Muriel Kerr Enthrals Crowd at Ottawa

The Capital City of Canada has been captured! Not by alien hordes for base traitors, but by eleven-yearold Muriel Kerr, the musical prodigy to you. Why do we have a mission? of the Canadian West, no, of the Dominion, for Muriel is certainly the most remarkable figure in the musical world of Canada to-day. She is to play at the Memorial Hall tonight under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club of Kingston, but an extract from the long and eulogistic report of the Ottawa Evening Journal, descriptive of Muriel's playing to the old, old story of God's love, at the Russell Theatre on Friday. Man's sin and the Sacrifice of the may be welcome to those who have not yet decided to attend her recital this evening. The Journal says: "Neither fulsome praise nor exaggeration have been bestowed on little Muriel Kerr. Those who heard her have come away with the impression fussy old lady to the corner mendi- his town.
