Girls! Girls!
What do you want to do this summer? Just hang around? It isn't being done these days. There is many a good job listed in our classified advertisements, and if you can not find the sort of work you want, run an ad of your own—get a job of your own—and earn your own money.

Trimming Park Trees.
A number of the trees in the various city parks are being trimmed up by a gang of workmen, and the surplus branches drawn away. With the early buds beginning to bloom, and the trees looking green once more, the parks have a decided summer appearance.

Civil Service Readjustments.
It is provided that civil service salaries of $1,200 or under, and in salaries of $1,800 or under, adjustments be made so that in no case shall a civil servant with a lower salary plus bonus receive more on compensation than a civil servant with a higher salary plus reduced bonus.

Will Be Assistant Purser.
Arthur G. S. Wartman, Aberdeen street, has returned to the city after spending a few days in Ottawa. Mr. Wartman is a third year Arts student of Queen's, and he expects to leave within a week or so, to resume his position, held last summer, as assistant purser on the steamer Kingston.

Ball Playing Popular.
Practically every park, back alley, and open lot in the city, boasts of a squad of youngsters and youngmen playing ball during the evenings, since the warm weather has started. Some young enthusiasts even practise during the noon-hour in the little park next to the post-office.

Belleville's "Mystery Man"
The unknown Russian who was picked up by the police of Belleville, in the railway yards there a few days ago and brought to Rockwood Hospital, has been identified as belonging to Oshawa, and inquiry is being made there about him. When picked up he was unable to give his name or tell anything about himself.

Thirty Years in Business.
W. W. Taber has completed thirty years as one of Carleton Place's business men. It is really thirty-one years since he first started in business but for one year of that time he was out of active business owing to illness. He is celebrating the anniversary.

No Celebration in Perth.
It has been decided by the Perth-Upper-Tay branch of the G.W.V.A., to not hold a demonstration there on May 24th. The nearest to Perth celebrations will be held at Westport and Merrickville.

Consider Relief Fund.
The executive of the Prince Edward County Prohibition Alliance met at Wellington to consider an appeal to help raise money for the special relief fund of over $15,000 to wipe out the 1920 deficit of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance.

Would Sell Drill Hall.
Major J. B. Dunbar, senior engineer officer, Military District No. 3, is offering, on behalf of the department of militia and defence, to sell the drill hall at Lansdowne to the township of Front of Leeds and Lansdowne for the sum of $300, provided the township furnished two rooms for military purposes.

The Late Alice Williminea Kilfoyle.
After a long struggle against anaemia, Miss Alice Williminea Kilfoyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kilfoyle of Smith's Falls, died Thursday morning. For about a year she resided in Toronto. In addition to the parents there survive six brothers—Howard, Hilliard, Addison and Harry, Smith's Falls and Edward and Delmar, Toronto.

To Go To London.
The annual meeting of the Canadian Fraternal Association will be held in London on Thursday and Friday of this week, and will be attended by representative officers of all the organizations in Canada that are under the fraternal association. James M. Farrell will attend as the representative of the Oddfellows' Relief Association.

Judgment For Plaintiff.
In Froud vs. Williams, an action to recover $1,000 for timber alleged to have been cut and removed by defendant and for damages for trespass, heard at the non-jury sittings of the supreme court of Ontario in Brockville, Justice Middleton has handed down judgment of $450 and costs, on the county court scale, for the plaintiff. The parties to the action reside in Elizabethtown.

Accounts Show Paring Results.
Over the week-end there was issued the annual financial statement of the Canada Steamship Lines, Limited, bearing the signature of the new president of the company, W. H. Coverdale, New York and Kingston. The statement indicates the result of the "paring-down" operations of the past few months, and with the completion of the new financing, the company should be in sound position.

to reap full benefit from the navigation season now opening.

Back on the Farm.
H. M. Williams will spend the summer on his farm near Picton, Ont. He has moved to the old home with Mrs. Williams and his mother. He asked to be relieved of his position with the Canadian National Railways, but was given three months' leave of absence, the officials of the Canadian National hoping that he could arrange his personal affairs in that time so as to resume his position he has held for ten years with headquarters at Chicago.

To Call Dairy School Teachers.
Prof. Zufelt, superintendent of the Kingston Dairy School, when asked by the Whig when the erection of the new building would be commenced, stated that the plans were almost ready and the architect was busy making the specifications. It is fully expected that the tenders will be called for in a couple of weeks at the latest. When the plans and specifications are ready, they will have to be approved by the minister of agriculture, Hon. Manning Doherty.

Curling Club Scheme.
The special committee appointed by the Kingston curling club to arrange for the plans for the building of the new rink has made out a report which will be presented at a meeting of the members of the club to be held on Thursday evening next. The committee feels quite satisfied with the response to the advertisement which was placed in the local daily papers asking for offers for land suitable as a site for the new rink. Quite a number of suitable sites have been offered.

Celebration on July 1st.
Dominion day, July 1st, will be the occasion for a celebration in Kingston, if the plans of the local G.W.V.A. and executive of Camp Vimy, Watertown command, British War Veterans, are successful. An excursion will be held to this city and the party will be welcomed by the R.C.H.A., unless this unit had left for Petawawa camp, when some other organization will be obtained for the occasion. A programme of entertainment is now being drawn up by the local association.

Not Often "At Sea."
The Christian Guardian in its report of the convocation of Wesley College, Montreal, has this paragraph: The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred on Rev. W. S. Lennon, Kingston, amid great applause. Dr. Rose, in presenting Mr. Lennon, said humorously, that on the way to the Ecumenical Conference last summer, the candidate for the degree had not proved himself a good sailor; whereupon Principal Smyth remarked that if that were so, it must be stated that Mr. Lennon was not often "at sea."

Street Will Be Oiled.
Gananogue council has decided to apply oil on King street from the bridge to Charles street, and at the same time not to sprinkle other streets unless residents of any particular section express their desire in terms of payment in advance. This action was decided upon by council as apparently the only way to ensure the town against loss, and quite serious loss at that, the arrearages for this work at present amounting to approximately $700. Owing to a reduction in price of material, the cost of oiling will be somewhat less than last year.

A Wide-Spread War Memorial

IN memory of the war-time efforts for King and Country, of eleven thousand C.P.R. employees and more particularly of 1,115 men who gave their lives for the cause for which the British people stood, the Canadian Pacific Railway has erected at Montreal, Winnipeg, and Vancouver a striking bronze memorial group, depicting in larger than life size an Angel of Victory bearing the body of a Canadian soldier upward towards perfect peace. These statues were simultaneously unveiled on Friday, April 23rd, His Excellency Lord Byng, the Governor General, officiating at the Montreal celebration.
