Baseball Briefs

Whatever comes or goes the Printers are all prepared for a big baseball season and are patiently awaiting the opening of the Mercantile League programme.

Latest dope: According to present indications it'll be some time before the Kingston baseball fans will be looking for some throat cures—the doctors are getting more careful, anyway.

Kingston seems to be sorta stranded between the Central Ontario Baseball League and the Eastern Canada Baseball League; but there is yet hope.

Ruth is not allowed to wallop and Dempsey has no person to wallop and both are beginning to fret at the hit somewhat.

Some people think that Willie could knock Dempsey for a half mile of Hittle Chinese Chandeliers, but then they thought the same about Carpenter.

Say, wouldn't it be queer if Carp. got another fight with Dempsey on the other side and, with his little steel mitten whanged the American's jaw for the count of nine? Yeah, it would.

"Look out for the Cubs," says a Chicago expert. Most likely the Giants will look out for the Cubs and take care of 'em beginning May 13 at Chicago.

Pitcher Arnold Vann, the pitcher turned back to Toronto by the Albany Club, has been reported to report to the Norfolk Club of the Virginia State League.

Ty Cobb's letter to Ban Johnson protesting the delivery of Pitcher Robertson of the White Sox was eight pages long and had no effect. This Robertson must sure be smooth.

Gonzales, Toronto, second-sacker, is still on the sick list but the reports that he is through have ceased to come through.

From the Senators' wobbly showing in the opening games it looks as if Nick Altrock was slowing up.

Pitcher Dave Danforth is watched closely when he works for the Browns. Dave seems to have had wished on him a reputation of being a tricky critter in the box.

The Cardinals are making a fight for the pennant. Three of them have been fined and set down for a row in Pittsburgh.

Bill Carrigan being called the idol of Boston fans looks right this season, even if Bill has been out of the game for several years.

Outlaws? The Maritime Hockey and Baseball Association was formed at Amherst on Saturday at a meeting of amateurs from all sections of the maritime provinces. The new association, the members of which are evidently breaking away from the M.P.B. of A.A.U. of C., will confine its activities to hockey and baseball.

Epidemic of Dysentery It affects many people more in winter than in summer—in the one case it is due to improper eating—in the other, to congestion excited by cold. A small dose of good, old Nerviline repeated a couple of times usually removes the trouble very promptly. If there is pain, relief is almost immediate. For cramps, colic, stomach pains, and the like, Nerviline in sweetened water is certainly a wonder. 35c. at all dealers.

English Go Home. New York, May 4.—The Oxford-Cambridge lacrosse team, which won a majority of its games against eastern colleges in this country, sailed for home Tuesday on the Aquitania. Captain Hopkins said he had found the sport on a higher plane here than he had been led to expect.

"It's true we won the majority of our games," said Captain Hopkins, "but we should have done better. We want to tell United States college men, however, that we have enjoyed every minute of our stay, and that we will come back next year if possible to try for a clean sweep of all our games."

BIG DAY.

New York Fans Watching for May Twentieth.

The baseball bugs in "La' ole Nuh Yawk" are all keyed up and waiting for May 20th as a big day. On that date "Babe" Ruth gets into action for the first time after his six weeks of sitting on the bod boy's stool, and the slugging Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis Browns, hailed by many as a rival for the Bambino, makes his first appearance of the season in New York city. The two home run specialists will have a chance to demonstrate against each other in the game that day.

OLD COUNTRY FOOTBALL.

The English League, First Division. Huddersfield 2, Middlesborough 1. Preston 2, Birmingham 2.

Third Division, Southern Section. Merthyr 0, Southampton 1. Swindon 6, Norwich 1. Aberdare 2, Luton 0. Neath beat Aberavon by 9 points to 3 in a Rugby Union game.

The Pirates' pastime of late has proved a keen disappointment—to the Cubs, Cards and Reds.

Joe Wood's hitting for the Indians makes it appear that Joe still retains considerable "smoke."

IN THE BIG SWIM.

The following players have been listed with baseball clubs in either the National or American Leagues and will be figuring in the big games this summer. Two or three letters will be printed each day until the list is complete. Clip them and save them for reference.

National League. Luque, Adolfo, Cincinnati. Lutz, Louis, Cincinnati. Lavan, John, St. Louis. Lansing, Eugene, Boston. Lee, C. W., Philadelphia. Leslie, Roy, Philadelphia.

American League. Leonard, Hubert B., Detroit. Luther, J., Washington. Lambke, Phede, Chicago. Leverette, G. V., Chicago. Liefer, Elmer, Chicago. Lent, Fred, Boston. Loftus, Frank P., Philadelphia. La Motte, R., Washington. Leibold, Harry, Boston. Lindsay, Jas. K., Cleveland. Leifield, Elam R., St. Louis.

VETERAN RIDER WINS ON VETERAN CHASER.

New York, May 4.—Harry S. Page, famous for forty years for his interest in amateur racing and riding, at the one-day meet of the United Hunts Racing Association at Belmont Park, Tuesday rode his sixteen-year-old Gold Plate to victory in a two-mile and a half steeplechase.

SAY !! We again repeat that the Whig will be pleased to publish accounts of junior baseball games, and solicits the co-operation of secretaries of junior teams. Short snappy accounts, teeming with features and containing scores and line-ups, will be given every attention. Copy should be in as early as possible, and only one side of paper should be written on. Box scores are not essential.

SHE TURNS TO DEMPSEY FOR SOLACE IN TROUBLE

Canceling his plans to visit historic sights in Berlin and then proceed to London, Jack Dempsey telegraphed to Peggy Joyce, motion-picture star, that he was leaving Germany on the first train and would be in Paris in the morning. The man she loved is the victim of his own act; her friendship for M. Letellier, the proprietor of The Paris Journal, is shaken through the tragedy caused by Senor Errazuris' jealousy of the publisher. Miss Joyce today seems to be turning toward the champion boxer to arouse her from the depths of desperation.

admirers. All day long Madame Maria Edward Errazuris sat with a nun at the hospital, where the suicide's body, covered with a white sheet to hide the gaping wound where the bullet tore through his forehead, eyes and nose, lay on a bier flanked with candles.

Floral pieces from the Chilean Legations in Brussels, London, Paris and Berne and others from friends are all around the bier, but there is none from Miss Joyce.

"I only dozed two hours last night," said the screen star today.

"That makes three sleepless nights. The doctor refused to give me morphine because my heart is weak, but I cannot stand the tension much longer."

An inch in an hour is a foot in a day's work.
