

CRAPS TO CRICKET

SPORTING

RUMMY TO RUGBY

NEWS

BADMINTON TO BOXING

RETAILERS WIN FIRST ENGAGEMENT

Capture Printers' Colors After Successful Counter-Attack on City Park Ridge.

Gosh all hemlock and goodness gracious ten times over, but this is indeed sad news! The blow has fallen, the truth will out—and nine Printers are still alive to tell the gruesome details.

Weaver had trouble with the battery lines of communication. wiped out. The few survivors retired to their dug-outs. Casualty list later.

In spite of the mad rush for details of the engagement, and various confusing rumors trickling from the theatre of war, the above concise report has been received from our special correspondent. Just how the disaster happened, and the other minor details, such as the bravery of our gallant men under fire, will be left to the imagination of the "peepul."

Comiskey has signed on J. Lee Willard, a 21-year-old recruit from the Colorado School of Mines.

In spite of his "erratic" style, Joe Kirkwood is making a great old bid for the British open golf championship.

Latest dope: Dandelion wine and extract of wild strawberry.

The Old Fan returns to the limelight by remarking that the citizens of Kingston are behind the Mercantile league to the limit.

Secretary David Roy of the Dominion soccer governing body has announced that the Corinthian soccer team, which had anticipated visiting Canada this summer, would be unable to make the trip.

White men in the British colony of Hongkong are unable to compete successfully in tennis with the Chinese, who in recent years have made great strides in the game.

The Victoria Times of the 12th inst. contains an account of the international gold championship matches played on the links of the Victoria Golf Club during the week of June 5th to 10th.

Dr. Barrett is a former Kingstonian, a brother of Major E. C. Barrett, Barriefield, and now a practising physician at Victoria.

There will be no Canadian tour by the Corinthians this summer. In announcing the fact from Winnipeg, Secretary Roy of the D.F.A., states that the Oxford members of the famous amateur team have undertaken a trip through Sweden in September, and without their services a tour of the Dominion would be impossible.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

experts" who dispute the decisions of the umpire and criticize players during the games on the Cricket Field, and "holier" on every occasion where a close play occurs. Perhaps, if they were asked to demonstrate their opinions by getting into the game, they would be absolutely tongue-tied in the future.

That there will be a senior city baseball league in Kingston in 1923 is almost a certainty. "Ain't it a grand and glorious feelin'?"

In old New York—The fans are dippy, for the money-bag Of John McGraw has bought another flag—

"Develop players?" Why, what is the use? The Giant ball club is the golden goose—

What other city has the slightest chance Against the wallet and the high finance In old New York?

Great newspaper story! Fresh herring caught in Kingston harbor for the first time in history! What a fizzle, what we remember how many we caught with pins and strings, every year since we started to run alone.

Up at Stella, Amherst Island, they have a new fair grounds with a baseball diamond laid out on it and a snappy little team practising every evening.

Comiskey has signed on J. Lee Willard, a 21-year-old recruit from the Colorado School of Mines.

In spite of his "erratic" style, Joe Kirkwood is making a great old bid for the British open golf championship.

Latest dope: Dandelion wine and extract of wild strawberry.

The Old Fan returns to the limelight by remarking that the citizens of Kingston are behind the Mercantile league to the limit.

Secretary David Roy of the Dominion soccer governing body has announced that the Corinthian soccer team, which had anticipated visiting Canada this summer, would be unable to make the trip.

White men in the British colony of Hongkong are unable to compete successfully in tennis with the Chinese, who in recent years have made great strides in the game.

The Victoria Times of the 12th inst. contains an account of the international gold championship matches played on the links of the Victoria Golf Club during the week of June 5th to 10th.

Dr. Barrett is a former Kingstonian, a brother of Major E. C. Barrett, Barriefield, and now a practising physician at Victoria.

There will be no Canadian tour by the Corinthians this summer. In announcing the fact from Winnipeg, Secretary Roy of the D.F.A., states that the Oxford members of the famous amateur team have undertaken a trip through Sweden in September, and without their services a tour of the Dominion would be impossible.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

"THEM DAYS IS GONE FOREVER"

You not only read it, you sing it. Try it on your piano. Watch nightly for this big comic hit.

CONTRACT THIS ON YOUR CORNET.

BRITISH TENNIS MEN

BEATEN BY CHINESE

White men in the British colony of Hongkong are unable to compete successfully in tennis with the Chinese, who in recent years have made great strides in the game.

DR. W. T. BARRETT'S SUCCESS.

Dr. Barrett is a former Kingstonian, a brother of Major E. C. Barrett, Barriefield, and now a practising physician at Victoria.

BOUGHT FINE PONY.

A record price for a saddle pony in this country was established Saturday, when Clover Nipper, sensation of all the outdoor shows in America and the property of S. Christopher C. Bradley III, Syracuse, N.Y., was sold through Arthur Hopkins to Marion Babcock, Toronto, for $3,500.

Corinthians Tour is Off.

There will be no Canadian tour by the Corinthians this summer. In announcing the fact from Winnipeg, Secretary Roy of the D.F.A., states that the Oxford members of the famous amateur team have undertaken a trip through Sweden in September, and without their services a tour of the Dominion would be impossible.

Toronto Lady Secures One of Best in America.

A record price for a saddle pony in this country was established Saturday, when Clover Nipper, sensation of all the outdoor shows in America and the property of S. Christopher C. Bradley III, Syracuse, N.Y., was sold through Arthur Hopkins to Marion Babcock, Toronto, for $3,500.

He May Come Back.

John White, famous lacrosse player, and a former member of the Toronto Tecumsehs, has probably played his last lacrosse. The veteran, now with Cornwall, fell during the last period of Saturday's game at the Factory Town with Ottawa and suffered a broken leg.

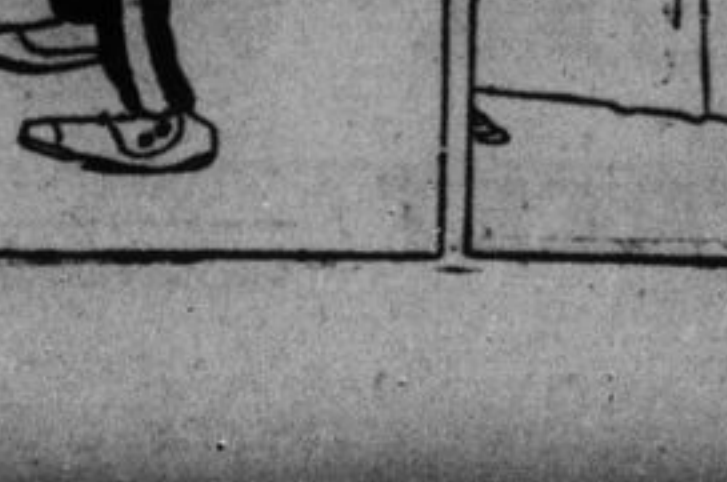

CAPE VINCENT WINS, 1 TO 0.

In one of the best baseball games ever played Cape Vincent broke their losing streak and shut out the Wolfe Islanders, 1 to 0, at the Cape Vincent fairgrounds, Sunday.

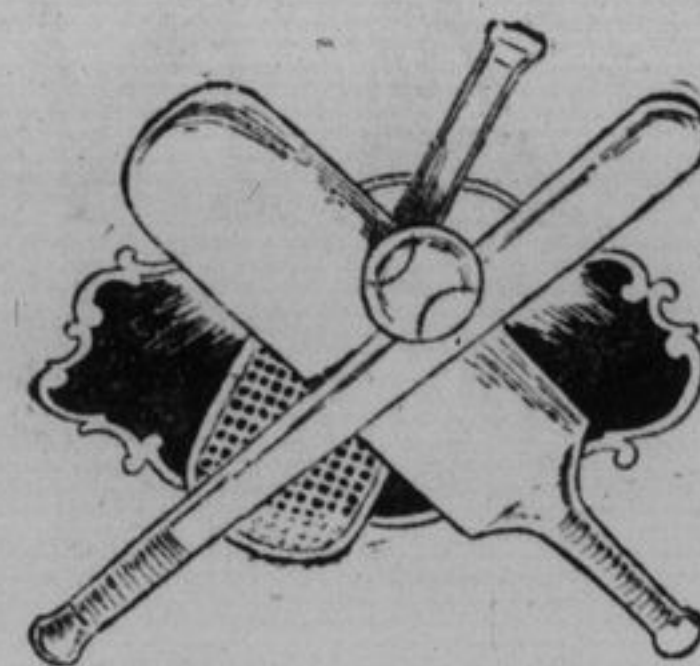

River Town Team Shuts Out Wolfe Island.

In one of the best baseball games ever played Cape Vincent broke their losing streak and shut out the Wolfe Islanders, 1 to 0, at the Cape Vincent fairgrounds, Sunday.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Out Door Sports

TENNIS RACKETS

We have the finest stock of Tennis Rackets ever shown in Kingston—JACQUES ENGLISH RACKETS have arrived. "Nuff Sed." The kind that the English champions use.

SPAULDING Famous Rackets and others at lower prices. PLAY GROUND BALLS—instead of using the hard Baseballs for your picnic, use the large, soft, Play Ground Balls. Everything in Sporting Goods.

TREADGOLD SPORTING GOODS CO.

BICYCLES—RECORDS—PHONOGRAPHS—CAMERAS 88 PRINCESS STREET PHONE 529

DAVINO and DAVENPORTS

KROEHLER DAVEN-O

Special prices ..... $28.00 to $125.00 Extension Couches worth $18.00, for $14.00

ROBT. J. REID

LEADING UNDERTAKER 230 Princess Street. Ambulance Call 577w.

Mrs. Dunn retain Tris Speaker as manager of the team, and that E. S. Barnard be elected to serve as president of the club.

MACDONALD'S BRIER

The Tobacco with a heart

PACKAGES 15¢

1/2 lb. TIN 85¢

BY GEORGE McMANUS

© 1922 by INTL. FEATURE SERVICE, INC.

LITTLE BITS.

The heavy rain which arrived around the noon-hour yesterday almost spoiled the prospects for baseball in the evening, but the Printers and Retailers were not discouraged that easily.

The suggestion for a Mercantile Field Day is meeting with enthusiastic support among the players and fans of the league, and the event should be a decided success.

If those "would-be fans" who dispute the decisions of the umpire and question the ability of players. There are one or two "would-be