Vegetables of one's own raising are not relished—those from other gardens are the best. The heart is like a horse on the level plain, easily loosed, but restrained with difficulty.

ALONG LIFE'S DETOUR

BY SAM HILL

Ho, Hum!
The styles have surely changed—
For, once, her clothes did fit
A lady's graceful form,
But now they just show it!

Observations of Oldest Inhabitant.
I kin remember when the automobiles had a door in the rear of the machine and you had to buy the top separate from the car.

More Truth Than Poetry.
"It's pitiful the amount of want there is in this great land of ours," remarked Brown.
"Why the gloom?" asked Smith.
"None of us is starving to death."
"I wasn't thinking of the poverty, but the fact every fool I meet wants something he can't get," replied Brown.

Some Slick.
His name was Willie Slick.
Her name was Ima Blue—
He pressed her to his frame and said,
"My dear, I'm stuck on you."
—G. N. S.

Officer, Do Your Duty!
"Horses in Iceland are shot with sheep's horn," remarked the Wise Guy.
"I see, every horse over there needs a shoe horn, eh?" grinned the Roubidoux.

Poetical Warning and Advertisement Combined.
(Sign seen at the entrance to a village in Miami Valley)
Just speed 'n' you'll speed to jail!
What's more we'll get your kale—
Drive slow and see our date.
There's lots of it for sale.

Except Under the Gaze of the Men
"Pa, could you call my stockings underwear?" asked Johnnie.
"No properly, son, for you see they no longer wear them under any thing," replied his wise Dad.

That's Saying a Monthful.
"Dear Sam, if you ain't in debt you ain't in business no more."
"Uncle Samuel!"

Pool Questions.
P. G. asks: "In these trade relations we hear so much about who sets the worst of the swap?" The ones who get the poor relations, we suppose.

Still, She Often Feels It Does Not Do Her Justice.
After a homely girl has been given an earful of flattery by a male friend she is convinced her mirror is a liar.—Sam Hill. It is usually the good-looking girl who can have the fullest confidence in her mirror.—Canton (Ohio) News.

Walter, Bring on the Maple Syrup!
"Dear Sam: Did you know I M Pancake is President of the Board of Education of Williamsville, Ill.?"
Cincinnati Reader.

Has Had Case.
He's sure "gas" on his girl.
This fact he plainly shows—
For when he comes to call
It seems he never goes.

A Regular Tyrant.
"You do not buy books any more, what's the matter?" asked the book stall man.
"No, I have just one book now that prohibits my buying any others," replied his former customer.
"What book is that?" asked the book stall man.
"My pocketbook," sadly murmured his former customer.

Daily Sentence Sermon.
Only brag when you have something to brag about and you won't need much time to do all the bragging you'll have to do.

There Ought To Be Plenty of Calories in That Kind of Marriage.
J. W. Fried sends this one, which he clipped from the Cleveland (Ohio) News:

REDHEADS CAN MARRY
L. R. writes: "I kindly tell me if there any reason why redheaded people should not marry?"
"2. Would our children be redheaded?"

REPLY.
1. No.
2. Most of them would be. Say ten out of the first dozen.

Shannon-Dwyer Wedding.

St. James' chapel, Kingston, was the scene of a quiet wedding, Jan. 30th, when Miss Mary Dwyer, graduate nurse of St. Vincent's hospital, New York, became the bride of Frank J. Shannon, Read, Ont. The bride looked charming in a navy tricotine suit with white crope-de-chene blouse with Irish crochet collar, and smart pearl grey satin hat. The young couple were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Frances Dwyer, Napanee, who wore a blue suit with sable fur and rose duvetyne hat, and Jack Farrell, a friend of the groom. The wedding party breakfasted at the Britannic hotel and left for Rochester, N.Y., where they will visit the bride's brother.

WINTER WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Our Canadian winters are exceedingly hard on the health of little ones. The weather is often so severe that the mother cannot take the little ones out for an airing. The consequence is that baby is confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms; takes cold and becomes cross and peevish. Baby's Own Tablets should be given to keep the little ones healthy. They are a mild laxative, which regulate the stomach and bowels and thus prevent colds. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. Robert Colville Passed Away.
Annie McNeill, beloved wife of Robert Colville, Bath, passed away after an illness of nearly two years on Jan. 28th. She was born in Ireland fifty-eight years ago, and she leaves behind her husband and two sons, Samuel and Fred; also two brothers, W. J. McNeill, Cohoes, N. Y., and Samuel, Toronto; and three sisters, Mrs. Alex. Slater, Erie, Pa.; Mrs. Joseph Fuller, Kingston; and Mrs. James McTaggart, Napanee.

When a city gate is burning the fishes in the moat suffer, too.
