SMILES

A FELLOW FEELING
"A man has run away with your wife."
"He has my sympathy; I eloped with her, myself."

A PROTEST
Mrs. Bug: Hey, you fool spring lamb; you've knocked my house over!

HE WAS A MATHEMATICIAN
Mrs. B.: Do you know how much I love you?
B.: About the price of an Easter hat.

AS EASTER APPROACHES
Rabbit: I suppose we have to listen to that fool story about the Easter Bunny now!

AN OLD STORY
There was a young lady named Jane,
A tall slender good looking dame,
Before she was married, she was stylish and neat
And quite fascinating, and ever so sweet,
But after she wedded, I know that you've guessed,
She grew fat and careless-like-meet of the rest.

WOMAN IN JOURNALISM
"Where is the new society reporter?"
"She has gone to the drug store to get some 'local color.'"

UP FOR REPAIRS
Superlat: Old Speedix is in the hospital. Had a bad spill in his car and lost an arm and a leg.
Timpan: Too bad! But I suppose they keep a good stock of spare parts at the hospital.

TYPEWRITER THAT COULD BE CARRIED
"Why did you hire me, the smallest girl among the applicants, for your stenographer?"
"The last one I had weighed one hundred and sixty pounds and when she fainted one day and I had to carry her out of the room for air, I decided to have a portable typewriter."

He: Your pose reminds me of a dainty little dry ad.
She: Dry ad? I'd rather pose for anti-prohibition ad.

HEARD IN SCHOOL
Teacher: Bound Germany.
Young America: Better wait until the map gets its bumps straightened out.

THE SHORT CUT
"I don't know how to get around this difficulty of paying your bill."
"Don't try—just come across!"

RACE AFFILIATIONS
"They are as far apart as the poles."
"Don't the Poles get together as well as the Swedes?"

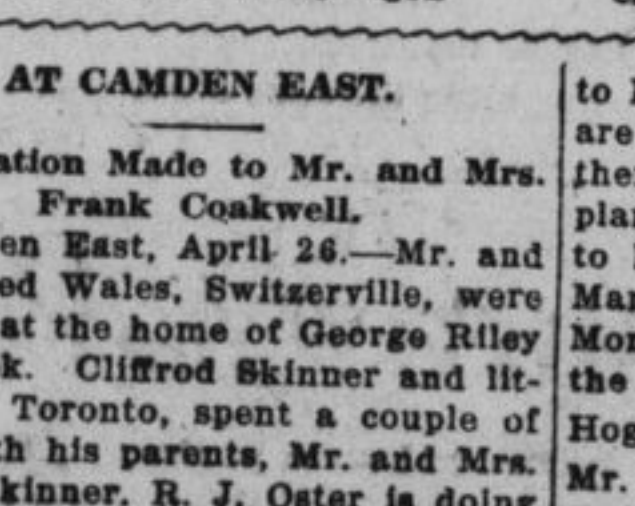

TOO SMALL
Manager: You don't get any kick into your act.
Soubrette: Well, there's plenty of kick about the salary I get.

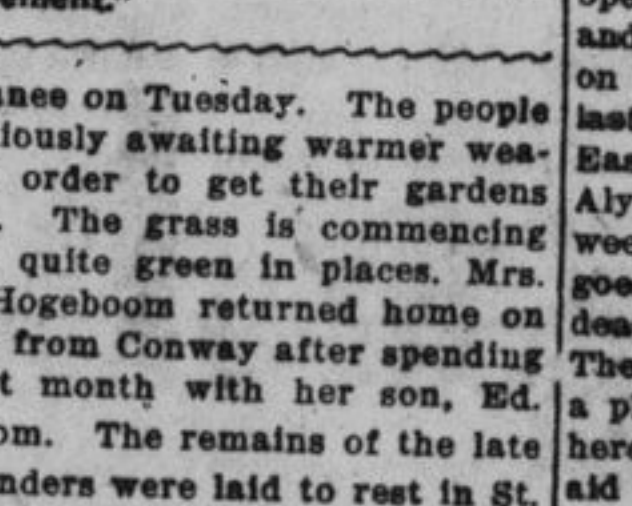

NOT WELL ACQUAINTED
"I am wedded to my art."
"Evidently you didn't have a long engagement."

A MARK-DOWN SALE
"These three-piece suits are one-third off."
"Then I suppose these two-piece suits are one-half off."

Why Pay Cash?

Who pays the loss of the dishonest debtor?
Who pays for the Man who buys more than he can pay for?
The Man who pays cash pays.
The Bankrupt Stock may be the result of misfortune—but mostly it's just the outcome of incompetency.
You are expected to pay cash for a Semi-ready Suit, because the price in the pocket does not allow for any loss through credit. It's a close-to-cost profit.
A Semi-ready Store, adhering to the cash plan, also guarantee satisfaction or money refunded. There is no risk, nor any loss—for the store or the customer.
The wearer of a Semi-ready suit does not help pay for the suit of the tardy debtor.
He gets full value for what he pays—and he gets earnest service.

Absolute Evidence in Favor of Ground Cylinders
All high grade automobile engines manufactured in this country as well as in Europe have their cylinder bores finished by grinding. Some of the American cars that might be mentioned are:
Apperson Hudson Peerless
Brewster Kissel Pierce Arrow
Cadillac LaFayette Rolls Royce
Cunningham Lincoln Standard
Dorris Locomobile Stevens Duryes
Franklin Marmon Stutz
Haynes Mercer Templar
Holmes Packard Winton

In fact, 84% of all the manufacturers of pleasure cars use engines with ground cylinder bores, and 91% of the commercial motors are ground. Heald Machines are used exclusively.
Automobile owners we have one of these Heald Cylinder Grinding Machines, and can guarantee first class work. Ground Cylinders is a selling point with many cars.
