What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

Allen, Starting To-morrow A rousing adventure melordrama is Gouverneur Morris' new photoplay, produced by Goldwyn. "Yellow Men and Gold," which comes to the Allen theatre for three days, beginning to-morrow. It possess much of the romantic and adventurous charm that made Stevenson's "Treasure island" a classic and which has made Mr. Morris' novel, from which the photoplay was adapted, so popular with the reading public. The action starts in Los Angeles and rapidly shifts to two ships which are headed for an island in the South Seas. where a Spanish galleon, laden with treasure, was sunk three hundred years ago. There are some sharp encounters between the officers and crews of the two rival bands of treasure seekers, and two of the greatest single-handed conflicts ever shown upon the screen. The picture was directed for Goldwyn by Irvin Willat. The cast is one of the strong- The Judge Did Not Consider The above is the grouping of the ene Chadwick and Richard Dix, who have appeared together in several previous Goldwyn pictures, are featured in the leading roles of this Carroll and R.
