New green cabbage, Carnovsky's. Mr. Swaine, piano tuner, orders received at 100 Clergy street w. Phone 464.

Monday was without doubt one of the most disagreeable days of the winter season.

Look wisely ahead and buy at James Reid's big clearing furniture sale.

The weather man in dealing out Monday's weather overlooked the fact that an election was being held in Kingston.

William Bourke, a former well-known Kingstonian, now of St. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec, spent the weekend in the city and had the pleasure of renewing old acquaintances.

Why is James Reid's big clearing furniture sale such a whirlwind success? Numerous bargains.

R. E. Goswell, Ottawa, has a four column criticism in the Montreal Herald of Prof. Sketon's "Life and Letters of Sir Wilfred Laurier." He declares it is too partisan and that it is "an admirable and very complete digest of Liberal politics during that period in which Sir Wilfred is the most picturesque and outstanding figure."
