

GIRL KILLED BY A BOMB

Shooting Resumed in Belfast After a Quiet St. Patrick's Day.

Belfast, March 18.—The terrorists, who had remained under cover all of St. Patrick's day, resumed their activities to-day. Shortly after the curfew hour, a news vendor, proceeding homeward on his bicycle, was shot through the breast, and a man was shot and killed in Newtonards road.

A bomb was thrown in Thompson street, the missile wounding several persons. A girl, who was wounded by the bomb, died after being taken to hospital.

Two men dashed into the Thompson street, in the Sinn Fein district, and threw a bomb through an upstairs window of a small dwelling where an elderly woman, Rose McGreevy, and her niece, Mary Mullen, were sleeping.

Early this morning the body of a man was found in Clarence lane with a bullet through the head.

Suppress Local Bodies. Belfast, March 18.—The Ulster home office has in the last forty-eight hours suppressed five local bodies in the six county area, all having Sinn Fein majorities regarded by the northern government as recalcitrant.

FIUME IS KEPT UNDER A STATE OF SIEGE

Italy Aims Only at Securing Election of a Capable Government.

Fiume, March 18.—Pending the conviction of a constituent assembly to-day for the election of a new government in succession to the deposed Zanella administration, Fiume was kept in a state of siege, under military orders. A court-martial has been instituted.

A Rome despatch Friday announced that military occupation of Fiume has been ordered by the Italian government. The stop, it was stated, was considered necessary to the application of the treaty of Rapallo, which charges Italy with the policing of Fiume.

WOMAN JUROR FINDS HOME IS HER RIGHTFUL PLACE

Is Excused From Duty After Being Locked Up Over Night. Trenton, N.J., March 18.—After being locked up for two nights on two mixed juries, Mrs. Anna Cunningham, mother of five children, has come to the conclusion "a woman's place is in the home."

"A woman's place is not on a jury, particularly if she is married and a mother," Mrs. Cunningham said, after she had been excused. Her experiences in being locked up over night and her worry over leaving her family alone had greatly wrought her and rendered her unfit to give her best services, she said.

DUNDEE IS DECLARED WINNER OF THE BOUT

WILSON'S APPOINTMENT STIRS UP THE SOUTH

Claimed That He Will Be More Concerned With Organizing Orangemen. Duolin, March 18.—The bitterness of the south against the north over the present series of sectarian outrages in Belfast, has been intensified by Sir James Craig's speech at the opening of the Ulster parliament and his intention of giving General Sir Henry Wilson, former Chief of Staff of the British army, the task of restoring order.

The south has no confidence in General Wilson. It frankly predicts that he will be more concerned with organizing the Orange side of the feud than in a general round-up of gunmen.

The press asserts that the murders could have been stopped by the declaring of martial law, and argues that this was not done because the proclamation would have been enforced impartially by the military.

Sir John Eaton's Condition. Toronto, March 18.—"No change" was the bulletin this morning in regard to Sir John Eaton, whose condition has been extremely critical for a week or more.

CLAIM MADE BY DRAYTON

That Laurier-Fielding Tariff Higher Than That In Force.

Ottawa, March 18.—In the Commons yesterday, A. W. Neill, Independent, continued the debate on the address. He was followed by E. M. MacDonald, Liberal, Pictou, who declared with regard to the L. C. E. management that if any government took away the rights of the provinces it was the duty of a provisional government to appeal to the imperial government.

Sir Henry Drayton, Conservative for West York, said that the redistribution bill should be brought down. He attacked Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor, and Sir Lomer Gouin, minister of justice.

On Monday the debate on the address in the Commons will be continued by William Irvine, Calgary West.

AGNES LIKELY TO ASK FOR A REDUCTION

In the Parliamentary Sessional Indemnity From $4,000 to $2,500.

Ottawa, March 18.—Judging from what one hears, Miss Agnes MacPhail, the Progressive member of Southeast Grey, is not likely to meet with any success in her first venture as a bills sponsor. Miss MacPhail, so the story goes, will ask parliament to reduce the members' sessional indemnity to $2,500 instead of $4,000, as it is now.

It is, however, doubtful if she will even find a seconder in her efforts to economize the public money at the expense of herself and her colleagues.

A GREAT DAY FOR IRELAND

Vigorous Campaign in Support of Peace Treaty With Great Britain.

Dublin, March 18.—Celebration of St. Patrick's day throughout the southwest Ireland was marked by several features denoting a change in the status of Ireland. The trooping of the Union Jack at Dublin castle, which since 1800 had been an impressive ceremony of the day of Ireland's patron saint, was omitted for the first time.

The national festival was utilized for a vigorous campaign throughout Ireland in support of the peace treaty with Great Britain.

Michael Collins, head of the provisional government, went straight to the heart of the affected area. South Cork, where he addressed several meetings of his constituents.

URGES PROSECUTION OF THIS BUCKET SHOP

New York Magistrate Claims Game Was Simply Wagers on Market.

New York, March 18.—Chief City Magistrate William McAdoo, who has been conducting an inquiry into the conduct of the American Cotton Exchange, held yesterday that the organization was a bucket shop, and urged that the officials of it and some of the members be prosecuted.

"The evidence shows," he said, "that the largest part of the transactions on this exchange were simply wagers made on the fluctuations of the cotton markets obtained by telephonic communication as to the activities and actions of other exchanges, following which false representations were made to those who risked their money in these illegal transactions."

THE TOTAL ABSTAINER IMPERFECTLY EQUIPPED. For Higher Literature Because This Demands Total Manhood. London, March 18.—Under enforced prohibition, the United States will never produce a great literature, is the deduction that could be drawn from the controversy between the president of the Wesleyan conference and Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch, novelist, known as "Q," and professor of English literature at Cambridge, if one believes the latter's arguments.

Both sides said the evidence against them had been gathered in considerable part by eavesdropping, both in Canada and in the United States.

BIG OPENING FOR PERJURY

In Taking Evidence at Montreal in Stillman Divorce Case.

New York, March 18.—Ex-Chief Justice Almon F. Jenks, counsel for James A. Stillman, characterized as "a fishing expedition" the proposed open commission to take testimony in Montreal, Canada, for Mrs. Anne U. Stillman in her defense of her husband's action for absolute divorce, when arguments absolute before the appellate division in Brooklyn yesterday on the appeal from Justice Morschauer's order authorizing the commission.

Isaac N. Mills, who appeared as a new member of Mrs. Stillman's staff of counsel, contended that the commission was absolutely essential to the prosecution of the defense of his client. "A decision was reserved."

Mr. Jenks declared the shifting of hearings to Canada would open a "whole world of perjury," because witnesses who perjured themselves in the dominion could not be punished in New York state. Mrs. Stillman was not acting in good faith, he charged, in seeking Canadian hearings, and he intimated that her action was to bring more delays, thereby lengthening the number of months before the end, as each month she received $7,500 temporary alimony. With these statements Mrs. Stillman's lawyers took issue.

Regarding testimony of conduct at the Stillman summer camp in northern Quebec, he reminded the court that "the unconventional life in that country is a very important thing in this case." He said Mrs. Stillman had "denied under oath her guilt."

Both sides said the evidence against them had been gathered in considerable part by eavesdropping, both in Canada and in the United States.
