Fiske O'Hara Tonight. Tonight's attraction at the Grand will be Fiske O'Hara, the popular actor-singer, smile and all, who returns to us in his greatest success "The Happy Cavalier," a fascinating comedy of romance, wit and song.

"Daddy Long Legs." "How does he do it?" is the question you hear on all sides, regarding the Rex Stock Co., especially when people look at the billing for the next play "Daddy Long Legs." The answer is simple. When one looks at the enormous business being done by this splendid company, one begins to realize how the Woolworth stores do business and declare a profit, the volume, and the fact that the management is content with small margins of profit, is the answer.

Last Time At The Allen. Today will be the last opportunity for the lovers of Dickens to see his masterpiece "The Adventures of Mr. Pickwick" in film form, as it will be shown for the last time today at the Allen. "Her Mad Bargain" promises to be one of Anita Stewart's most successful vehicles.

BRITAIN IS READY TO PAY INTEREST

Budget Provides for Half-year's Payment to the United States.

London, March 22.—"No demand has been received from the United States government for the payment of the interest on the British debt in the coming fiscal year," declared Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, in the House of Commons on Tuesday.

The statement was in reply to a question asked by Sir Donald MacLean.

"The understanding reached in 1919, was that the interest payments should be postponed for three years," continued the chancellor. "As that term has elapsed, we are providing in the budget for 1922-23 to pay a half year's interest which is due in the autumn."

Child Dies as Auto Is Caught in Storm

Chicago, March 22.—Driving with her husband and another child from South Bend, Ind., to Chicago through a blinding blizzard Monday night, Mrs. George Wagner held her three-month-old baby tightly to her breast, to protect it from the storm.

When they arrived at their home in Chicago and unwrapped the baby they found it dead. A physician who made an examination said the baby had been dead for several hours.

"My wife evidently held the baby in her arms for hours not knowing it was dead," Wagner told the police. "The wind, snow and sleet swept over us in the car, although the curtains were down."
