Invaded by Germans.
Mrs. Joseph, of Montreal, speaking at a women's political meeting, quoted a case from Kingston, her home town, to show the manner in which the Canadian industrial market had been invaded by Germans. The locomotive works there had tendered for some work at cost prices so as to get the plant going, and the tender had been almost accepted when a German offer had been received at 18 per cent ton, and the order went to Germany, and 900 Canadians were out of work.

Was on the Potomac.
Referring to the despatch from Washington to the British Whig, on Friday last, telling of the arrival of British warships in the Potomac river on that day, and stating that not since 1814 had a British warship been there, John W. Marsh, who resides at 64 Elm street, states that a British warship was in the Potomac in 1862. Mr. Marsh was a first-class boy on the frigate Immortalite sent to America in the "Trent affair" to demand the delivery of Mason and Stidel, Confederate commissioners.

She was a war frigate carrying fifty-one guns and the first vessel in the British navy to be armed with rifle guns. Her mission was successful and Mason and Stidel were handed over at Providence. Mr. Marsh served seven years in the navy and upon finishing his service came to Canada to live and has resided here ever since.

Presentation of Picture.
The session of the Bible school at the conference church, Sunday, was an open one and was marked by the presentation of a picture of the late Rev. James Elliott, D.D., a former pastor of the church, by Rev. S. D.
Chown, D.D., LL.D., and an address on missions in China by Rev. R. B.
McAmmond. Dr. Chown in making the presentation of the picture, which was one of his own collection, stated that it was through Dr. Elliott's ministry that he had been influenced to take up the Methodist ministry as his life work. T. Mills and Dr. W. G. Anglin also spoke referring to pastorate of the late Dr. Elliott some forty-five years ago. The picture was given in memory of the late Abraham Shaw.
Rev. McAmmond brought a live message from China and, illustrated by slides, told of the great work being done in China in the advancing of the Kingdom. T. F. Harrison, Cobourg, for many years superintendent of the school also spoke and congratulated the school on its success and its choice of C. S. Anglin as superintendent.
