There Are Many on the List Yet To Be Canvassed For Help.

Tuesday night at the Y.M.C.A., after two weeks of effort in connection with the campaign to raise $8,100 in subscriptions, the canvassers met to take stock and it was found that the total pledged to date was $5,500. The check up also revealed that there were still uncalled upon a large number of names of regular givers, as well as occasional ones yet to be canvassed. The canvassers were asked to turn in all the names of those whom they found it would be impossible for them to canvass, so that they might be re-assigned to other workers and the job completed this week if possible.

The campaign committee was gratified to find that in almost every case the canvassers retained their lists, and can thereby be depended upon to finish up the work assigned to them. The meeting expressed sincere regrets at the illness of two of the three members of the campaign committee in the persons of Messrs. R. H. Ward, chairman, and H. W. Davis; they were glad to note, however, that the former was around again and that Mr. Davis showed much improvement.

The total amount pledged up until last night was composed of the following:

- Previously reported, $5,254.
- $25—Kinnear & d'Esterre.
- $15—F. G. Lockett, Dr. Louis Bruce.
- $10—Lyman McCallum, S. S. Corbett, Norman Crothers.

- $3—Rev. W. K. Shortt, W. E. Kidd, Miss A. Vanstraubenzie.
- $2—John Driver, Charles Crier, Miss E. Dupuy, R. J. Allen, N. A. McArthur, E. Bowman, T. Lambert, John Gordon, Canon Fitzgerald, Bishop Bidwell.

"THE PRICE OF CHRIST."
Subject of Searching Sermon at First Baptist Church.

The actions of three men, who at different times, and under different circumstances, disposed of Christ during His earthly life, were used by Rev. O. C. Elliott last night at the First Baptist church to illustrate the attitude of the unconverted toward Christ.

These men were the rich young ruler, Pilate, and Judas. Each was called upon to decide for or against Christ, the alternative being some earthly advantage which must be surrendered if Christ be chosen. The young ruler parted with Christ and his avowed quest after eternal life, that he might retain his "great possessions." Pilate, when Christ was before his judgment seat, and he had to make some disposition of Him, gave the man he found innocent over to the mob to be crucified, because he wanted to retain the good will of the mob. Judas deliberately sold the Christ for thirty pieces of silver, losing by the transaction a clear conscience, a Saviour and everlasting life. As it was with these men, so is it with every individual. Each must make decision for or against Christ. And whatever be the worldly advantage gained or retained at the cost of the rejection of Christ is a bad bargain.

There remain only three days and nights of these services, which have been most helpful. To-morrow afternoon's service is to be held at 4.15 o'clock, and is especially for young people and children.

WAS BEAUTIFULLY SUNG

In the Chapel of the House of Providence.

The oratorio, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," written by a Franciscan monk and arranged by Dr. P. Von Hartmann, was beautifully sung in the Chapel of the House of Providence on Tuesday evening by the music class of the institution, assisted by soloists who took the leading parts with splendid effect. Mrs. J. Leonard Jerome took the soprano part of "Historia," and her beautiful voice was heard to great advantage, her clear enunciation adding greatly to the enjoyment of the large audience that filled the lovely little chapel. Prof. Nourry was "Damas," and Madame Beaudour and Miss Mary Gratton took the leading contralto parts, G. L. Mayer the tenor and Prof. T. F. Gilley, who recited the "seven last words," the part of Christ. Carl Cannon was violinist and W. Laithy cellist. Father Harland gave the explanatory address. The oratorio was attended by many of Kingston's well-known musicians who regarded it as a musical treat. The ushers were J. Harland, J. L. Jerome and B. Barry.
