Notes From Brookside. Brookside, April 19.—Archie Babcock had the misfortune to cut his hip badly while working with the sawing machine. His condition is improving slowly. The sap buckets have all been gathered after a plentiful yield of sap. The roads are still in a poor condition, owing to the continued rains. A number from here attended the party at Mr. Frink's on Thursday evening, in honor of their nephew, Clifford Frink, who is leaving the neighborhood. The funeral of little Grant Freeman was largely attended. School has closed and Miss Willard, teacher, has left to spend the holidays at her home, Amherst Island. Miss Helen Wallace, Kingston, spent the weekend at home. Mrs. Switzer is reported to be very low yet.

NEWS FROM DESERONTO.

Mrs. John Thompson Passed Away Suddenly. Deseronto, April 19.—Mr. Murphy, a C.N.R. district engineer, from Ottawa, was here last week, looking over the old B. of Q. coal dock. Mr. Murphy found everything favorable and expects that the dock and coal hoist could be put in shape at very little expense. The C.N.R. is considering bringing their coal in here by boat and transferring it to coal cars, whence they will ship it where required.

The services on Easter Sunday were well attended, and the music was excellent at all the churches. Several of the boys and girls who are in the city, came home for the Easter holidays. Joseph Nafin and Miss Ella, of Kingston, also Marguerite Nafin, of Toronto, were visitors at Jas. Nafin's. Miss Irene Hearn and Miss Bessie Dow, of Toronto, were also in town. Orland Joyce, formerly of the Standard Bank here, is spending a few days at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Thompson and little daughter, of Centreville, were recent visitors in town. Mr. Lockwood had a sale on Saturday afternoon of his household effects. Mr. and Mrs. Carscallen, of Thomas street, received the sad news yesterday, that their son-in-law, Harry Woodcock, of Huntsville, had died rather suddenly.

Mrs. Woodcock and her two small sons arrived this afternoon with the remains, and the funeral has been arranged for tomorrow afternoon from Mr. Carscallen's home. The citizens and neighbors were shocked this evening at 6 o'clock, when it became known that Mrs. John Thompson had suddenly died while reading the newspaper. Mrs. Thompson was 74 years of age, and had been in her usual health. A wayward youth in our town has been giving his parents considerable anxiety and his case is to come up next week.

EASTER AT HARTINGTON.
