

JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA A SPECIAL FEATURE

Of Programme to be Given Under Auspices of Kingston Rotary Club.

In connection with the Chautauqua to be held in Kingston from July 1st to 7th, inclusive, under the auspices of the Rotary Club, the Junior Chautauqua is one of the special features.

There is no general programme for the mornings, and it is in the morning that the Junior Chautauqua is held.

The Chautauqua is just for the children. It will commence at 9 a. m., and continue till 11.30 a. m. and continue till 11.30 a. m. and continue till 11.30 a. m.

The Junior Chautauqua will provide a most interesting and entertaining programme for the children. It will consist of story telling, the teaching of simple songs, with about an hour for games.

In addition there will be a line of work up to stimulate interest in civic pride, etc. For instance the children are organized as citizens of a junior town, a mayor and all the other city officers are elected, and part of each morning session consists of a session of this junior town government.

The children will also be coached in the production of a short pageant entitled, "Conquests of Peace." This will be given as part of the Chautauqua programme on the afternoon of the closing day.

BUSINESS ACTIVITIES IN-CITY OF KINGSTON

In connection with local business activities it is of interest to note that the flour mill of the Kingston Milling Company, under the direction of J. M. Campbell, has been running continuously all winter, without any loss of time whatever, so that as far as business is concerned, there is no reason whatever to complain and the probabilities are that the business of this firm will continue equally good during the summer.

Along the line of business activity in the city, it is also pleasing to learn that the Kingston Navigation Company has made arrangements with the Canada Steamship Lines, by which the Kingston Navigation Company will handle all the business of the Canada Steamship Lines on the Bay of Quinte. This means that the goods will be transhipped at Kingston to the through boats for Montreal, and the head of the lakes. Already this season the Kingston Navigation Company has brought in several carloads, which were transhipped for Saskatoon, Winnipeg, and Montreal. The canning factories in Prince Edward county have disposed of most of their stocks, and will be operating in full force this season, and there should be a heavy shipment of canned goods in the late summer or early fall. The apple crop will depend altogether on the season, but if the crop is good there will be heavy shipments out of Kingston in the fall.

Fights for Lower Rates. Victoria, B.C., May 16.—Premier Oliver, of British Columbia, is leaving to-day for Ottawa, where he will continue to fight for lower freight rates.

BEFORE BABY COMES

Watchful Care of Health Necessary

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Marvelous Help

Cumberland Bay, N.B.—"I was troubled with weak feelings, headache all the time, a cough, fainting spells and pains in my back and side. I could not do a single bit of work and had to be helped out to the hammock where I lay in the fresh air from morning until night and I had to be carried up and down stairs. After other medicines had failed a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she said it was excellent for anyone in the family way. Before the first bottle was taken, I could walk alone and as I kept on with it I got stronger until I was able to do all my work. My baby is now six weeks old and is a big, fat, healthy fellow. I am sure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for me and I recommend it to any woman in that condition." Mrs. MURRAY J. BARTON, R. R. No. 1, Cumberland Bay, New Brunswick.

Cannot Praise too highly. Winnipeg, Manitoba—"I cannot speak too highly of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was a nervous wreck and I just had to force myself to do my work. Even the sound of my own children playing made me feel as if I must scream if they did not get away from me. I could not even speak right to my husband. The doctor said he could do nothing for me, owing to my condition, but told me to expect another miscarriage. My husband's grandmother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I started right away and every one noticed what a different woman I was in a short time. I went and engaged my doctor and he did not know me, I was so well. I was able to do my work once more and it was a pleasure, not a burden. Now I have a "fine bouncing baby" to use the doctor's own words. I am able to nurse her and enjoy doing my work. I cannot help recommending such a medicine and anyone seeing me before I took it and seeing me now, can see what it does for me. What it has done for me it can do for any one in the same condition. I am only too pleased for you to use my testimonial." Mrs. EMILY DAVIS, 721 McGee St., Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Found it Great Relief. Chicago, Illinois—"I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all prospective mothers. I suffered from weakness and faint spells and had to lie down twice a day for an hour or so before I could go on with my work. My cousin, who lives in Wisconsin, has used your Vegetable Compound for over five years and she came to us for a visit and she recommended it to me, saying she would pay for the bottle if it did not help me. I took that bottle and got more as I found it gave me great relief. I recommend it to my friends and sisters and am willing for you to use these facts to help others." Mrs. I. J. Kuzwaki, 1818 W. 17th St., Chicago, Illinois.

What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

At the Allen Today.

There is a dancing act in "His Back Against the Wall," that would put the famous Castle team to a test, Raymond Hatton, that well-known and excellent character actor, and Shannon Day, are the dancers, and they certainly can dance! To make a long story short, Miss Day came to the movies straight from the Folies where her dancing was her specialty. "His Back Against the Wall" is a picture that has scenes all the way from a New York cafe to a Western desert. It has some of the old time Western thrills in it, and plenty of the modern ones. It will be seen at the Allen theatre for three days, commencing today, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Constance Talmadge in her latest comedy, "Polly of the Folioles."

At the Strand.

The Strand theatre was packed to capacity at the opening performance of Mary Pickford in Little Lord Fauntleroy yesterday. The general opinion of all patrons more than sustained advance claim of the Strand management that it was the best picture ever presented in Kingston at popular prices. Owing to the expected large attendance today and tomorrow the management urges patrons to come as early as possible so as to avoid the possibility of not being able to get a seat. The touching appeal and quaint, fine humor of the tender story, the wonderful art of the never-to-be-forgotten dual portrayal, the exquisite beauty of the entire production—all of these have captured the hearts of everyone who has seen this photoplay of rarest charm. It will be presented today and tomorrow, matinee and evening. The Strand management has received hundreds of phone calls from citizens desiring to reserve seats for this big production. As no reserve seat plan is being used patrons are urged to come as early as possible, as seats cannot be guaranteed after 8 o'clock.

THERE IS NO STRIKE AT GENERAL HOSPITAL

Only a Dispute Between the Masons and the Stone Cutters.

There is no strike on the work at the General Hospital, according to a statement given out by the Dickie Construction Company, but the masons are off their jobs. This, it is pointed out, is due to a dispute between the masons and the stone cutters, two branches of the building trades engaged on the hospital building. The difficulty is not one that can be adjusted by the contractors because it appears to be due to an attitude on the part of the masons toward the stone cutters engaged in dressing the stone to be used in the building. According to an old practice the masons claim that certain work should be left to them to do before laying the stone, whereas the stone cutters regard it as their work. From what we are able to learn the dressing of the corners was to be left to the decision of the contractors, but the masons demand that the stone cutters shall not do it. In the meantime, the work is stopped and it is likely that all masons will be off their jobs as the stone cutters are all at work. Masons get 85 cents an hour and stone cutters 75 cents.

A reduction of 10 cents per 1,000 cubic feet in the price of gas on all bills for up to 10,000 cubic feet per month and 5 cents on all over that amount was announced by the Consumers' Gas Company, Toronto, on Monday.

D. Lahey, Penetanguishene, and G. R. Lahey, Welland, former residents of Frontenac county, are stopping at the Randolph Hotel.

SPORTING NEWS

Soccer League.

The meeting of the soccer league, called for Wednesday evening in the G.W.V.A. rooms, has been postponed until Friday evening, owing to the 21st dinner on Wednesday.

To Collect for Curling Rink.

The members of the Kingston curling club held a meeting on Monday evening when the teams which will solicit subscriptions to erect the new rink were appointed. It is expected that the site for the new rink will be announced in the course of a couple of days.

Cricket Field Busy Field.

The cricket field is in great demand these days from baseball teams of all descriptions, and even if the fans may not see first-class ball this summer, at least they will have opportunity to watch "umpteenth aggregations" at work. On Monday evening several outfits were practising on the field, including the Ponies, Printers, Kiwanis, various public school teams, besides two scheduled games in the public school league. And it's the first team out, that get's the choice of diamonds.

SOME LITTLE GLIMPSES AT PARHAM-VERONA GAME

Our Parham correspondent writes: The Inter-County Baseball League got off to a good start when the Chief Magistrate of Kingston, Mayor Corbett, sent his bewildering slants across the plate, where W. D. Black, the local member, with watchful eye made a creditable effort to solve the mayor's delivery, while Warden Drew handled the shoots with much skill behind the bat, and out on first was perched the president of the league, James E. Davidson. After W. D. Black had shown that even his worship's curves had no terrors for him, the smart team from Verona went to bat against the locals and they treated the fair sized crowd to an interesting game of the favorite summer pastime.

Stanley E. Trotter, of Kingston baseball fame, handled the indicator to the entire satisfaction of each team and the spectators. Both teams give Mr. Trotter great praise for his clever handling of the plays.

As both teams lacked condition and practice, the ball served was not of the highest order, but from the spectators' standpoint it gave delight, as there was much free slugging at times. In this connection Archie Howes, of the locals, gathered two singles, two doubles and a triple during six times at bat, while for the visitors the most timely hitting fell to the willow wielded by James McMillen, who gathered in four singles in five trips to the plate.

Both teams used two pitchers. Truesdale and Revel serving up the slants for Verona and Smith and Lee being on the mound for Parham. The Veronites took the losing end minus their famous battery—Williams and Davey—while the locals ambled along to victory without the aid of the major part of last year's smart outfit. So, considering these handicaps, both teams deserve credit for their plucky fight.

Late Mrs. Amanda Gunn.

Mrs. Amanda Gunn passed away at the Hotel Dieu on Monday night after an illness extending over several months. She was born at Adolphustown, but resided in Kingston practically all her life. She was a lady of deep sympathies and was widely known and respected. There are no surviving children. Sheriff Hawley, a nephew, is a brother of the deceased, and the Misses Hawley, Bath, are sisters. The death occurred in Toronto on Saturday morning of Winifred, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ferguson. The deceased was four years old, and was a very bright and lovable child, and the life of the home. She had been ailing for some weeks, but despite all that medical aid could do, she passed away at 10.30 o'clock Saturday morning. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, who were former residents of Kingston.

Letters to the Editor

Ald. Peters Defends His Stand. Kingston, May 16.—(To the Editor): Replying to the Standard of Saturday in which Mr. Givens takes me to task for advocating an industrial commissioner in 1919, and not living up to it, the mountain has labored and brought forth from four columns three points which are all wrong.

First—That my memory is bad, having advocated the appointment of an industrial commissioner and during my candidature in 1919, and not living up to it. I remember distinctly the Citizens' platform of December, 1919. I remember having paid for my share of the advertisement in the Standard, and also being defeated at the polls, so that I was not a member of council in 1920, but I am pleased to remember that the industries committee and council carried out this platform in so far as the appointment of an industrial commissioner was concerned. I came back to council in 1922, and was appointed chairman of industries committee, and at the first meeting I asked this committee to seriously consider the question of the appointment of a full time, high salaried industrial commissioner, and they were unanimously unfavorable, and appointed Dr. Sands at a nominal salary. Who should know, these gentlemen of business ability and experience or an editor sitting in his office who thinks he has to write editorials—on every question regardless of whether he has the proper information or not?

Second—He has side-stepped the whole proposition put up to him by writing columns of stuff.

Third—He says I want to quarrel with him. This isn't true. Mr. Givens is a personal friend of mine and the Standard a political friend. I wrote in self-defence and of those associated with me, as the editor of the Standard was putting over, without consulting me, a lot of propaganda that was not right. It was to clear this up that I ventured a bit of newspaper notoriety, which I very much dislike. I am satisfied from the assurances I have that I have succeeded, and I trust I am through, and that this will be my last appearance.

Referring to the article on page 12 of Monday's Standard, written by Mr. Givens or for him, I would like to inform the Standard that I was not induced by anyone to write the letter of May 13th, and that my friends give me a different story as to which of us is fair and right than the one which is supposed to come to him from his friends. The working men also know I am always working for their interests.

In conclusion, this matter will be laid before a meeting of the industries committee this week, and the decision of this committee and council, as far as I am concerned, will be final.

—WM. P. PETERS, Chairman Industries Committee.

Don't Rub—Just Soak Your Clothes Clean

RINSO is fine granules of soap essence, scientifically and completely different from ordinary soap, flakes or washing powder. It should be used differently too—for instance, to get the best results, do not pour the Rinso granules into the tub from the package.

Make the wonderful Rinso liquid—first—take half a package of Rinso for each tub of clothes—stir it into a cream in a little cool water, add two quarts of boiling water, stir vigorously and put into the tub of cool or lukewarm water.

Put your clothes to soak for one hour, two hours, overnight, or as long as convenient in this rich Rinso suds, then just rinse thoroughly and the dirt runs away. Your clothes are ready for the line—snowy-white, clean and fresh.

If You Use a Washing Machine—follow the regular directions on the Rinso package and soak the clothes. Then before operating the machine, add fresh Rinso solution and proceed. No other preparation is needed when Rinso is used.
