One of the most delightful dances of the season was given in the Nurses' Residence of the Kingston General Hospital on Monday evening, when the Nurses' Alumnae entertained the newly graduated nurses. Red and white bunting decorated the halls and reception rooms, with ropes and tulips in the hospital colors carrying out this color scheme. Mrs. J. C. Spence, the president, smartly frocked in brown satin, received the guests, assisted by Mrs. R. E. Kent, wearing a handsome gown of black satin and sequins, and Mrs. W. F. Nickle in black lace. Miss Carey, superintendent, introduced the graduating class to the hostess. Mr. Tremper played for dancing and during the evening Miss Harriet Gardner sang several times, accompanied by Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson. A buffet supper was served from an artistically decorated table covered with a silver sponger filled with red and white tulips. More of the same flowers were in slender silver vases and red candles in silver sticks shed a soft glow on the charming tout ensemble. Here Mrs. Howard Marshall and Mrs. E. H. Leggett poured coffee and Mrs. S. F. Campbell out the tea. A large number of the governors of the hospital and their wives were present, and the city clergy and medical men were well represented at this most enjoyable affair.

The London Advertiser says: Mrs. H. A. Panet entertained very informally at the Hunt Club last week in honor of Hon. Mrs. Shuttleworth King, inviting a few of the military people to meet the charming wife of

LARGE PIMPLES ALL OVER FACE

Itched and Burned. Face Disfigured. Cuticura Heals.

"Large, red pimples were scattered all over my face. They festered and itched and burned so that I scratched them. The pimples were so large that I was ashamed to go among my friends. I would lie awake half the night, and my face was awfully disfigured."

"A friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them for some time the pimples began to disappear, and when I had used three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Harry Feinstein, 36 Pequet St., Hartford, Conn., May 12, 1921.

AN OUTFIT FOR SPRING WEAR

This charming spring suit consists of a gray broadcloth skirt and a diagonally cut coat of blue serge, crossed diagonally by matching gray stripes.

CHAPEAU HINTS FOR SPRING

Fruits and flowers in abundance are predicted for use on a variety of headgear.

The wizards of millinery art are busy planning the creations that will adorn millady's proud head this spring. Some of the advance models are already on display and if there is anything in signs, the spring is due for a rainbow of color in contrast to the sombre of winter.

There is a new shade of violet bound to be becoming to the fair skinned and blond or brunette type equally well. It is a sort of blue when first discovered, yet, one could not safely call it blue without fear of having one's neighbor call it violet. So subtle is the color note, that it is truly charming. Rose, too, has a strange new blend. It mixes with orchid to form a decidedly new shade for spring millinery.

Fruit and flowers in abundance are predicted. According to present signs, the hats will be small, but brimmed. At front, just above the short brim, a multitude of colorful fruits and flowers nestle together. Novelty fruit, such as pink grapes on a violet hat is shown. Silver grapes on gray are new and fascinating. So also are the green and yellow and blue fruits that nestle together to form a bizarre effect at the front of a tangerine hat in chiffon taffeta.

STYLES OF THE DAY

The half-inch leather belt is worn on the newest sweaters. Heavy bone ball buttons fasten the newest jersey frock.

Among things that are interesting in the spring capes is the bright linings.

For little girls there are all sorts of charming frocks in English prints, calicoes and chintzes.

Sweaters are made with round bands consisting of blocks of different color, on a foundation of white, black or beige.

For formal afternoon occasions there is a long tunic blouse of Spanish lace, with wrist length flowing sleeves piped at the bottom. The lower section of the blouse is split almost up to the hips, and all the edges are piped.

Ratine, plain and plaided, alone and combined with Japanese silk, basket weave material, Roman striped-mohair, krepe-knit, silk, sponge, heavy linen, pongee, and gingham are among the fabrics which have already been brought out for spring waistcoats and gilets.

The vogue for lingerie neckwear or collar and cuff sets to be worn with suits is quite generally taking among manufacturers also.

Boudoir Garments Are Wool Trimmed. Among the very popular and practical boudoir robes of the present season is the garment made of a light silk, such as crepe de chine and china silk, interlined with lamb's wool and daintily quilted. Frequently wool embroidery supplies the trimming touch, although quite as many are entirely untrimmed. Washable fannel kimonoes are also popular and dainty, and wool challis is used for serviceable boudoir garments. For spring some very dainty cotton crepe negligees are being shown, and the low waistline so much featured in outer apparel enters the negligee field also, some rather pleasing effects having been developed.

Neck Ribbons Again. The sapper net in Paris has resurrected the neck ribbon, and it is fast gaining in popularity. The girls are wearing a band of ribbon tightly about the neck, just below the chin. It is usually about half an inch wide, and the colors run all the way from bright yellow to black. Some of the wearers have a small gold ornament, such as a miniature heart, hanging from the ribbon by a chain in front. It is just a red and probably won't last more than a couple of months.

Removes Hair Growths Without Pain or Bother

(Modes of To-day)
It is not necessary to use a painful process to remove hairy growths, for with a little delatone handy you can keep the skin entirely free from these beauty destroyers. To remove hair, make a stiff paste with a little powdered delatone and water. Spread this on the hairy surface and in about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. To guard against disappointment, be careful to get real delatone. Mix fresh as wanted.

What the Editor Hears

That a very up-to-date party of gipsies are encamped on Barrieheld common; they have three motor cars and four tents but still retain the practice of sitting on the grass in the open for their meals.

That Lucile has created a dress in rose pink, with hundreds of piped points of georgette forming the skirt, and a bodice of pink and gold tissue, held over the shoulder with trails of flowers and ribbons, and this dress is to be auctioned in aid of St. Dunstan's hospital for the blind.

That only the novelists can make their heroines cry effectively for the woman in real life who tries to make her eyes look "like drenched blue violets" usually succeeds in making her nose look like a drenched red strawberry.

That many of the children and young people who enjoy the beauties of Cartwright's Point during this season of the year, seem to forget entirely that the grounds are private and that only through the kindness of the ladies at "The Maples," are the woods accessible to the public.

That David Belasco is trying out Hubert Osborne's "Shore Leave" at Baltimore next week, with Francesca Starr in the leading role.

That the masquerade held at Pearson hall, Toronto, last week, given by the Sir Arthur Pearson Club, whose members are blinded soldiers and sailors, was one of the merriest ever held in Toronto. So perfect were their costumes and so well did they dance, that one guest exclaimed "But where are the blind men?"

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kambie

WEDNESDAY, MAY 17TH.

The prospects for an active and gainful day are strongly indicated in the planetary configurations. With Mercury and Jupiter under excellent Lunar transit, all manner of mercantile and professional pursuits should thrive with the Jupiter influence strengthening financial returns and expanding business opportunities. There may be, however, some menace through intrigue, deception or fraud, and also the health may be a matter of concern or hindrance. An opening for a beneficial change may present itself.

Those whose birthday it is have the forecast of a year of prosperity and expanding business with good opportunities, but they should be on guard against deception, and should give the health careful attention. A child born on this day will be generous and good-hearted, but may prove somewhat untrustworthy unless carefully trained in early life. It may make its best success in the employment of others.

Your work or your hobby are served by the classified advertisements. Final reading was given in the commons Monday afternoon to the bill of the Canadian Transit Co. to build a bridge between Windsor and Detroit. Bill now goes to the senate.

Efficient Housekeeping

Answered Letters.
A Farm Mother-Housekeeper: "I want to tell you about something my daughter, in the city, actually saw: she went to a dance where everybody was in evening-dress, and one woman took the velvet tunic off her skirt, at the end of the evening, and wore it home as an evening wrap: Thought some of your other readers might enjoy this 'hint'—even if they did not care to use it!"

Answer: Thank you, Reader Friend, we can't get too many laughs in this world of stern realities. M. F. D.: "Please print recipes for cornmeal mush, veal loaf, gelatine dessert, baked rice-cheese dish and bread crumb omelet."

Answer: Cornmeal mush is made like any fine-grained cereal: follow the recipe on a box of cream of wheat or farina, for instance, simply substituting yellow cornmeal for the contents of the box. Recipes for gelatine desserts come with packages of minute gelatine. A detailed bread crumb omelet recipe was published in this column on March 21st, so buy a back copy of that date from your paper's circulation department; or copy it out of the newspaper's dish, boil rice till soft, in the ordinary way, and turn it into a baking dish with enough sweet milk to moisten well, adding salt to suit taste and one-half pound of American cheese finely cut up; bake one hour in a medium oven and serve hot. To make veal loaf have your butcher put through his meat grinder three pounds of raw veal and one-fourth pound of pork; mix these well together, add four crushed unswollen crackers, two beaten eggs, butter size of an egg melted, a dash of pepper and one-half teaspoon each of salt and sage. Bake two hours in a moderate oven.

An Old Subscriber: "Will you please publish recipes for Danish or Norwegian cakes, puddings or pies, such as they use at Easter, or any time?"

Answer: I am sorry to say that I have no such recipes, but perhaps some of our other Reader Friends may have, and will be kind enough to write them on a post card and send them to me, so that I can print them in this column.

A Reader: "Please let me know through the paper, the best way to varnish a wooden bed (walnut color) which has been painted white."

Answer: Buy a paint remover to take off the white paint, and when the bed is clean of this, varnish it with any good varnish.

Young Cook: Kindly print a recipe for caramel cake frosting."

Answer: Caramel Filling and Frosting: Boil together for 20 minutes one and one-half cups of granulated sugar, two-thirds cup of sweet
