GOOD FAIRY STILL ALIVE

Splendor of Arabian Nights Outshone For Princess Mary.

London, Jan. 19.—Day by day, as the details of the wedding presents for the Princess Mary are made public, it becomes apparent that the lavish splendor of the Arabian Nights is not yet over and the Good Fairy of Hans Anderson's tales is still alive.

Jewels, furs, automobiles, precious antiques and money in thousands from rich corporations and in six-penny pieces from working men and women—all are to be poured into the lap of the royal bride.

All the big cities of Great Britain are offering gifts of money, which the Princess in most cases, has requested should be devoted to various charities. Manchester is raising a 1,000,000 shilling fund, 30,000 of which already is subscribed. The final collection will be taken on the night of the princess' wedding, when the city corporation is planning a huge dance. The money will be used to develop the district nursing service.

The Lord Mayor of Birmingham has also started a shilling fund. A small part of it will be used to purchase a gift typical of Birmingham workmanship; the remainder, in accordance with Mary's wishes, will be used to endow a Princess Mary Cote in the Birmingham Children's hospital.

A portion of the sum being raised by the city of Reading will be used to enlarge and equip the Girls' Hospital there, which will bear the Princess' name.

Replying to a letter from the Lord Mayor of Liverpool, the Princess said she would like the city to give her "A plain narrow diamond bracelet." It seems certain such pieces of jewelry will now become fashionable among rich society this winter, as has the emerald engagement ring since Viscount Lascelles gave one to the Princess.

The Lord Mayor of London has opened a fund, subscription limited to a maximum of one pound. A portion of this at least will be devoted to charity. It is expected many of the rich old London guilds, such as Gold and Silversmiths', Fishmongers', Haberdashers', Tailors' etc., will come forward with handsome presents.

CARNIVAL AT CATARAQUI.

Was a Very Gay Event—The Winners of Prizes.

Cataraqui, Jan. 16.—A pleasant event took place at Cataraqui last Thursday night, when the Community Club held a successful carnival at the new open air rink. About 7.30 groups of merry boys and girls garbed in the various hues of the rainbow, could be seen wending their way over the brow of the hill towards the rink. By 8 p.m. the ice was thronged by a brilliant array of gaily dressed people. It was easily foreseen that the judging would be most difficult. Among the costumes noted were: Santa Claus, who towered head and shoulders above the crowd, and made one think of plum pudding, turkey and everything else that goes with Christmas; an Indian

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally That Nobody Can Tell.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You must dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

CHILDREN'S COUGHS COLDS CROUP

Quickly respond to the antiseptic, healing virtues of Geero Wormwood Balm—and the children like it too, for it never smart or burns and cannot irritate or blister.

Don't wait until Baby is all tight-ened up with a cold, or is strangling or gasping for breath. Prevent need, less suffering. At the very first sign—use Geero Wormwood Balm, a pleasant rub in, pain-killing cream, that reduces inflammation, scatters congestion, relieves irritation and loosens the phlegm—Soothes and comforts the minute you put it on. Ask your Doctor about Geero Wormwood Balm, which contains among other things—Wormwood, Eucalyptus, Camphor, Menthol, Benzoin. Fine. Any good druggist can supply you.

girl attracted much attention, while a negro dude and his colored wife made much merriment; two children as Jack Frost and his wife were greatly admired; "Hard Times," "Folly," "The Stars and Stripes," were well represented. Several clowns made the scene lively. Some gentlemen dressed as members of the fair sex, played their part extremely well and it was late in the evening before they were discovered to be "men."

About 8.30 p.m. the judging commenced. The first event was the race for boys under fourteen years of age. The children took part with a zest and vim, which inspired their elders. This race was closely contested, the prize being carried off by Alfred Baker. It was a jack knife donated by Ernest Cooke. Then came the race for girls under fourteen, which was contested equally as well. Miss Theima Morley won the prize, a box of chocolates, donated by Ernest Cooke. The judging of the grown-ups came next. The judges were all from the city and were: Frank Kinnear of the firm of Kinnear and d'Esterre; ex-Mayor Newman, of the firm of Newman Electric Co., and Dr. Knapp, dentist. It was a very trying time indeed for the worthy judges, and it was sometime before the winners were finally decided upon.

The prize for the best lady skater was awarded to Miss Hyacinth Smith of the staff of the Merchants Bank, Kingston. This prize was a box of chocolates and was donated by Ernest Cooke. The prize for the best gentleman skater went to Harold Simpson, Cataraqui. This was a box of chocolates, donated by Mr. Wise. The prize for the best lady's costume was a beautiful handkerchief, donated by Newman & Shaw, Kingston; and was won by Miss Beryl Arthur, 33 Stanley street, Kingston. The prize for the best gentleman's costume went to Bernard Curran, Cataraqui. It was a box of linen handkerchiefs, donated by Canon and Mrs. Smith, Cataraqui. The prize winning lady's costume was "Folly," and was very beautiful indeed. The gentleman's costume was Sir Walter Raleigh.

At the close of the judging the prizes were presented to the winners by Miss M. Sigsworth, president of the Community Club. After the distribution of the prizes, skating was indulged in for a couple of hours. A pleasing feature of the evening was the little tent, which stood close beside the rink and which sent forth the savory odor of coffee to the hungry skaters, who frequented its cosy interior. Inside, the ladies of the Club sold sandwiches and coffee and were well patronized by crowd. The receipts of the evening amounted to $30. This is almost the first carnival of the season, and proved a very great success. Cataraqui has a very splendid open air rink, with all indications of a successful season of skating. This rink should prove a very enticing spot to the citizens of Kingston, who enjoy getting out into the invigorating fresh air of the country for an evening's skate.

ATHENS NEW BANK BUILDING

Family Released From Quarantine—Pastor's Farewell Sermon.

Athens, Jan. 16.—Wilbert Chapman, has moved to the Chivers' property, Main street. Raymond Brese, who recently purchased the grocery business of Joseph Thompson, has moved his family to the Johnston house, Main street, east. S. Coon, Elgin, who recently purchased the bakery business of Norton Scott, is now installed in the new premises.

The new Merchants' Bank building has been completed and was opened to the public a week or so ago. It is commodious, convenient and beautifully finished, the fittings being harmonious and artistic. The manager, W. D. Thomas, and family have moved to their new apartments over the bank.

Mr. Lawson, Harlem, has leased the Wilsee street property of Joseph Kerr, Elgin.

Beaumont Kelly has quite recovered from an attack of scarlet fever, and, as no new cases have developed the family will be released from quarantine to-day. Miss Nellie will resume her teaching at Dobbs' Settlement, and Miss Geraldine at Hard Island where Mrs. E. Eaton has been substituting.

Rev. A. E. Nichols, pastor of the local Baptist church for the past two years, preached his farewell sermon on Sabbath last, and left a Thursday for his new field at North Bay. Mr. Nichols was a splendid citizen one held in the highest esteem by all denominations, and will be greatly missed. His family will remain here for a couple of weeks longer.

Rev. C. J. Curtis occupied the Methodist pulpit on the 8th inst. during the absence of the pastor. Special evangelistic services have been in progress in the Holiness Movement church during the past week with Rev. W. C. Reed, Lyn, in charge.

Accident at Bunker Hill.

Bunker Hill, Jan. 16.—James J. Wilson had the misfortune to get one of his legs broken by a log rolling against it. Mrs. D. McGowan is on the sick list. H. Arket, Bloomfield, is spending a few days with friends here. A meeting was held in the church on Sunday. There is lots of snow for sleighing. F. Leaman is sawing wood in this vicinity.

World's Largest School.

Rochester, N.Y., Jan. 19.—Plans filed with the superintendent of buildings provide for probably the largest single school building in the world. It will cover three and three-quarters acres, have 211 rooms and 3 stage twice as large as that in the biggest theater building here. Its estimated cost is $4,000,000.
