SAID HE COULD NEVER BE WELL

"Fruit-a-tives" Restored Him to Health

159 AVENUE PINE IX, MONTREAL
"For three years, I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and my general health was very bad. I consulted a physician and took his medicine but I did not improve; and finally he told me that I could not be cured.
At this time, a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". After taking two boxes, I was greatly relieved; and this fruit medicine made me completely well. My digestion and general health are now splendid."

Skin Eruptions
Are Usually Due to Constipation
When you are constipated, there is not enough lubricant produced by your system to keep the food waste soft. Doctors prescribe Nujol because its action is so close to this natural lubricant. Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe. Try it today.

"BATESCOURT" CLOSING.

A Splendid Programme was Given by the Children.
The closing exercises of "Batescourt," Saturday afternoon, attracted many parents of the children in attendance as well as other friends of the school who at the conclusion of the afternoon warmly congratulated both scholars and their director on the fine entertainment given. The programme of songs, recitations and a play, in every detail, displayed the excellent training of the children by Miss A. H. Bates and her staff. Dean Starr who acted as chairman gave a short address in which he congratulated the school on the excellence of the varied exhibition of the afternoon particularly complimenting Miss Bates on the fine choruses rendered by the entire school.

The programme included five songs by the school, recitations by Kathleen Carruthers, Elizabeth Young, Lorene Lockett, Constance Grant, Marion Sawyer, Mary Hora, and a recitation in chorus. The play entitled "Advertising for a Servant" depicted the trials of a Mr. and Mrs. Bray (Lorene Lockett and Mary Hora) who received many applicants for the position. These parts were taken by Jane Waddell, Elizabeth Young, Constance Grant, Marion Sawyer and Royal Jeffreys. The acting of the children showed a fine appreciation of their parts and kept the audience in merriment.

The following were the winners of the prizes which were presented by Dean Starr: For general proficiency, senior third, Mary Hora; junior third, Kathleen Carruthers; second class, Constance Grant; first class, Billie Day; primer, Madalin Carruthers. The prize for good conduct and regular attendance was won by Constance Grant.

The sewing was judged by Mrs. Breck and the prizes awarded as follows: Dolls clothes, senior class, prize by Miss Hora, won by Mary Hora; dolls clothes, junior class, prize by Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, won by Lorene Lockett; lap bags, prize by Mrs. Waddell, won by Madeline Carruthers; handkerchiefs, won by Geraldine Howard. The prize in drawing was won by Mary Hora, Miss Fraser doing the judging.

Observation Boat Blown Up.
At Alexandria Bay on June 16th the Lollie, $5,000 observation boat owned by Capt. Samuel Massey, was blown up. The owner seriously injured when gasoline in the craft exploded. The transom of the boat was blown 100 feet. The force of the explosion was so great that windows through the village rattled. The boat was forty feet in length and had a capacity of eighteen passengers. It was used in connection with the St. Lawrence Hotel of which Captain Massey is owner. Captain Massey was taken to his home where he received medical attention. His condition is satisfactory. No insurance was carried on the boat.

Born at Westport.
Charles E. Forrester, aged eighty years, who was for years caretaker of the All Souls church and janitor in the various schools of Watertown, N.Y., passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Crosby late Thursday afternoon. Mr. Forrester had been in ill-health during the past winter. Mr. Forrester was born in Westport, Ont., son of Daniel and Anna Forrester and spent his early life there obtaining his education and marrying in that same place. When he was a young man he moved to the United States.

To Raise Funds.
Rev. Mr. Lyons, Lys, has been sent to Merrickville by Bishop Bidwell as a commissioner in connection with the funds of the parish. He is making a canvass for more liberal contributions and is meeting with a good response.

order of relatives who are said to reside in Missouri.

When Ontario Began.
Adolphustown is probably little known to most people outside its own region, yet 133 years ago on Friday last, the United Empire Loyalists landed there, on the shores of the Bay of Quinte, and laid the foundations for the province of Ontario.

Quite a Surprise.
"I signed that petition asking the city council to pass a bylaw requiring that grocery stores close on Wednesday afternoons," said a grocer, "but I never expected the council would accede to the request. I am in favor of a weekly half-holiday, but do not like the idea of coercion."

Disapproves the Practice.
J. M. Campbell, speaking as one of the Kingston manufacturers, expresses disapproval of the practice of juggling with the national holidays. "It would be far better," said he, "if these holidays were fittingly celebrated on the days proclaimed because of the patriotic sentiments expressed. We cannot afford to slight these manufacturers, in common with other manufacturers, I urge the observance on the proper days."

Prison and Lashes.
Ernest Martin, Amherstburg, will receive twenty lashes when he enters Portsmouth penitentiary, Tuesday, and twenty more ten years hence, when he is released, according to the sentence County Judge Coughlin at Sandwich pronounced on the 23-year-old prisoner. Martin was found guilty by a jury of being one of the four youths who on August 7th last brutally beat Henry Kile, 65 years old, a farmer of Colchester South township.

Are Proud of Him.
The Napanee Beaver says: The many friends of J. H. Lohead, Kingston, extend their heartiest congratulations, he having successfully passed with honors the recent fourth year examinations in medicine at Queen's University. Harold is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lohead, formerly of Newburgh, and is one more of the old N. H. S. graduates who are making good, and we wish him every success in the future.

Kiwanian Delegates.
