IN THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S

Staff Elected for the Journal Next Year—Debate Committees Appointed.

At the regular meeting of the alma mater society held in Convocation hall on Saturday evening, the annual meetings of a number of the student organizations were held. The following staff was elected for the Journal for next year: Editor-in-chief, W. H. Becking; associate editors, H. P. Salter, V. A. James, Miss K. Lockhart; faculty reporters, C. H. Playfair, W. H. Birchard, J. M. Miller, Miss J. Sexsmith; business manager, J. Lansbury; news editor, C. A. Nicholson; sporting editor, R. F. Baird; assistant sporting editor, G. R. MacLachlan, E. M. Dolan, T. A. Brown; literary editor, E. Lyght; alumni editor, G. E. Flanagan; managing editor, A. F. Cross; assistant managing editor, E. R. Smith.

The editor of the Journal, L. Stevenson, gave the report of the paper, showing that it has had a very successful year. Next year it is hoped to increase the number of issues.

The debate committee was appointed as follows: Honorary I. U. D. L. representative, Prof. W. E. McNeill; student I. U. D. L. representative, F. A. Knox; president, E. W. Cross; secretary-treasurer, H. H. Joffe; staff members, Prof. O. D. Skelton, Clark, J. T. McNeill; student members, E. Lyght, G. Ellis, E. A. Filmer, J. E. Brookfield, E. R. Smith, J. W. Claxton, J. W. McKinnon. The debaters had a successful year, defeating Varsity and McGill in their group, but the eastern and western groups did not meet to decide the championship.

The Tennis club also held an annual meeting, when the following executive for next year was elected: honorary president, Prof. P. G. Campbell; president, C. Simpson; faculty representatives, R. C. Laird, I. MacLachlan, H. A. Jones.

The European students' relief fund campaign, which was carried out at Queen's during the winter, resulted in about $250 being raised.

It is proposed to give a dinner to the members of the successful hockey teams and at this event the "Q" emblems which were won as a result of the year's sports, will be presented.

The members of the boxing, wrestling, and fencing club are in training for the meet with Yale here on March 26th. The event is sure to draw a big attendance. It is expected to hold this event in the arena.

The students who have been members of the 5th Field Company, and of the O.T.C., have this week been returning their uniforms. For both units the season of training has been a most successful one. A large number qualified to write the certificate examinations by passing the practical

HAD BAD COUGH

AND SORE THROAT
Never neglect a cough or cold however slight. If you do it can have but one result: it leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. A single dose of

will help to stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs the healing virtues of the Norway pine tree along with the soothing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs, roots and barks promptly eradicate the bad effects, and the persistent use cannot but help to bring about relief.

Mr. Albert Marsh, Lower L'Ardoise, N. S., writes:—"About a year ago I contracted a cold accompanied by a very bad cough and sore throat. I sent for the doctor, but what he prescribed did me so little good I began to get discouraged. A friend came to see me and asked me if I had ever used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I told him I had not and sent him right away to get me a bottle. I started using it, and after a couple of days I found I was getting relief, and after taking two bottles the soreness in my throat seemed to be leaving me, so I resolved to continue its use, and after I had used five bottles both my sore throat and cough were gone. I would not be without "Dr. Wood's" for any money."

examinations. The examinations have been written but as the papers are sent to England to be examined the results will not be available for some months.

AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

One Hundred and Eighteenth Anniversary Was Celebrated on Sunday.

The one hundred and eighteenth anniversary of St. Andrew's church was observed by special services on Sunday, which were largely attended. Special music arranged by Henry Hill, choir director, was brilliantly rendered, and after the evening service a recital was given by talented vocal and instrumental artists. The space about the pulpit was decorated with beautiful flowers by members of the congregation. The troops of the Kingston garrison attended in a body and they included the R.C.H.A., the Heavy Battery, I. C.A., and the Gentlemen Cadets of the Royal Military College.

Rev. S. Banks Nelson, D.D., of Knox Church, Hamilton, was the special preacher, and his sermon was a message of stirring inspiration that made the occasion a memorable one. Taking for his text Hebrews IX: 4, he contrasted the sacrifices of the law of Moses with that of Christ, and drew an important lesson from the story of the manna that fed the children of Israel in the wilderness, and from Aaron's rod that confounded the Egyptians. "In the ark of the covenant was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod." These were memorial of the deliverance of the Israelites and reminded them of their dependence on God. Manna had to be gathered fresh daily for consumption. It was perishable and a regular supply could not be kept except for the Sabbath. If any endeavored to lay up a store for themselves it was corrupted and stank, but what was given to God kept fresh. If we have not come through dangers both social and national we have come through personal dangers perhaps the most we expected. The whole world today is the world's hospital and if there is anything good we should put it in the golden pot for God and not try to keep it for ourselves or it will stink.

"The world has ever been attracted by Aaron's rod. People thought more of it than of Moses. We have our Trafalgar, our Waterloo and Sevastopol. It is the Aarons we look to and not our Moses nowadays." "Where are the devil-possessed and the fairies" asked the speaker. "The doubt of fear has been cast out and we have only the devil to be afraid of. It was predicted that the great war would be won by mental nerve and endurance. But who are looking beyond the horizon for Christ?"

The speaker declared his conviction that it was God's rod in the hands of good men that won the war. "Bad men," said he, "are not capable of good works, and the spirit and temper of the German nation prove this to be true. They produced nothing, invented nothing and all of their offensive weapons, guns, gas and other contrivances were the inventions and discoveries of one or other of the allied nations. Deprived of them they would have had to go into battle with battle axes and clubs. Their super-man ideas had no foundation in achievements in science or invention. The consequence was that, like Pharaoh's wise men, their rods were swallowed up by those of the allied Aarons who matched them at every turn and went one better. Aaron's rod is in our hands on the seven seas, and we must ever remember that they who honor Moses get new power in Aaron's rod. Aaron's rod had more tricks than Pharaoh's because he followed Moses—because he trusted God, the most high God, and today we turn back and thank God for the power of our Aarons."

In the morning Miss Elder, soprano, sang "The Pharisee and the Publican" most effectively. The anthem was "Head of the Church Triumphant" (Lightwood) and Miss Goldie Bartels, violinist, played "Sanctus" (Gounod). In the evening the programme consisted of organ solos by Prof. Millner, "Offertory No. 6" (Waley) and "Prelude and Fugue" (Mendelssohn); violin solo, "Causonetta," Miss Bartels; anthem, "The Shadows of the Evening Hours" (Fletcher); solo by Henry Hill, bass.
