

THE BRITISH WHIG
80TH YEAR.

Published Daily and Semi-Weekly by THE BRITISH WHIG PUBLISHING CO., LIMITED

J. G. Elliott, Editor and Managing Director

Business Offices: 243
Editorial Rooms: 225
Job Office: 222

Subscription Rates: (Daily Edition) One year, delivered in city $4.00

OUT-OF-TOWN REPRESENTATIVES: F. Calder, 25 St. John St., Montreal

Letters to the Editor are published only over the actual name of the writer.

Attached is one of the best job printing offices in Canada.

The circulation of THE BRITISH WHIG is authenticated by the ABC Audit Bureau of Circulations.

ARTIC AS SUMMER RESORT.

Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, says that what we have been told in books about that region is mostly false.

One will find in Mr. Stefansson's new book, "The Friendly Arctic," issued by the Macmillan Company of Canada, Toronto, a number of suggestions as to the use that may be made of the polar regions.

But why would not the Arctic territory be a suitable location for summer resorts after aerial transportation has been developed sufficiently to render it possible to make the journey in a day or two?

A VICTORY FOR THE PRINCE.

The Prince of Wales, in his tour of India, has once again proven that he has a winning personality, and that he has the power to win enemies over to his side by his sheer manliness, courage and tact.

The record of the tour through India has been its complete vindication, for it has brought a remarkable change in the attitude of the natives.

Every child comes into the world endowed with liberty, opportunity and a share of the war debt.

When the world's arms are cast into the sea, we trust the jingoes will stand by their guns.

Of course we'll stick to France, but she has gone so far now that it may be a little difficult to catch up.

The Irish have yet to learn that there is considerable difference between a Free State and a state of freedom.

Well, when the ships are scrapped we can salute visiting royalty by waving a plowshare twenty-one times.

An enthusiast says Russia is "a mess for the closer study of democracy." He probably means pestilence.

When you talk to the haughty clerk in the outer office, you are almost afraid to ask for his "superior."

and further into economic chaos.

There never has been a time in history when the commercial and financial affairs have been so topsy-turvy.

The most widespread result of the financial situation throughout the world has been the cessation of commerce and trade.

The problem before the Genoa conference is to find such a basis and to put into practice some method whereby it may be securely established.

It is a stupendous task, but with the nations in a proper frame of mind, it can be accomplished.

Dear Sam: Speaking of success, it has been my observation that it often depends not so much on what a man knows as whom he knows.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

Dear Sam: Speaking of success, it has been my observation that it often depends not so much on what a man knows as whom he knows.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

Dear Sam: All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY

DELIVERANCE AT HAND:—I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him.—Psalm 91:15

The Precocious Kid. They had been having a safety first week in the schools.

Horicultural Note. She was the apple of his eye. His talk was mostly wash.

Ho, Hum! "DEATH LURKS IN MOONSHINE," warns a dry official.

A Sad Fact. "Do you believe in the survival of the fittest?" asked Miss Bluestocking.

Fool Questions. F. D. asks: "Could an eye specialist remove the cataract from a stream?"

More Truth Than Poetry. Dear Sam: Speaking of success, it has been my observation that it often depends not so much on what a man knows as whom he knows.

Men's Brate! "It says here that the average walking pace of a healthy woman is about seventy-five steps a minute," remarked Mrs. Reid.

Daily Sentence Sermon. If you are not a good musician don't attempt to blow your own horn.

News of the Names Club. W. S. asks if the club knows Otto B. Goodman, of Ft. Worth. Well, we know a lot of men who ought to be.

Is That So! Dear Sam—All raised money isn't bad. I often have raised money that was perfectly good, but I will admit I had a bad time trying to raise it.

More Vanity Case Than Pen. Two recently patented fountain pens carry blating pads and rouge pencils in their caps.—News item.

Medical men are unanimous in their belief that Buchanan died of strychnine poisoning, and strychnine is not an ingredient of any beauty powder.

The police are now satisfied that the death package was sent with one idea—to kill the person to whom it was sent. That person was Mrs. Buchanan.

It was a woman's mind that conceived the idea of sending poison in such a way by mail, said a well-known detective official today.

BIBBY'S SPECIAL $18.50 SUIT SALE. 100 Men's and Young Men's models, splendidly tailored garments; all new models; no has beens in the lot. Sizes 34 to 44. Dressy dark Grey Cheviots, dark Green Cheviots, some plain Blue Serges and Fancy Worsteds.

The Best Skaters. are using the Skates that we are offering to the sport and pleasure-seeking skaters. Our Skates are without an equal. Our prices without a parallel. HOCKEY STICKS, PUCKS, STRAPS. We have a Club Rate for Hockey Sticks.

MOORE'S 'PHONE 815. PANDORA RANGE AT REDUCED PRICE. BUNT'S Hardware, King St.

MINISTER FOR ECONOMY. Calls for Money, If Granted, Would Ruin Manitoba. Urging economy in public improvement this year Hon. C. D. McPherson, provincial minister of public works, informed the 18th annual convention of the Union of Manitoba Municipalities here yesterday that if all requests new works, for revenues to municipalities and for relieving taxation were granted, the province would be bankrupt practically and would be unable to meet even interest charges.

Jas. REDDEN & Co. The House of Satisfaction. Phones 20 and 990. German Toys Dumped in Britain. London, Jan. 20.—Owing to complaints from British manufacturers that German toys are sold in Great Britain below prices at which similar goods can profitably be made in this country, in consequence of the depreciation of German currency, the British Board of Trade has appointed a committee to consider the question of imposing on such toys a special duty under the provisions of the Safeguarding of Industries Act.

Crawford Coal. YES, our coal will make you merry in January and also in February and you will forward March to April in a pleasant frame of mind if you burn our coal. Now that is promising a lot but you just try it.

Our Canadian Question And Answer Corner

Q.—What did Canada's 700,000 farms produce in 1922? A.—Canada's 700,000 farms produced in field crops in 1922, 1,496,824,000 bushel of grain valued at $1,017,675,400—a greater quantity at less value than in 1920.

Q.—Are there any women members of parliament or legislatures in Canada? If so, whom? A.—There are several women legislators in Canada, viz. five in legislatures, Mrs. Ralph Smith, C.; Mrs. McKinney, Alberta; M. S. McAdams, Alberta; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Alberta; Mrs. Rodgers, Manitoba. Miss McPhail, house of commons.

Q.—How old is the dominion of Canada? A.—The dominion of Canada is 55 years old, or from 1867 to 1922.

Q.—What is Canada's merchant marine? A.—There are several women legislators in Canada, viz. five in legislatures, Mrs. Ralph Smith, C.; Mrs. McKinney, Alberta; M. S. McAdams, Alberta; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Alberta; Mrs. Rodgers, Manitoba. Miss McPhail, house of commons.

Q.—How old is the dominion of Canada? A.—The dominion of Canada is 55 years old, or from 1867 to 1922.

Q.—What is Canada's merchant marine? A.—There are several women legislators in Canada, viz. five in legislatures, Mrs. Ralph Smith, C.; Mrs. McKinney, Alberta; M. S. McAdams, Alberta; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Alberta; Mrs. Rodgers, Manitoba. Miss McPhail, house of commons.

Q.—How old is the dominion of Canada? A.—The dominion of Canada is 55 years old, or from 1867 to 1922.

Q.—What is Canada's merchant marine? A.—There are several women legislators in Canada, viz. five in legislatures, Mrs. Ralph Smith, C.; Mrs. McKinney, Alberta; M. S. McAdams, Alberta; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Alberta; Mrs. Rodgers, Manitoba. Miss McPhail, house of commons.

POISON FOR THE MOTHER IS THE POLICE THEORY. In Connection With the Death of Anderson Buchanan at Toronto.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—That Anderson Buchanan is dead by misadventure because someone was seeking to poison his mother, is the only theory which would account for the "beauty powder" tragedy.

Medical men are unanimous in their belief that Buchanan died of strychnine poisoning, and strychnine is not an ingredient of any beauty powder.

The police are now satisfied that the death package was sent with one idea—to kill the person to whom it was sent. That person was Mrs. Buchanan.

It was a woman's mind that conceived the idea of sending poison in such a way by mail, said a well-known detective official today.

When the packet containing the mystery powder was thrown into the fire by Mrs. Buchanan some vital evidence in the case was destroyed.

The inquest was adjourned until the 24th inst. It was only by chance that deceased's 13-year-old sister, Marjorie, herself did not take the powder, or that it was not shared between herself and her brother.

Walt Mason THE POET PHILOSOPHER. GOOD INTENTIONS. I know not what my neighbors say as I pursue my plan, and undisturbed I go my way, and do the best I can. I know that no man is so wise, so virtuous or grand, that he will not be carping guys be criticized, and panned. And so I strive to do what's right, and care no whoop or hoot if what I do stirs up the spite of any cheap gale.

Q.—How old is the dominion of Canada? A.—The dominion of Canada is 55 years old, or from 1867 to 1922.

Q.—What is Canada's merchant marine? A.—There are several women legislators in Canada, viz. five in legislatures, Mrs. Ralph Smith, C.; Mrs. McKinney, Alberta; M. S. McAdams, Alberta; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Alberta; Mrs. Rodgers, Manitoba. Miss McPhail, house of commons.

Q.—How old is the dominion of Canada? A.—The dominion of Canada is 55 years old, or from 1867 to 1922.

Q.—What is Canada's merchant marine? A.—There are several women legislators in Canada, viz. five in legislatures, Mrs. Ralph Smith, C.; Mrs. McKinney, Alberta; M. S. McAdams, Alberta; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Alberta; Mrs. Rodgers, Manitoba. Miss McPhail, house of commons.

Q.—How old is the dominion of Canada? A.—The dominion of Canada is 55 years old, or from 1867 to 1922.

Q.—What is Canada's merchant marine? A.—There are several women legislators in Canada, viz. five in legislatures, Mrs. Ralph Smith, C.; Mrs. McKinney, Alberta; M. S. McAdams, Alberta; Mrs. Nellie McClung, Alberta; Mrs. Rodgers, Manitoba. Miss McPhail, house of commons.

The reward of a thing well done, is to have done it.—Emerson.

Peace may not be assured, but we have peace treaties that pass understanding.

That Far Eastern problem is largely one of keeping the best of China for guests.

Now if Lloyd George wants a man's size job, let him pacify the Irish in New York.

Another little need of the times is something to get the bonds of matrimony back to par.

There are still hot-heads in the navies; but a sinking spell will lower their temperature.

The opening number of this season's concert of the Powers will be "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

When the world's arms are cast into the sea, we trust the jingoes will stand by their guns.

Of course we'll stick to France, but she has gone so far now that it may be a little difficult to catch up.

Still, the next war might not impose such a heavy burden upon us. We might not win it.

The Irish have yet to learn that there is considerable difference between a Free State and a state of freedom.

Every child comes into the world endowed with liberty, opportunity and a share of the war debt.

When the world's arms are cast into the sea, we trust the jingoes will stand by their guns.

Of course we'll stick to France, but she has gone so far now that it may be a little difficult to catch up.

Still, the next war might not impose such a heavy burden upon us. We might not win it.

The Irish have yet to learn that there is considerable difference between a Free State and a state of freedom.

The germ culture may figure in the next war, as Irwin says, but agriculture will again be the deciding factor.

Well, when the ships are scrapped we can salute visiting royalty by waving a plowshare twenty-one times.

An enthusiast says Russia is "a mess for the closer study of democracy." He probably means pestilence.

When you talk to the haughty clerk in the outer office, you are almost afraid to ask for his "superior."

When you talk to the haughty clerk in the outer office, you are almost afraid to ask for his "superior."

When you talk to the haughty clerk in the outer office, you are almost afraid to ask for his "superior."