CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES

Held in Several Churches Sunday—The Floral Displays Were Fine.

The annual flower service of the Bible school was observed at the morning service in Sydenham street church, Sunday, by an appropriate programme. The front of the church was tastefully decorated by the Chinese department of the school and in the centre of the rear of the platform was a picture of the late Abraham Shaw a former superintendent and later associate superintendent of the school, banked in peonies. Above the organ the theme of the service, "God is Love," was shown in letters of gold on an evergreen framework, in keeping with the evergreen scheme of decorations. Other June blossoms in abundance decorated the platform.

A feature of the programme was the presentation of handmaiden bouquets to the three oldest members of the school (through the home department) Mrs. M. A. Asselstine, the oldest member of the school, who on Sunday celebrated her 98th birthday; Mrs. C. Bennett, the oldest member present; and Mrs. J. Gardner, who has been longest on the rolls of the school.

The programme included the children's welcome by Doris and Dorothy Card; the cradle roll report by Miss Ruth Lyons; an exercise by Miss Dora Aney assisted by the following members of the beginners department—Doris Anglin, Billy Crothers, Helen Turner, Doris Turner, Gordon McLeod, Winifred Ferguson, Nora Day, and Donald Wilder; a solo by Norine Franklin; an exercise, "Golden Glove," by the following members of the primary department—Mary Wilder, Lillian Derry, Betty Crothers, Edna Pound, Grace Singleton, Catherine Crothers, Pearl McQueen, Doris Elmer, Thadine Hartman, and Florence Hewitt; a song, "Life's Railroad" by the junior boys and girls—Alwin Graham, Edna Gerardi, Alice Singleton, Ruth Boom, Ellis Miller, Reid McLeod and Lyndon Hagerman. Rev. R. H. Bell, D.D., pastor of the church and C. S. Anglin, superintendent of the school, gave short addresses, the former impressing on the minds of his hearers the comparison which may be made between flower gardens and gardens in the children's hearts.

A splendid exercise by the second year secondary department girls, "Medical Prescriptions," was given by Gladys Smith assisted by Margaret Wightman, Doris Allen, Jean Dunlop, Bessele Ettinger, Mina Cook, Evelyn Ford, Margaret McCreat, Marjory Corwell, Helen Hurd, Eva Manahan, Ethel Horsefall, Jessie Orr and Helen Tweddell. The junior girls, Agnes Ward, Catherine Prager, Ruth Lightall, Bertha Gerardi, Doris Pound, Maurice Moffat, Jane Manahan and Marjory Hurd gave the exercises, "A June Tribute." An exercise by the first year secondary department pupils was also well rendered, the following taking part: Violet Hagerman, Marie Goswell, Edith Ashley, Marjory Ferguson, Myrtle McQueen, Beulah Hawkey, Isobel Simpson, C. Crothers, Louis Best and Tommy Tweddell. Recitations by Patricia Rowland and Leslie Jolliffe were also well given. The choir of senior girls gave a chorus, Misses Violet Anglin, Roberta Vince and Bessie Williams taking the solo parts. The home department report was given by Mrs. W. W. Chown. Ernest Madrand was organist, and E. P. Jenkins offered the opening prayer.

During the service a member of the Chinese department and two children were baptized by the pastor. The scholars of the church occupied the centre of the church and had as their guests, the children from the Orphans' home. The programme committee was Miss I. E. Garbutt, convenor, Miss L. Saunders and the teachers of the school. R. H. Ward, superintendent of the Chinese department was chairman of the decorating committee. A very large congregation was in attendance at the service and a collection for the Sunday school was taken.

At Princess Street Church. Princess street Sunday school held its annual children's day service in the church Sunday morning, a very large crowd being in attendance. The church was beautifully decorated for the service by a committee under the direction of Miss F. Peters and W. E. Connolly and presented a bright appearance. The scholars of the school which is at the present time, the largest in its history, occupied the body of the church. A splendid programme of songs, choruses and recitations was given by the children and addresses by C. A. Shaver and Rev. J. A. Waddell; pastor of the church; Miss E. Wilder, superintendent of the school presided.

The programme included a welcome song by the primary children; recitations by Lorraine Potter, Jack Brass and Mildred Wood; solos by Geraldine Isbell, and Wilma Connolly; choruses by the primary and junior children; a dialogue entitled "Rosebuds" by Edith Culcheth, Edith Purcell, Jean Harpell and Dorothy Caverly; and the dialogue "Bible Treasures" by Aleda Herblison, Mary Pomfret, Mabel Waddell, Mary McKeever, Vera Cliff, Edith Alexander, Melville Highland, Jack Peters and Nellis Timmerman.

Mr. Shaver gave a splendid address advising the children to seek for the treasures which are to be found in the Bible. The presentation of cradle roll and primary certificates was also a pleasing part of the exercises. Miss E. Peters, superintendent of the cradle roll, which now has eighty-two members made the presentation.

The scholars conveyed their best wishes and greetings to Rev. W. K. Shortt and Mrs. E. Harding, the oldest scholars, in bouquets and a welcome from the school, which stood up and greeted these oldest members with "We Love You." The offering of the morning will be used for sending flowers to the sick while the ladies' Bible class birthday contributions will go to missions.

At Bethel Church. Bethel church was beautifully decorated Sunday for the annual Children's day service which was held by the Sunday school at the morning service.

The superintendent, W. Bruce, presided at the service which consisted of an address by the pastor, A. S. Duncan, and a programme of exercises, recitations and solos by the scholars. The numbers were splendidly rendered and a large audience of friends attended.

The programme included the address of welcome by the superintendent, a solo and chorus, "Rosebuds" by the primary class assisting Sylvia Watson; chorus by the primary, "I Love Him" Jack Pullen, taking the solo part; and a chorus "Summer Bells" by Miss Flitz's and Miss Lake's class; solos were rendered by William Clenehan, Jean Montgomery, Donald Bruce, Lois Fowler, Jean Wilson, Miss Jennie Wilson and A. Williams. The programme also included recitations by Francis Haunts, and Marjorie Smith; vocal duets by Allan Duncan and Gordon Clenehan, and Mrs. Watson and Miss L. Wilson, and a piano duet by Miss Lake and Miss Duncan; and exercises by Miss Lake's class and Miss Flitz's class. F. J. Wilson, associate superintendent of the school, also gave a short address.

CHAUTAUQUA PRAISED BY AGNES LAUT. Publicist Publishes Article About Dominion Chautauquas in MacLean's.

"The Chautauqua is an absolutely open forum," declares Miss Agnes C. Laut in June 15th, 1922, issue of "MacLean's Magazine" in the course of a two-page article in which she tells many amusing experiences while lecturing on one of the western circuits of the Dominion Chautauqua last summer.

"Chautauqua stands for no class, creed, race," continues Miss Laut. "It is open to all classes, all creeds, all races, if they have a message in voice, story, lecture, play, music which will help, inform, instruct, enlighten, entertain the hearers. It stands for no special propaganda, and yet for all propaganda that will help the race. Its key-note is joy and its motive is inspiration, whether through a wholesome laugh, new facts, new light on facts, or pure entertainment; but entertaining the inspiration must be, and inspirational the entertaining must be."

"In the Chautauqua money is not the motive. Chautauqua has never been a money maker." It is reported from authoritative sources that more Chautauquas will be held in Canada this summer than ever before, and all indications are that a large number of people will attend, so popular has become this form of entertainment, which is just a bit more than mere entertainment.

The Ontario Chautauquas opened at Niagara Falls, Monday, June 19th, and will continue throughout the summer until late August; more than one hundred towns and cities in the province will be served with a slide or a four-day programme. More than 100,000 Ontario people will attend.

Chautauqua will be in Kingston during the week of Saturday, July 1st, to Friday, July 7th, at the cricket field. Tickets are now on sale at Best's drug store, Costes' jewellery store, Abernethy's shoe store, C. W. Lindsay, Ltd., British Whig office and other places.

Hope for Hot Weather. The school children, to say nothing of many of the teachers, are hoping for hot weather at the close of next week so that the board of management may close the classes on the 23rd instead of the 29th.

Travelling Musicians.

A band of travelling musicians arrived in the city on Saturday morning and wanted permission to play on the streets. They produced credentials to show that they were Hollanders, and were granted permission to play. There was plenty of music on the down town streets on Saturday, as in addition to these travelling musicians a young man with a flute held forth.

Do Your Ears Buzz? Have You Headaches?

When your ears ring, your head aches, and you seem slightly hard of hearing, beware of Catarrh. Mr. J. A. Hammill writing from Greenmount, P. I., was similarly troubled, and writes: "No one could have worse Catarrh than I had for years. It caused partial deafness, bad taste, upset my stomach, made me sick all over. 'Catarrhosone' cleared my nostrils, stopped the cough and gave me a clear feeling in my breathing organs. I am now absolutely well, thanks to 'Catarrhosone.' Nothing so certain as a Catarrhosone Inhaler to strengthen a weak throat, to rid you of Bronchitis, to drive out Catarrh, coughs and colds. Sold everywhere, 25c, 50c., and one dollar for complete two months' treatment. Dealers, The Catarrhosone Co., of Montreal.
