MEETING OF LIBERALS ROCKWOOD NURSES LEAD

Delegates Are Appointed to Attend the Big Convention in Ottawa.

At a meeting of the Kingston Liberals held in the Golden Lion Block on Friday evening for the purpose of nominating delegates to the Eastern Ontario Liberal Convention to be held in Ottawa on June 7th, the following local men were named: J. M. Campbell, R. F. Elliott, M. Sullivan, Dr. A. W. Richardson, James Halliday, A. Atkins, Joseph Nash, James Tweddell, L. A. Guild, Dr. D. A. Volume, J. R. Forster, J. F. McDonald, Dr. A. E. Knapp, Ambrose Shea, B. N. Steacy, Dr. C. C. Nash, W. J. Fair, J. O. Hutton, George Derry, C. Otto, W. Peters.

There was a good attendance and Dr. C. C. Nash, president, occupied the chair. He outlined briefly the object of the Eastern Ontario convention and pointed out the desirability of Kingston being strongly represented. He reviewed the local political situation since the last elections and expressed the conviction that Liberalism in Kingston had increased in strength and that the policies of the King government were finding wider acceptance by men in all walks of life, as the benefits of the legislation carried forward during the present session of parliament became fully realized. The spirit of Liberalism predominated in Canada today and he predicted a few years of prosperity. At no time in the history of the country within the past twenty-five years has the Liberal party been faced with such great responsibilities and we can repose our utmost confidence in the wisdom and ability of the leaders of the party in the face of the worldwide conditions that have been referred to some extent in Canada.

"There is a rapid improvement dawning. This is shown in the money market, in the rise of the Canadian dollar to par and in the rapid recovery of sterling on the New York financial markets. We have to look forward to a big Canadian harvest this year, and granted this, we will see a vast improvement in business generally."

J. M. Campbell spoke briefly and saw many improvements in the local situation that were a cause for much gratification. "Kingston is not in such a bad way as some other cities with a large industrial population, and for every increase in activity we have cause to be thankful. We have to look to the gradual resumption of trade, said he, and be ready to take advantage of whatever offers. I know that some things we cannot hasten, but the policies of the government are calculated to give an acceleration to all lines of industry and commerce. Our railways have got to have freights and as the rolling stock and equipment reach the maximum demands and the wear and tear call for renewals, we may see orders placed for locomotives. But in the meantime we must wait. We have a new government and while it had to meet conditions that were abnormal in trade, in addition to the enormous indebtedness that necessitated the most stringent economies in administration, we have reason to look forward with confidence."

There was a general discussion of matters of political interest locally and a desire expressed for more frequent meetings. The suggestion was well received and, upon the return of the delegates from the convention at Ottawa a meeting will be called to hear reports.

A full delegation from the Kingston Women's Liberal Club has been appointed and ten or more will go to Ottawa.

Things You Should Know About Chautauqua

Eleven double programmes make up this big six-day event without counting the Junior Chautauqua features. The purchase of a season ticket reduces the cost of admission more than one-half, giving you the world's best music, lectures and entertainment at moving-picture prices.

The season tickets cost $2.50. Junior tickets, admitting children 6 to 14 years of age to the Junior Chautauqua, as well as all sessions of the Senior Chautauqua, cost $1.25. Both are subject to the war tax.

The name of some member of the purchaser's family must be written in ink upon the season ticket. This protects the purchaser in case of loss.

In case you forget to bring your ticket, go to the cashier, buy a single admission ticket, take a receipt for same, bring your season ticket to the cashier at the next session, and also the receipt, and the cashier will refund the money paid for the single admission.

No season tickets will be sold after the Chautauqua opens.

In order that elderly folks and those whose hearing is impaired may enjoy the programme the first two rows of chairs will be set apart for their use at each performance. Children will be required to be seated with parents or guardians.

It saves to buy a season ticket. Chautauqua will visit Kingston on the week of July 1st to 7th. Full particulars later.
