MATERIAL THAT RESISTS ACID

New Substance, Duroprene, is Said to Be Adapted to a Wide Range of Uses.

Recent acid-resisting materials include such notable products as silica, iron rich in silicon, monel metal and various other alloys. Not least interesting is duroprene, obtained by the chlorination of rubber, and resisting reagents that readily attack rubber, such as ozone, nitrous and nitric acids, hydrochloric acid, etc.

VOYAGE FAMOUS IN HISTORY

Wooden Paddle Wheel Steamer, the Golden Age, Paved the Way for the Mighty Megantic.

Departure from Sydney recently of the White Star liner Megantic for Liverpool by way of New Zealand, the Panama canal, the West Indies and New York, recalls her historic forerunner of 1854, says the New York Tribune.

The vessel, the Golden Age, was a wooden paddle wheel steamer, belonging to the New York and Australian Steam Navigation company. The intention of the company was to run six vessels, "via Panama," the Panama railroad, capitalised at $7,000,000, being the connecting link on the then uncompleted isthmus with the West India Royal Mail Steam Packet company, running from Southampton.

The Crimen war, yellow fever on the isthmus and other causes conspired to defeat the company's plans. The Golden Age was commanded by Lieut. David D. Porter of the United States navy, who afterward became famous as a Union admiral during the Civil war.

The Golden Age left Melbourne for Panama via Sydney and Tahiti, May 5, 1854. She reached Sydney on May 11 with 300 passengers. Her cargo included a consignment of gold dust and she reached England in 60 days.

New Idea in Ventilation

The Englishwoman, which, according to Munsey's Magazine, may revolutionize all our systems of ventilation, is based on the principle that a fan should be brought down sharply from the perpendicular to the horizontal, and thus drive the air forward in steady puffs and set up a fresh current from the rear. The inventor, who is an Englishwoman, has given public demonstrations in London with glass models of the fan readily expels the smoke which the fan readily expels the smoke.

Airplanes in Mining Operations

It is predicted that the airplane and the dirigible will prove a great stimulant to the mining industry in presenting a means of getting material and men to and from locations which are known to be rich with ore and which are at the present time inaccessible. There are many such places known to exist, but the cost of building a roadway to them would be so great as to be prohibitive.

Cats and Diphtheria

"It is a widely accepted belief that cats may suffer from diphtheria and convey the infection to human beings," says the Journal of the American Medical Association in recounting the experiments by which Doctor Savage proved that this is entirely without foundation.

Doctor Savage planted vast numbers of diphtheria bacilli in the noses and throats of kittens, but in no instance did these take the disease, and within 24 hours the bacilli were dead. Doctor Savage reviewed all the evidence in connection with epidemics of diphtheria and came to the conclusion that so far as it implicates cats it is quite valueless.

WORK TO START SOON ON THE C.P.R. BRIDGE

The Estimated Cost of the Work Will Be About $50,000.

It is expected that the name of the contractor who will build the overhead bridge for the Canadian Pacific Railway, which will do away with the diamond at a point west of the Grand Trunk outer station, where the C.P.R. and G.T.R. tracks cross, will be announced next week.

At the present time, the track of the Canadian Pacific Railway comes from the north and runs parallel with the Grand Trunk double track from a point near where the Perth road crosses the Grand Trunk track to a short distance from the diamond. The C. P. R. after crossing the diamond, comes into Kingston after crossing Montreal street.

DON'T TICKLE THE CELLIST

Happening at Detroit Shows the Unwisdom of That Particular Form of Playfulness.

One should never tickle a cello player in the ribs, especially if he is a famous one such as Phillip Abbas of the Detroit Symphony orchestra, remarks the Detroit News in a recent issue.

The story came out when Harris filed a suit for $100 in justice court against Abbas. It was a story of temperament and temper and the trouble arose at rehearsal. Ossip Gabrilowitch, director, was away for a few minutes, and the temperamental ones indulged in a few moments of playboy, not music.

"Ah, ha," shouted Harris. "You have broken my bow. You shall pay." "Shant," shouted Abbas. "Your own fault. You glared and then the director appeared and the fight was dropped. It was taken up again via a justice court suit. It is believed that the suit never will be heard.

Feathers, Furs and Jewels, New So Popular, Are Reminiscent of Our Early Ancestors. Glimpses of present fashions and views of some shop windows lead to the impression that the world is, after all as some commentators say, reverting to the savage, remarks the New York Evening Sun.

RETURNING TO SAVAGE DAYS?

Women are wearing more and more feathers in their hair and more and more large and ornate jewelry upon their hands and in their ears. Men are showing a decided inclination to ornament themselves to the limit of their purses in these days of the high cost of clothes, and altogether anthropologists tell us it is not such a very far cry from the adornments of present-day civilization to that of the Neanderthal man or the Garden of Eden itself.

The fashions of last winter showed a predilection toward furs such as the world has never seen since the days when they were worn raw. Both men and women wore them.

In milder climates women seem to be wearing less and less. The stage is noteworthy in respect to the unclad feminine back and certain sections of society seem to follow the stage. Fashion's return to Eve seems in certain cases to be a mere matter of weeks, as we progress in these swiftly changing times.

Gasping Forest Fire Impractical.

The officials of the United States department of agriculture have been in receipt of so many suggestions relative to extinguishing forest fires with the use of gas bombs dropped from airplanes that it has been found necessary to issue a statement for the purpose of explaining that the scheme is not feasible. For the purpose of overcoming a detachment of men, a mixture of one part of virulent poison to 1,000,000 of air would be entirely sufficient to accomplish the purpose, but one of 750 parts to the thousand would not be powerful enough to quench a conflagration. Another thing to be taken into consideration is the difficulty of dropping the bombs with the necessary precision. The art of striking a target with any degree of accuracy has not been developed at this time and there is no prospect that it will be sufficiently perfected to the point of becoming available for the purpose of fighting fires.

New England Least American.

Talk of Americanizing New England rings oddly on American ears. If the cradle of our country needs Americanizing, where are we? We think of Massachusetts as the heart of New England. Among the states it is "next to the oldest." But a count of her present generation's parentage shows Massachusetts to be almost the least American of the 48 states, the World Outlook states.

The 1910 census discovered that only 32 per cent of Massachusetts folks were native born of native parents. More than 68 per cent were either foreign born or were born here of foreign parents. Later figures would be even more astounding. The years that intervene between 1910 and the outbreak of the war saw the greatest influx of immigrants the country has ever known.

New Aerial Regulation.

The small Australian who flies a toy balloon or runs with his Japanese kite against the wind may offend against the majesty of the war precautions act. A new war regulation issued in February, 1920, gives power to the naval or military authorities in the Commonwealth to declare any area a prohibited area for the flying of balloons during any specified period. "Balloon" is defined as anything up to an airship. The reason for this restrictive regulation was primarily the light from Sydney to Melbourne of the light from London to Darwin.

A lot of people are cultivating their voices who should spend their time cultivating corn. Snow to the depth of two feet fell in western South Dakota on Thursday. Houlton, Maine, streets were covered with snow Friday. The Toronto board of trade will entertain the city council at dinner

WHAT A BOY CAN DO.

These are some of the things a boy can do:

He can shout so loud the air turns blue; He can make all sounds of beast or bird; And a thousand more they never heard.

He can crow or cackle, chirp or creak; Till he fools the rooster, hen or dove; He can mock the dog or cat or cow; And the cat herself can't bat her paw.

He has sounds that are ruffled, striped, or plain; He can thunder by like a railway train; Stop at the stations a breath, and then Apply the steam and be off again.

He has all his powers in such command; He can turn right into a full brass band; With all of the instruments ever played; And march away as a street parade.

You can tell that a boy is very ill If he's wide awake and is keeping still; But earth would be—God bless their noise!— A dull old place if there were no boys.

THE PLAY MAN'S GAMES

NEW "BULL IN RING" Dear Sneezy: Only a month more of school and then fun begins. Gee, I can hardly wait can you? We've got all kinds of stunts planned for summer. New games and hikes and everything. I'll write and tell you about them when we do them. I like to play games pretty much and some games I like lots more than others, but right now I like baseball best. I would give a million dollars if I could be in the big league and play like Tris Speaker or Ty Cobb or Babe Ruth. I wonder what makes a guy be able to play like that. I guess it's by training and using your noodle. It takes brains to be a great ball player. You know us kids have got a ball team and we practice every day and the Play Man told us that if we worked hard for team work and did not get swell-headed and think we were the whole works we would be good athletes. You would hardly believe it, but Wilbur is the best pitcher in the bunch. Almost all of the bunch can lick him, but he can strike us out. We got a new way to play Bull in the Ring and it's a peach. You know the old way is where a kid gets in the circle and tries to break out and when he does all the bunch chase him and the one who catches him is the next one to be in the circle. Well, the way we play it is to have the Bull in the ring and a Helper outside. The Helper helps the Bull to get out. He kneels up arms, or pushes kids over, or pulls on the Bull to help him break through. When the Bull breaks out they both run and the boy who catches the Bull is the next Bull and the boy who catches the Helper is the next Helper. This beats the old way of playing it, for in the old way sometimes a kid couldn't get out of the ring if he was small. Good-bye and please write soon. Your friend, yours truly, CHIP.
