tendencies on the part of merchants such as cut-rates tendencies prevalent at the present time. We are against such methods as a matter of self-defence as well as in the interests of society which should take these things to heart as things which affect its interests. It is a problem in economics as expressed by a noted economist at Harvard University when he said "overhead expense must always be considered," and before all other elements of cost, must always be considered. Week-end sales at cut rates are not sound economics. They are a loss to society. We must transform unsound thinking into sound thinking. There is no gain to business by the practice of methods that are costly and wasteful. The speaker reviewed the history of the defunct board of commerce and while he was aware of its inefficiency, some method of investigation into complaints and charges should be devised in the interest of legitimate business and the public and that offenders might be brought to justice. Business should be conducted along sound moral lines.

The toast of "Our guests" was proposed by R. J. Rodger and responded to by Mayor S. S. Corbett, Bryan White, Ottawa, Mr. Zeeman, Preston, W. C. Miller, provincial secretary, Toronto. Mr. Zeeman told of the benefits of the association to the retail merchants who represented more capital and paid more taxes than any other business in Canada today. Mr. Miller spoke on legislation and Mr. White invited all to attend the Ottawa winter carnival.

Township Councils

STORRINGTON.
Sunbury, Jan. 9th.—The members of the new council subscribed to the oath of office: John Taylor, Reeve; Bert Ball, Carmen O. Drader, Robert Gibson and George McFarlane, councillors. Minutes of former meeting confirmed. On motion, Gibson-Drader, motion No. 6 of the meeting of Dec. 15th, 1921, was rescinded, and was resolved to authorize the township treasurer to pay to the treasurer of S. S. No. 12, Storrington, $50, being the balance of the general township grant, 1921. Application for the office of assessor for the year 1922 at a salary of $100 were received from A. N. McCallum and on motion of Drader and Balls, the application was accepted. On motion, McFarlane-Gibson, the following appointments were made for 1922: sheep valuers, M. B. Traves, James Dixon, Kora Darling and Reuben Clarke; Board of Health, A. E. Freeman, M. D., John Taylor, Charles Sleeth, Everett Teepell and Harold W. Sleeth, truant officer, Charles Sleeth. The reeve was authorized to engage a chartered accountant to audit the township account of 1921. A letter from the Prov. Sec., H. C. Nixon, was read, and on motion of Gibson and Drader, this Council went on record as being in favor of (1) extending the franchise to the wife, husband, sons, daughters, etc., residing with the person possessing the necessary qualification, to vote at municipal elections; (2) that the township of 1,000 voters be given a first deputy reeve, township with 1,500 voters be given second deputy reeve, township with 2,000 voters be given a third deputy reeve; (3) that a municipality must have 500 voters to be entitled to be represented by a reeve, at the county council, and that the taxpayers of 1922, who have a dog when the assessor calls, shall pay a dog tax and there shall be no refund thereafter.

McFarlane and Balls moved that all money ordered paid by the Board of Health, 1921, and which can be recovered by the township, be ordered paid back to the township treasurer, and that the Clerk notify each party of the same. Balls and Drader resolved that the Clerk call for tenders which close March 15th next, for crushing stone per ton, and delivering it on the road in 1922, the township to furnish the crusher, bin and wagons and a competent man to spread the stone; the lowest tender not necessarily accepted. On motion of Gibson and Drader, the township account was ordered to be taken from the Bank of Montreal and placed in the Standard Bank, and the treasurer be authorized to make the transfer. Gibson and McFarlane ordered that Thomas Anderson be paid $2.00 for services as sheep valuator in 1921, and that the following bills be paid: British Whig, $90; 1922 bill of election, four polling sub, at $11.50 each, and returning officer, $10, total $56. On motion of McFarlane and Drader, Balls and McFarlane moved that the minutes be printed in The Standard and The Whig. Balls and Drader moved that the township treasurer pay the county treasurer $2,320, raised by the special township tax in 1921, and that by-law No. 500 be given a first, second and third reading, and passed, being a by-law to borrow $7,200 from the Standard Bank to complete paying the county debt, and therefore save 2 per cent. interest by so doing. By-law No. 499 was read the third time and passed. Balls and McFarlane ordered the township treasurer to pay the county treasurer $7,197.23, being the balance of the principal of the county debt.
