TRUCK DRIVER INJURED

Robert Fleming Was Crushed Between Vehicle and Wharf Shed Door.

Robert Fleming, a driver for George Robertson and Sons, is in the General Hospital, as a result of injuries received Wednesday afternoon, when he was crushed between his truck and a shed-door at the Brock street wharf. He was driving out of the shed with a load of freight, and was caught unawares by the low-hanging door-frame. R. J. Reid's ambulance was called, and Dr. J. F. Sparks, who happened to be on the wharf, gave the unfortunate man first aid treatment. Mr. Fleming received severe bruises around the chest, and was also badly shaken up, but it is understood that no bones are broken.

While driving out of the shed, the team became frightened and leaped suddenly ahead. Mr. Fleming had no chance to jump or save himself, and he was crushed against a heavy box of freight by the door-frame. A number of men were nearby, and they lifted him from the wagon when he almost collapsed from the pain of his injuries. Dr. Sparks made a hasty examination of the man, and decided to send him to hospital, as it was feared that there might be some internal injury. The doctors in attendance found that no bones were broken, but that he was suffering from shock.

Upon inquiry at the hospital Thursday morning, it was announced that Mr. Fleming had rested nicely during the night, but that he would be unable to leave for some days. He was bruised around the chest and upper part of the abdomen.

MANY CHILDREN

Getting Their Locks Trimmed For the Warm Weather.

Commenting on the general conditions in barbering circles as he has observed them in his shop, Frank Robbs, who runs the well-known parlors next to the Bank of Nova Scotia on Wellington street, remarks that the youngsters are coming to him in great numbers now to have their hair trimmed in preparation for the warm weather which will soon be here. The drop in price to thirty-five cents has brought an even greater number of kiddies to him in the past week or so.

People are more and more coming to realize that it is best for the youngsters to be free from great masses of hair during the hot weather. Short hair not only keeps them cool, but is easy to look after, does not collect nearly so much dust and dirt and is desirable in every way.

Mr. Robbs also remarks that the prejudice against barber shops as a place "for men only" is a thing of the past and that ladies no longer hesitate to enter his parlors with the little tots. Many ladies have expressed surprise at the cleanliness, and general courtesy prevailing and have been very much pleased with it all. From the number of youngsters who patronize his place, Mr. Robbs will soon be known as "the Children's Barber."

Death Being Probed.

County Crown Attorney William Carnew, K.C., of Belleville was called to Coe Hill, Wallaston Township, North Hastings, where he will represent the interests of the Crown, in the inquest which is being held there. Sanford Masters, a highly respected citizen of Coe Hill, came to his death, it was alleged, by falling from a load of hay on April 3rd, last, and receiving injuries to the neck and head, when the runner of the sleigh pushed him along the road before it.

Twenty-four hours after death, the body was examined by Dr. S. S. Lumb, and thinking that death was perfectly accidental, the remains were interred. Recently however, unsavory rumors have been going the rounds, with the result that the body was exhumed and the inquest ordered.

Good Eyesight is Priceless

Your eyes are your bread winners—take good care of them. You not only need your eyesight, but you need the most efficient seeing power that you can command.

The human eye is a wonderful thing. It will, in some cases, stand an almost unlimited amount of abuse—and come back for more.

But—there is a point where there is no "come-back." When the muscles of accommodation refuse to respond; when the tissue of the eye itself becomes hardened and the crystalline lens refuses to focus readily for all distances—then the only remedy is glasses.

Do not let yours get into the condition where you are helpless without glasses. Conserve your vision by giving them the consideration due them.

WE CAN HELP YOU.
