Theatrica!

Fiske O'Hara Coming. There is a certain class of plays, the atmosphere of which is so clean, the humor so innocent, yet as irresistible, that time has no power to destroy their lasting qualities. In this class is "The Happy Cavalier," won the club series of the Kingston in which the smiling Fiske O'Hara, Curling club for the season 1922 everybody's favorite actor-singer, re- when it defeated J. F. Macdonald's turns to the Grand Opera House on rink on Saturday evening by a Wednesday, March 22nd, for one score of 21 to 15. During the afternight only, under the direction of noon, in the semi-finals, A. Turcotte Augustus Pitou, Inc. "The Happy work from A. W. McMahon by 14 to 8. Cavalier" is in four acts, described The games were played on heavy ice. as a romantic comedy and written For the past week or ten days the by Anna Nichols. It is said to be a curlers were waiting for a change in story possessing a depth of human the weather so that the games could interest rarely attained. It is clean be played. The two rinks which and wholesome, has no midnight played in the finals had a very suppers, no compromising situations strenuous day. During the afternoon and no ladies of difficut classifica- the rinks played a fifteen end game tion. It fairly sparkles with witty and then turned around and puned lines and laughable situations which off an eighteen-end in the evening. It multiply rapidly. Mr. O'Hara is at took five hours to play the final his best in the role assigned to him game.

songs .- Advt. Big Double Bill at the Allen. The posthumous pepers of the Pickwick Club, first published in 1836, at once raised the author to the highest pinnacle of literary D. M. Jemmett fame. "Pickwick Papers" which J. F. McDonald have been universally translated, is __skip 13. now presented on the screen in a form which seeks, reverently, to J. Hawkey preserve the Spirit of the Master, T. Frizzell with all his quaintly humorous J. E. Newell characters brought to renewed life A. Turcotte on the screen, "The Adventures of skip 14. Mr. Pickwick," the film version of Charles Dicken's greatest literary triumph, will be shown at the Allen J. Hawkey Theatre commencing to-day. Ex- T. Frizzell hibitors and film fans all over the country will bear witness that never J. E. Newell has Realart depended for the suc- A Turcotte cess of its pictures solely upon the personality of Realart stars. Realart productions have always been carefully staged with "hand-picked" supporting casts. "The March ble competition was played at the Sault Ste. Marie to act in the capa- and his cleverness showed how he few days in Tamworth. A meeting of Hare," the latest Bebe Daniels re- curling rink, and resulted in J. W. city of director of athletics during has developed during the past win- the Women's Auxiliary was held on lease, which will be shown at the Al- Rigney and F. Lumb winning from the summer months. "Billy" stated ter. For the Bankers, Pat James and Wednesday afternoon at the church len Theatre to-day .-- Advt.

At The Strand.

three in one picture-"Don't Tell cold spell. Everything." A fascinating title for a photoplay, ladies and gentlemen, with possibilities that whet the appetie and stimulate the interest of the round by one goal. most hardened critic. Wally is loved as a friend and Gloria has her admirer in most Kingston homes, and Toronto, March 20 .- Regina Vic-Kingston folks will have a special torias and Toronto Granites meet treat when they see Wally and Gloria tonight in Toronto in the first of the their laurels on Saturday night at stroke. Mrs. Glenn spent nearly all games is quite astonishing. Orders see the girl the physician said thing." It is a well-balanced picture, played under the same rules that ed a selected Bankers' team by the Ameliasburg. with luxurious glimpses of metro- have governed O. H. A. matches all score of 9 to 7. The first two periods | The death of Mrs. David T. Stafure the best plan is to follow the two teams are pretty evenly match- ter that, however, Circle Six remem- daughter of Cyrus Giles. principle suggested by the title - ed, man for man as far as weight is bered some of their combination Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNish. Bolshevik are about to resume their ature advanced two degrees. Ap- ago she suffered a severe attack of another favorite for the latter part of the week-Thomas Meighan in "A Prince There Was." They are certainly catering to local taste .-

CINDERELLA'S DREAM

SPORTING NEWS

CURLING FINALS.

The rink skipped by A. Turcotte

in "The Happy Cavalier" and his Last year and the year before, on charming voice of singular purity account of the mild weather, no will be heard in a number of new winner was declared in the club ser-

				-
		Semi	Final	Games.
G. J.	Mc	Kay	G.	Bawden
A. F.	G.	Cade	n- E.	Walsh
hes	d

W. Frizzell G. Hanson -skip 10. A. J. Watson

J. A. Lemmon J. C. Ponsford A. W. McMahon -skip 8.

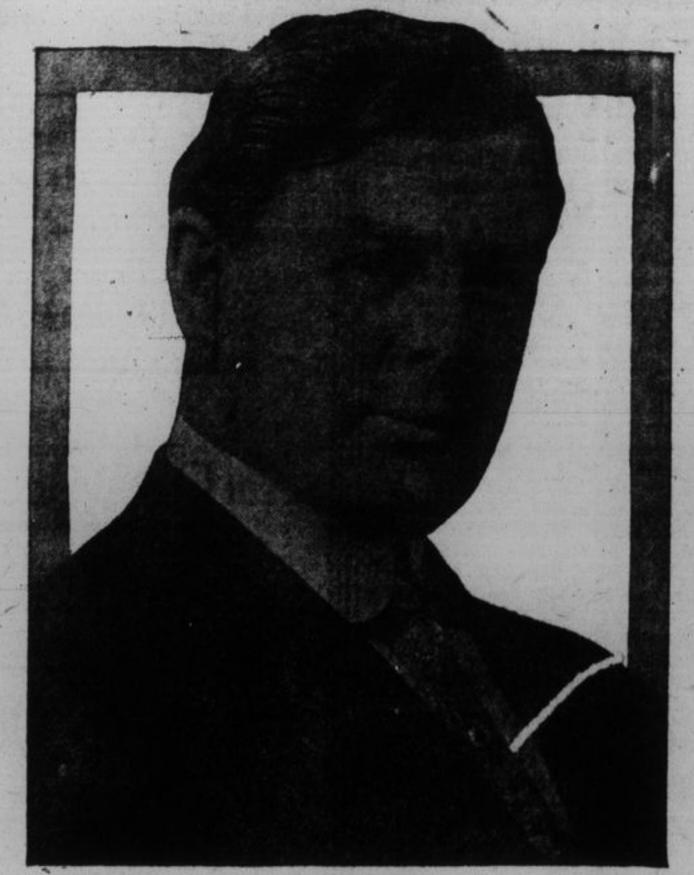

Finals. G. J. McKay A. F. G. Caden-

head D. M. Jemmett J. F. Macdonald -skip 21 -skip 15

Double Competition.

For Allan Hockey Cup.

Allan Cup Final Games.

FISKE O'HARA.

Kingston's favorite actor-singer who comes to the ple took in the play at Enterprise on Grand Opera House on Wednesday, March 22nd in his latest Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lyall Mil-success "The Happy Cavalier." J. Foster left on Tuesday to attend speed. Both teams will be able to Stewart's boys came back with a Grand Orange Lodge at Smith's

"Billy" Hughes Going South.

the game starts tonight.

sity for the past couple of years, and in the third and overtime period. of weeks at Wesley. Mrs. J. Green On Saturday one game in the dou- from the Steel Plant Athletic Club at Matheson in goal was perfectly cool, and daughter Hattie are spending a F. Harold and L. Sleeth by a score of that he had decided to go south for Lawless worked hard, while Hud- here. 14 to 3. Messrs. Rigney and Lumb a short time and take a special son Sandwith and Stone formed a are to meet Messrs. Turcotte and course in the most advanced train- rearguard which was hard to beat. Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson and Frizzell in the championship event. ing methods and for that reason it Elliott Dexter! There's a trio of mag- It is very doubtful if the game will was doubtful if he would accept the Hudson and Sandwith; forwards, netic film personalities for you, each be played as the ice is disappearing offer from the Soo. The Queen's James, Lawless, centre, Buffan; capable of drawing a crowd of admir- very rapidly. There is a chance that trainer is looking forward to the subs., Dickson, Hilton. ers to see a picture in which they ap- the game might be played at the university being represented by one pear. But the Strand announces all Rockwood ring providing there is a of the best rugby teams in its history fence, E. Morris, Nobes; wings, O. next fall. All the players with one Morris, Patterson; centre, Reid; exception who figured on the senior sub ... Bird. line-up last fall will be back, and Ottawa 5, Granites 1. Granites win with the addition of some stars who will enter the university for the first time, the team will be the best.

Circle Six Wins.

way, the Strand granagement offer nothing on them in the line of the third. In the overtime, George McNish.)

trot out their strongest lineups when splendid display of condition and Falls. Mrs. Cline and her brothers pep, and scored three goals to the entertained a few friends recently. Bankers' one, making the final Heary Huffman arrived home on Friscore 9 to 7 for the Circle Six. Reid, day night after spending the winter On Monday "Billy" Hughes, who Orm, Morris, Patterson and Nobes in Florida. Miss. Nellie Allen has rehas been trainer at Queen's Univer- played almost perfect combination turned home after spending a couple who signed a three-year contract Earl Morris was strong on the de- and daughter Grace have returned with the Athletic Board of Control, fence, and Bird, as a sub, did not after spending a few days in Kingstated that he had received an offer weaken the team when he was on. ston. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amey Bankers-Goal, Stone; defence,

Circle Six-Goal, Matheson; de-

Referee-"Shad" Blomely.

Circle Six added one more leaf to for several months caused by a mand for equipment for the various grippe. When first summoned to play together in "Don't Tell Every- Allan cup finals. The game will be the Harty Arena, when they defeat- her life in the Third Concession of from the villages are particularly was astonished to find that his clin-politan galety and breezy scenes of winter. The second and final game were featured by hard, clever work ford took place on March 13th, at the great out-of-doors-scenes that will be played on Wednesday night, by the Bankers. At the end of the her residence, Ameliasburg, after a Indian residents, is dead at his home of order, he requisitioned two othdelight the eye and action that stirs the majority of goals in the two first, Bankers led 2-0, and still led long and painful illness. She was on Cornwall Island, at the age of ers, only to find that they both rethe blood. In announcing the pict- matches to decide the winner. The 6-2 at the beginning of the third. Af. 58 years of age and was the eldest minety-two years and ten days.

"Don't Tell Everything." The best concerned, and those who saw the plays, and fooled Stone in the Bank- Lyn, were bost and hostess at a fare- reign of terror against the Social Re- propriate treatment was at once ap- asthma and had been confined to her way is for folks to go to the Strand westerners in their workout Satur- ers' nets, four times in succession, well party given in honor of Mr. and volutionists. and see it for themselves. By the day say that the Granites will have tieing the score to 6-6, at the end of Mrs. Harry B. Taylor (nee Maude) ious destinations, so that there will be little or no delay in entraining. Important and valuable co-operation by the Women's Division of the Department of Immigration and Colonization is accomplished in providing trained social workers, known as conductresses, who give advice and information.

A RIBBON WILL SHOW

THEIR DESTINATION

Matrons on board ships will have a new post, that of decorating the unaccompanied women and girls coming to Canada from England with blue, yellow, red or green ribbons as a special means of identification. A blue ribbon will identify those proceeding to Ontario and a red one for those destined for points west of that Province. Passengers proceeding to any other points will wear

white ribbons. When there are special Government parties a yellow ribbon in addition to the red one will designate a party for Saskatchewan;

sky blue in addition to red for Manitoba, and brown in addition to red for Alberta. Any woman requiring hostel accommodation will wear, in addition to the color showing her destination, a green ribbon. Upon their arrival at a Canadian port the ribbons will aid the Canadian conductress taking charge of the party

to divide immediately those for var-

Notes From Moscow. Moscow, March 17 .- The farmers of this vicinity are taking advantage of the warm weather and already a number of gallons of fine syrup have been made. A number of young peosap is spending a few days the guest of Mrs. Neil Milsap. Harry Reid and

"Boom" in Games in England.

There is still plenty of money available for sport. Last Saturday at one London football match alone-Tottenham Hotspur versus Manchester City-the receipts amounted to £4,500, representing 53,000 spectators. And there are signs that the summer season is to be a record one for all forms of sport. It is estimat- Girl Recovered After Temperature ed that more than 3,000 new cricket clubs are to be started, while new There passed away an old resident lawn tennis clubs are estimated to figure of 114 degrees Fahrenheit in the person of Mrs. James Glenn, be likely to exceed 2,000 in number. was the recorded temperature of a Roblins Mills, who had been ailing Sports outfitters report that the de- girl who was suffering from the Fools set far trysts.

P. DU MOULIN, Manager King and Clarence Streets:

Electrical Supplies and Fixtures

CONTRACTING AND REPAIRING Distributors for

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS, APEX VACCUM CLEANERS. JNNYSUDS ELECTRIC WASHER

Burke Electric Co.

74 PRINCESS STREET

DOCTORS ASTONISHED.

of 114. At Bristol, Eng., the extraordinary ical thermometer registered a temperature of 112 degrees, but, think-Thomas White, one of the oldest ing that the thermometer was out patient's recovery. corded the same high point. Dur-London hears the report that the ing the night the patient's temper- died on Monday. About two weeks

Cuticura Soap Clears the Skin and Keeps it Clear Soap, Ointmont, Taleum, Mc. each. Sold everywher Can. Depot: Lymans, Limited, St. Paul St., Montre abouts, and she is now stated to be in perfect health. Medical journals do not record an instance of such temperature being followed by the plied, the girl's temperature gradu- bed since, tenderly cared for by her ally subsided to normal or there- devoted husband, Dr. Gray.

STREET CAR PLUNGES FROM BRIDGE. Ten people were seriously injured at Saskatoon when a car jumped the track and went through a bridge. Picture shows the debris.

NEW SPRING FASHIONS AT POPULAR PRICES

All the newest creations in fine footwear in Black, Tan, Patent, Kid and Gunmetal Oxfords and 1 or 2 strap Pumps with high, low or sport heels.

RUBBERS TO FIT ALL STYLES OF SHOES

The Sawyer Shoe Store 184 Princess St. Phone 159

Deep down in the heart of every girl-no matter who sh is the dream of Prince Charming. The vision of him may ri ert, float up from the pail of warm water with which she is g what the way may be, for the dream is always rising from the e may be, where she may work or what she may do-there se from the mists of the sea, flash above the haze of the deswing the flloor "what for"-indeed it doesn't really matter hearts of youthful Cinderellas everywhere.