SCHOOL CADET CORPS AND GIRL GUIDES AT CHURCH

Former Paraded to St. Luke's and the Guides to Chalmers.

The Kingston Public Schools Cadet Battalion, under the command of Major W. J. McManus, P.W.O.R., held their annual church parade on Sunday morning to St. Luke's church. There were about 200 of the cadets on parade and they presented a splendid appearance along their line of march. Leaving the armories at 10.30 a.m., the cadets marched up Princess to the church, and after the service a "March Past" was staged, with the salute being taken by Lt.-Col. G. H. Gillespie, I. C.S., at the corner of Princess and Albert streets. The boys were then dismissed. The drums of the P.W.O.R. accompanied the battalion.

The Rev. Mr. Wright took his text from Psalm XV, and spoke of the outstanding virtues that the cadets should acquire in order to build strong men and useful citizens. In this way they would be a credit to the empire. Those qualities which should be kept to the forefront are goodness, righteousness, truthfulness, sincerity and humility. The reward was well worth trying for, and character would be built, and the boy would become a man, and a blessing to mankind.

The church was prettily decorated with flowers, and special music was included in the service. George Graves rendered a solo. There was a good congregation, and after the service many complimentary remarks were heard concerning the appearance of the young cadets.

Girl Guides at Chalmers.
The Girl Guides units of the city attended service in Chalmers church on Sunday morning, accompanied by their officers and members of the committee of patronesses. There were 150 girls in the parade, all wearing the Guide uniform. Rev. Dr. R. J. Wilson gave an excellent address with regard to the objects of the Girl Guide movement, which aimed at forming character. Thirty years ago such a movement would have been impossible, said Dr. Wilson, but it would have been better for the country and the world if there had been a Girl Guide movement a generation ago. The next generation would feel the good effects, for thousands of young girls throughout Canada are today being trained for leadership. The movement was for the development of the body, the mind and the soul. Dr. Wilson remarked that in St. Luke's Anglican and Chalmers Presbyterian churches on Sunday morning the congregations were largely composed of young people under the age of sixteen years, the public school cadet corps having paraded to the former church. This was a very significant fact, he said.

KINGSTON PRESBYTERIAL

The Report of the Eighth Annual Meeting Held at Napanee.

The eighth annual meeting of the Kingston Presbyterial W.M.S. convened in St. Andrew's church, Napanee, last Thursday at 7.30 p.m. The executive met in the afternoon and transacted some preliminary business. At the evening meeting the minister of St. Andrew's, Rev. A. J. Wilson, presided and conducted the devotional exercises.

The minutes of last annual meeting and subsequent executive meeting were summarized and read by Miss M. H. Ross, recording secretary. Mrs. J. Gow, the corresponding secretary gave a summary of the year's work. Mrs. R. J. Diack, treasurer, gave a very full and interesting report showing the differences between last year's offerings and this year's. The total receipts were $480.86.

Miss Evelyn Mitchell, field secretary, Toronto, gave an interesting and comprehensive address on Home work, including school homes, hospitals, French work and work among the foreigners in Canada.

Miss Mowat gave a very full report of the annual meeting of the general council of the W.M.S. held in Gait last week.

Friday morning's session was given to the hearing of departmental reports and business, the president's address and a report of the Forward movement, with four new charters brought from the Gait meeting by Miss Mowat.

Friday afternoon, the question drawer was conducted by Miss Mitchell, who answered very fully the various questions asked. Mrs. Jackson, Kingston, brought in the report of the nomination committee. The president having decided to stand for re-election, Miss Mowat withdrew her name and moved the election of the president by acclamation. This was carried.

Mrs. J. G. Dunlop, Kingston, and Japan, gave a magnificent address on missions in Japan tracing the work from the first days of the Roman Catholic missionaries in the middle ages till today and reading a very remarkable article from a Japanese daily paper, received only a few days ago from Dr. Dunlop, comparing British and Japanese imperialism, religion and statesmanship to the advantage of the British. This was written by a Japanese and published in a Tokio paper, by the author and editor, showing much bravery by such action.

Mrs. J. A. MacLean, convener, gave the report of the resolutions committee. Several important resolutions were passed and one with reference to the Mormon menace in the immediate vicinity as well as in the Dominion at large, was ordered sent to the general assembly through the proper channels of the provincial and general council secretaries.

At the evening meeting, greetings were given by Mrs. Wilson, Trinity Methodist church, Mrs. Hooper, Grace Methodist church, and Mrs. Coleman for the diocesan board of the Anglican W. A., which had just finished the sessions of their annual meeting and also from St. Mary Magdalene church.

Miss Mitchell gave an address on Young People's Work and by special request, Mrs. Dunlop gave an all too short address on further aspects of work in Japan. A very successful meeting was brought to a close by Rev. A. J. Wilson pronouncing the benediction.

Everyone was loud in praise of the hospitality of the Napanee ladies, who treated the delegates royally in their homes, and provided regular banquets also to the choir and local soloists and to Miss Christine Diack, Kingston, for their music.
