A KINGSTONIAN HEARD SPIRIT WORLD VOICES

Was Present at Seance in Montreal and Tells Whig About It.

A Kingstonian who has taken a deep interest for a number of years in psychic phenomena and who has had some remarkable experiences was present at the seances in Montreal, when Rev. Dr. Symonds, spoke "From the spirit world" to his friends in the circle. To the Whig he said: "The medium was Mrs. Etta Wriedt, Detroit, Michigan, one of the most celebrated and widely known mediums in the world. She has crossed the Atlantic three times and held seances for well known investigators in Great Britain and France and is going across again in April. A book some four hundred pages has been compiled giving but a fraction of the records of her seances in England, Scotland and Ireland. Her phase of mediumship is what is known as trumpet and direct voice speaking.
There is something very wonderful about the power possessed by this slightly built woman of Welsh origin now about sixty years old, but in good health and very active. The Welsh are known for their psychic abilities and it is these perhaps that have kept Lloyd George in the spotlight these many years, and caused the people to call him "Wizard of Wales."

"Mrs. Wriedt has made several trips to Montreal at the request of friends there and her coming is looked forward to with a great deal of interest. The people for whom she holds seances are well known respectable and substantial, citizens consisting of merchants, clergymen doctors and those of other professions. They are not organized spiritualists but just interested inquirers and seekers in the question of communication with those passed on. The seances are private and only invited guests attend and they are held at private residences. Not only did Dr.
Symonds speak, but many others Rev.
Dr. Barns gave a nice little sermon talk; Rev. Dr. Campbell, one of the oldest graduates of Queen's, a former mayor of Montreal by the name of McShane, the majority in the circle remembered him well. He was a man of considerable platform ability in life. He showed at the seance that he could handle his tongue. He was jovial and witty as you would expect an Irishman to be.

Numerous relatives and friends from the world, from which it used to be said: "no traveller returns" talked to the sitters, sons killed in the late war talked to their mothers and gave satisfactory particulars about their death.

"All this seems surpassing strange, and cannot be appreciated except by actual experience," said the Kingston citizen in conclusion.

IN MEMORIAM.

Death of Mrs. Timothy Ralle.
Wallaceburg News.

The death of Mrs. Timothy Ralle occurred at her late residence, Gillard street, South Wallaceburg, on Monday, March 6th, in her ninetieth year. The funeral took place on March 8th, Requiem high mass being sung by Rev. Fr. Blonde. The remains were laid to rest in Wallace-burg cemetery, beside those of her late husband, her five children all deceased and her brother and sister.

Deceased (nee Catherine Keeley) was born in the parish of Ralston, north of Kingston, Ont., nearly ninety years ago and married Timothy Ralle of that place in the early sixties. Leaving there, they moved to New York state, where after farming there for ten years came to Kent county, settling on the Fraser Road, near Wallaceburg, fifty years ago. A brother and sister of deceased, Martin and Sarah Ann Keeley, settled beside them. The latter two passed away over twenty years ago and were laid to rest in Wallaceburg cemetery.

The late Mrs. Ralle has been an invalid since she broke her hip over thirty years ago. Several times she has broken that same hip since then and it was another fall and broken hip seven weeks ago that finally caused her death.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were all nephews and nieces, Vincent Keeley, Mrs. T. Foley (formerly Blanch Keeley), Miss Mae Keeley, Detroit, Mrs. Agnes Murphy, Toronto (formerly Agnes Godfrey, Kingston), and Lawrence O'Keefe, Cincinnati, Ohio. The pallbearers were Thomas Hastings, Thomas Moreland, John Rankin, Miles Dillon, Walter Harris, and Alexander Gordon.

Too much praise cannot be given to her nephew, L. O'Keefe, who proved a friend indeed to the aged couple.
In his travels he first called on them thirty years ago and from that time has been to them their "kind Samaritan" for Timothy, though laboring all his life, had not laid by enough of the "almighty dollar" to provide for their old age. Ten years ago Mr.
O'Keefe, who by the way was the first relative on the Ralle side of the family to visit them in this locality, bought a home in Wallaceburg for them and from that day saw that their daily wants were supplied.

Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralle, three dying in infancy and one daughter, Maude, aged thirty-two years, who died eighteen years ago, and son, Martin, aged twenty-four years, who died thirty years ago. Mrs. Ralle was the last surviving member of her family, the Keeleys, as also was her husband, Timothy Ralle, who passed away in December, 1914. Nearly all descendants of the Ralle and Keeley families reside in or near Kingston, while many have gone to the states.

Farmers Around Northbrook Suffer a Serious Loss.
Northbrook, March 21.—The maple syrup season is in full swing.
The prevailing price is $1.25 per gallon to the producer. Hay seems more plentiful than was expected and many farmers find a few tons surplus on hand. Potatoes could be shipped if there was a demand. Curtis Selman is disposing of all his farm and household effects by auction sale on March 30th. J. Lockhead made a business trip through here and to Denbigh. Rev. Mr. Slingerland took the service in the Free Methodist church Sunday at 2.30 p.m., and delivered a very impressive address.

The Ore Chimney Mining Company are opening this week and putting on a large staff of workmen. Many were laid off during the winter owing to the cold weather. Messrs. S. Both and Herbert Watson made a business trip to Belleville, Saturday, in the interests of the Ore Chimney mines.

H. Saul is disposing of a carload of shingles at $2.50 per thousand, and many are taking advantage of them while they last. Fred Lloyd has returned after a week at his home in Bannockburn. Mrs. William Roth spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Clark, at Plinton, who is suffering from a stroke. C. C. Thompson spent Saturday in Tweed on business, purchasing a large capacity gas tank.
Miss Florence Lewis is home again after a short stay in Napanee. C. C.
Thompson is preparing to build a large storehouse in combination with

PROGRESSIVES LISTEN

But Do Not Change Minds Regarding Tory Doctrines.

Ottawa, March 21.—The debate on the reply to the Speech from the Throne livened up again yesterday with a fighting speech from the Conservative benches by Hon. H. H.
Stevens (Centre Vancouver), former minister of trade and commerce.
Mr. Stevens adopted the method of attack taken up by other Conservative speakers of the session. It is to show as wide a difference as possible between what the Liberals will do and what the Progressives want done.

The Progressives listen patiently, but they give no indications that they have changed their minds much concerning Conservative doctrines since the election.

Another feature was an explanation of his attitude toward the duties on agricultural implements. He was busy with his explanation at 11 o'clock, and adjourned the debate.
