PLEA MADE FOR MAGAZINES

By H. C. Hocken—Canadian Magazines Require More Encouragement.

Ottawa, June 19.—Hardships and difficulties encountered by Canadian magazines were described in the House of Commons yesterday, when the Budget resolutions were being considered. The tariff calls for a cut on coated paper, and it was this item that started the discussion. H. C. Hocken said Canadian magazines should get more encouragement and help. It was very difficult to start magazines in competition with the tremendous publishing done in the United States of weekly and monthly papers. Thousands of dollars, he said, had been lost in Canada by men who started them with purely patriotic motives. Mr. Hocken also pointed out the effect on the national life of Canada if Canadian readers were to be supplied all the time with United States publications only. He thought there should be some impost on the finished product from the United States.

G. W. Kyle said that Mr. Hocken was such a strong protectionist that he now wanted the country's literature protected. If there should be freedom in anything, thought Mr. Kyle, it should be in the reading of the people. The public should not be penalized because of the failure of Canadians to keep magazines going.

Robert Forke (Brandon) said that, while he was not protectionist, he had much sympathy with the argument put up by Mr. Hocken. He contended that too much literature from the United States was read in Canada. Much of it might be all right, but most of it was written from the wrong viewpoint for Canadians. Writers in Canada who showed talent were usually lost to Canada because they could get more money in the United States and went there to pursue their calling. "I think that United States literature is more dangerous to our national ideals than United States agricultural implements," said Mr. Forke, and the House laughed.

Sir Henry Drayton read a letter from the Magazine Publishers' Association which said that if they were not afforded protection they might arrange to print in the United States and have the magazines sent back again. Sir Henry Drayton thought the publishers had good reason to complain. The spirit of the nation, he said, depended largely on its literature. As there was a duty on advertising matter entering Canada, why could not the government extend it to magazines, which in a great many cases were at least half advertising?

Mr. Fielding admitted that there were wrongs. Mr. Hocken suggested using the anti-dumping law on them. He pointed out that one United States publication had a circulation in Canada of 100,000 a year, and yet Canadian advertisers could not use it because if they did they had to pay for the full circulation of the paper, which was nearly two million. Mr. Crerar suggested that to help the publishers the duty should be taken off paper altogether. Mr. Fielding thought something might be accomplished and the matter was not pressed further.

Farm Help Scarce

Peterboro, June 20.—Although there are large numbers of men out of work in the city, farmers complain that they cannot get help locally. Wages offered range from $30 to $40 a month. The building trades are experiencing much activity hereabouts, but the industrial situation shows little change.

Fire losses in Canada during the week ended June 14th are estimated by the Monetary Times at $24,350, compared with $530,400 the previous week.

It is said the general elections in Manitoba will be on July 18th.

TRAIN WAS ROBBED BY TWO PASSENGERS

American Express - Officials Checking Up Loss on N. Y.C. Flyer.

Monessen, Pa., June 20.—American Express officials are checking the loss caused by two masked robbers who looted the express car of the New York Central flyer from Fairmont, W.V., to Pittsburg near here Sunday. The bandits carried out their work coolly as though it has been well planned. They were passengers. Near here the men left the smoking car and went to the platform, where they donned masks then with drawn revolvers entered the express car. While one stood with gun ready, his pal trussed up and gagged Axel Hicks, the express messenger, and Michael Amber, baggage master. The messenger's keys were taken from his pocket, the car safe opened, and the contents stolen. Everything of value that was portable in the car was taken. When the train slowed down the two robbers jumped off and entered an automobile waiting by the track, manned by two confederates. The quartette made a quick escape.

ONLY ADDRESS GIVEN AT THIS FUNERAL

No Service, No Music, No Hymns at Cremation in Montreal.

Montreal, June 20.—A simple ceremony, at which about forty intimate friends gathered, marked the funeral of the late Walter Vaughan, former secretary and bursar of McGill University, here, on Saturday. In deference to the wishes of the deceased, there was no service, no music, no hymns, no ritual of any kind only an address by Prof. MacNaughton, of the University of Toronto.

Prof. MacNaughton, in a brief address, and standing beside the open casket, eulogized the deceased's love and truth, his good will and kindness, and his courage which supported him even in the face of the black facts of death, that had challenged him for so long.

Following the address the remains were conveyed to the Mount Royal Crematorium where the body was cremated, in keeping with the request of the deceased.

"I seldom have the least trouble in giving a perfect fit," said George VanHorne, of the Semi-ready store, on Princess Street.

F. McGraw, Quebec City, who it at present locating the sites of the several towers necessary for this class of work. These towers will be placed 25 miles apart at points where the vision from one to the other is not obstructed.

Also, one of the eleven fire towers which the provincial government is building throughout the province has just been completed at Mount St. Patrick, in this county, some 20 miles south of Renfrew.

Armenian Music Is To Be Made Joyous

Constantinople, June 20.—A radical change in the national music of the Armenian people is being planned by the native teachers who are in charge of the educational work of the orphanages in the Armenian Soviet Republic. Many generations of suppression and persecution have left an indelible impress on the popular music and folk songs of the Armenian people. The native dances, poems and plays are all in a distinctly minor key, which is bound to have a depressing effect on the youth of the country. But with the dawn of a new freedom, this note of sadness is to be changed, so far as possible, into a spirit of inspiration and enthusiasm.
