STEACY'S LIMITED PLANNING EXTENSIONS

Big Anniversary Sale Now Going on to Celebrate Forty-first Year.

Simultaneously with the inauguration of their big sale in commemoration of the forty-first year of service to the buying public of Kingston and the district comes the announcement by Steacy's Limited, that it is their intention to make extensions to their already large store during the coming summer which will give them about seven thousand additional square feet of floor space. Enlarging will be towards the rear, and the whole back wall of the present store will be taken down and moved back some distance in order to conform with these plans. The additional space will be used to accommodate the overflow of their already great business and to take in more extensively the house furnishings lines.

The present sale, as announced in large two-page advertisements in today's issue of the Whig, will commence tomorrow morning at nine o'clock and will continue throughout the whole of next week, with additional bargain attractions placed on the display counters daily.

A glance at the advertisements of today shows that the sale in its scope and true-value offerings, is one of the greatest ever put on by this firm and is a truly worthy effort for such a great business enterprise as the Steacy store.

The firm of Steacy's Limited was inaugurated by the late Edward T. Steacy in the year 1881 and has been expanding the breadth of its activities and extent of its services to the public since that time in a manner which is in itself a worthy tribute to its founder. For many years it was carried on under the name of Steacy & Steacy, and it is only in recent years that the name of Steacy's Limited has been adopted.

The business is at present under the management of E. Noble Steacy and Herbert J. Steacy, two sons of the founder of the firm, and leaders among Kingston's aggressive and popular business men, who, since taking over the reins of control, have further added to the attractions of the store and by up-to-date and wide-awake made it what it is at the present time, with ever an eye to a bigger and greater store in the future.

Steacy's Limited, is to be congratulated on its forty-first anniversary and wished every success with the present sale and all its efforts at service to the public and big business for Kingston in the years to come.

STORY OF POLICE COURT

Otto Knott Given Six Months at Hard Labor for Selling Liquor.

In police court on Thursday morning, Otto Knott, was found guilty on a charge of selling two bottles of liquor on the morning of March 19th, and was sentenced to six months in the county jail at hard labor.

Mrs. Ellen McIlroy, who resides at the corner of John and Patrick street was up on a similar charge, but the magistrate stated that there was not sufficient evidence to form a conviction. When dismissing Mrs. McIlroy, the magistrate stated that he was not satisfied with the evidence which had been presented. He stated that the police were constantly watching Mrs. McIlroy's home.

When Otto Knott was being taken out of the court room his wife broke into tears and stated that her home would be broken up and the children would go hungry.

Evidence was given by a man who bought liquor from Otto Knott at the home of Mrs. McIlroy. He said that on the night in question, he visited her home and purchased liquor. Witness stated that he saw Knott there and got liquor and was told by Knott that he could pay for the liquor some other time. Witness stated that he understood the price for the liquor would be $8. Witness stated that he had purchased two bottles the same day at the same place.

Police Constable Verne Campbell, who arrested the witness on the night in question, stated that he saw the witness enter the home of Mrs. McIlroy, and when he placed him under arrest, he found that he had a bottle of liquor, which the prisoner claimed he bought at the home of Mrs. McIlroy.

When the case of Mrs. McIlroy was called, the same witness who gave evidence against Knott told a similar story to that which he gave in the previous case. Witness claimed that he did not have any conversation with Mrs. McIlroy.

Otto Knott stated that he sold the liquor on the night in question, and the liquor had been taken out of his overcoat pocket. Mrs. McIlroy stated that she never sold any liquor on the night in question, and that she never saw the witness, who claimed he purchased liquor from Knott.

Weather Notes. Disturbance which was approaching the lake region yesterday has moved eastward to the Ottawa valley causing gales with rain and snow in Ontario and Western Quebec. The weather has been mostly fair in the west with higher temperature in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

THE ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

Held a Meeting Wednesday Evening—Address Given by Prof. Brovedani.

A delightful and instructive meeting of the Kingston Branch, Alliance Francaise, was held Wednesday night in the Red Room at Grant Hall, with Professor Vattier, the president, in the chair. Four new members were admitted to the association and routine business matters were considered.

It was decided that the next meeting, which will be held on the 3rd May, will take the form of a musical, when French songs, recitations, short plays and instrumental selections will be presented by local talent. This will be the last meeting of the season, and it is hoped that all members will make a special effort to attend, in order that the inaugural year which has been so successful may be fittingly terminated.

Professor Brovedani, the speaker of the evening addressed the Alliance on the subject of "Spain" and illustrated the lecture with many well selected views of the principal cities of the country. He spoke ably and eloquently and held the close attention of his audience.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening, tea being poured by Madame Boss, assisted by Madame MacNeill, and before leaving for their homes, the company enjoyed a few minutes in front of the large fireplace singing old folk-songs of France.

PARADE FRIDAY EVENING.

Of First Battalion, P.W.O.R., for Inspection by C.O.

The 1st Battalion P.W.O.R. is to muster at the armouries on Friday evening at 7.45 for inspection by the C.O. Companies will fall-in on their private parades at 8 o'clock and will be inspected and proved by their company commanders.

They will be formed up in two platoons per company and will in this formation be moved to their place in mass by their company commanders on the bugle sounding the "advance."

The object of this inspection is to see that every man has received his issue and that the uniforms fit as near as possible and that everything has been done to make the Battalion appear as smart as possible. Bands and pipers will be on this parade, also the staff, the band playing during the C.O.'s inspection.

The galleries will be open to the public and it is desired that they take advantage of this opportunity.

After the inspection massed games will be indulged in by the battalion under the supervision of Major D'Este and Capt. Law.
