INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

Racy Local News and Items of General Public Interest.

The flag on the city hall flew on Wednesday in honor of St. David's day.

Mr. Swaine, piano tuner, orders received at 100 Clergy street w. Phone 5644.

Mrs. G. J. Ranger underwent a critical operation at the Hotel Dieu on Tuesday night, and is resting as well as can be expected.

The first day of March came in like a lamb, so look out for rough weather at the tail end of the month.

There was no session of the police court on Wednesday. Everything was reported quiet in police circles.

Roland Denne, Peterboro, brother of Mrs. W. H. Graham, "The Wellington Apartments," fell on Monday and broke an arm.

You will find their news in this paper's store advertisements.

The store offerings are for everybody—not just a select few.

The congregation of All Saints' Cathedral, Halifax, presented the Rev. S. B. G. Wright, who is leaving for Ontario, with a purse of gold.

The fine of $200 and costs imposed on a woman in police court on Tuesday, for "having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling" was paid.

Rev. Mr. Dixon, pastor of the Anglican church at Amherst Island, has returned to Stella, after spending a few days on business in Kingston.

On Wednesday morning the city engineer had a gang of men sanding the sidewalks. In many places the walks were very slippery on account of the water freezing up on Tuesday night.

The name of M. A. Donnelly was given on the committee of management for the dance held by the post office employees. Mr. Donnelly states he was not a member of the committee.

Many of the farmers in the district are storing ice this winter, as a result of their experience last summer during the long spell of hot weather. A good supply of ice helps greatly in the storage of milk on the dairy-farm.

The Brockville Recorder and Times wishes Claude L. Gordon, who is coming to Kingston to succeed Mr. S. Grace, "the best of success in his new surroundings, the regret being that his advancement takes him away from his old friends and customers."

Merchants buy in the best markets. That is a good rule for home or office purchasing. Buy in the best markets.

Capt. Vokes, of the Royal Military College, who recently prophesied an early spring and a victory for the cadets against Queen's, is very sad as a result of the outcome of his two "best bets." Now a professor of Queen's remarks that those "red woodpeckers" stay around here all winter, anyway.

CLARA BUTT'S CONCERT. There will not be one dull moment during the concert which Dame Butt, the contralto, Kennerley Rumford, baritone, and Daniel Meisa, the wonderful Polish violinist, will offer in Grant Hall on Monday, March 6th. With these such artists, variety in excellence, will be the key note. Dame Butt will sing all those songs which have proved most popular during her career, and those inimitable duets which she and Mr. Rumford render with such amusing grace and spontaneity. Rounded out by a violinist of Meisa's powers, the program can not but be most satisfying. Dame Butt will also sing some of her most famous Oratorio arias and sacred numbers. Tickets for Dame Butt's only concert in Kingston are now selling at Uglov's Bookstore, Princess street.

LENTEN SERVICES

In St. Mary's and St. George's Cathedral on Ash Wednesday.

Ash Wednesday was observed with special masses at 7 and 8 a.m. at St. Mary's Cathedral. Rev. Father Hanley officiated assisted by Rev. Father Lacey, and after the 8 o'clock mass Archbishop Spratt distributed the ashes. There were large congregations at both services, which marked the beginning of the season of Lent, during which services are to be conducted every Wednesday and Friday evenings.

At St. George's Cathedral. Ash Wednesday services were held at St. George's Cathedral, at 8 and 10 a.m., Dean Star officiating. The service consisted of the communion service, the litany and holy communion. There was a large attendance. At 4 and 8 p.m. Dean Star will officiate. A feature of the Lenten sermon will be a special mission.

PRESENTED WITH LAMP. M. S. Grace Was Remembered by the Knights of Columbus.

There was an interesting gathering on Tuesday evening, when the members of the Knights of Columbus presented M. S. Grace, a valuable member of this organization, with an electric table lamp, on the occasion of his leaving the city. Mr. Grace left on Wednesday for London, Ont., where he takes over the management of the Heintzman Piano Company.

Dr. Leonard Walsh made the presentation at the same time paying a warm tribute to Mr. Grace. Dr. W. Gibson also gave an address and other speakers included N. E. O'Connor, L. T. Welch and George Sullivan.
