Looking for his Money.
A Kingston man was kind enough on Monday to pay a sum of money for a young man who was in trouble in a police court case. The young man was later on taken into custody on another charge and now the Kingston man is wondering when he will get his money back. As many were out of work the taxes could not be paid as promptly as in other years. Clerk Sampson stated that all outstanding taxes for some five or six years past amounted on Dec. 15th to around $19,000.

Removing Surplus Snow.
The surplus snow on the city streets is being drawn off by a number of workmen employed by the city, thus removing this serious hindrance to traffic. During the past two weeks, the snow has been piling

Spoke on "True Greatness."
Rev. A. F. Brown was the speaker at the men's bible class at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening and gave a stirring address on "True Greatness." The speaker reviewed the lives of a number of great men, among these being that of David Livingstone, "the humble weaver who rose high in the ranks of the nation," and whose deeds will always live. He appealed to the young men to strive to leave some heritage that would live on long after they had passed along, and stated that it was possible for even the humblest to make his contribution to his day and generation.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the speaker, whose words were indeed food for thought among the young men in the audience. The remarks of Mr. Brown will make a splendid background for a series of biographical addresses which will be given during the future meetings.
