THE COUNTY TAX RATE FIXED AT ELEVEN MILLS

Council Adopts Budget—The Educational Needs of North Frontenac.

The county council adopted its budget at the Thursday morning session. The budget was presented by Dr. William Spankie, chairman of the finance committee, who explained that it had been necessary to fix the tax rate for 1922 at eleven mills, or half a mill more than the past two years owing to the increased demands of education, over which the council had not control.

Councillor Clark thought that the council might effect a little saving by reducing the allowance for members from eight to five dollars. The Hastings, Addington and Leeds county councillors were paid only five dollars a day. The ratepayers in Frontenac were heavily taxed, he said, and he knew that a good many simply could not meet their taxes this year. A little relief would be welcome.

Councillor Storms took the view that the members' allowance was not too much. All of them were out of pocket as the result of attending council sessions. Councillor Guthrie was of the same opinion. He would be willing to reduce the allowance to $6 a day, but this would not cover the members' expenses in serving the people.

Dr. Spankie pointed out that the Ontario legislature fixed eight dollars as the county council members' pay while in session. There were many other days throughout the year when the councillors did business but received no pay therefor.

Councillor Taylor remarked that the members were paid only for the days they sat in council. He would vote for $6 a day, but all the same he regarded $8 as not too much.

The council made no change in the sessional allowance, the majority being of opinion that it was all right to accept what the legislature of the province allowed.

Councillors Clark and Sibbitt asked that the council assume the legal expenses of $200, charged to Kingston and Pittsburgh townships in connection with the hearing last autumn concerning the provincial highway before the Ontario municipal board. The case was forced upon the townships by the county, and they did not think their municipalities should have to pay the cost of engaging lawyers. This matter was referred to the finance committee.

On motion of Councillors Clark and Gemmill the budget as presented was adopted. The budget is as follows:

WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL

A Garden Party Held on Wednesday Night. Most successful in spite of the dull weather was the garden party held in the grounds of John Ryder, Patrick street, on Wednesday evening, by the Sewing Circle of St. George's Mission. Mrs. Wolfe, the president, and the Misses Ryder, received the guests in the garden, beautifully decorated with flags, and soon everyone was busy buying the good things to eat and to wear at the tables, set under the trees. At the home-made table, Mrs. J. Delph, Mrs. Cockburn and Mrs. W. Fraser were soon sold out, and across the lawn Mrs. Friezel, Mrs. W. Phillips, Mrs. Kay, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Anderson, sold fancy work that was most attractive. Ice cream was in high favor, and the little tables set in the grounds were surrounded and several fresh supplies had to be sent for. Here Mrs. C. H. Fenning, Mrs. N. Newell, and Miss Hilda Fenning were in charge. "The Conservative Five" played delightfully and added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. The young men who so kindly gave their services in a good cause and who are splendid musicians, were E. Vandewalker, Ronald Alcorn, Nelson Routhard, C. Newton and T. Wood. The results were satisfactory and will be used to carry on the good work done in the northern part of the city, by St. George's Mission.

Was Graduate of Queen's. William John Kidd, B.A., K.C., deputy magistrate of the Ottawa police court, for the past four years, died at his home in Ottawa, on Wednesday. Deceased, who was in his sixty-third year, graduated from Queen's University in arts, in 1887.
