Kingston and Vicinity

Haying Started.
Haying operations have started in parts of the surrounding district, but this work will be held up for some time now as a result of the rains.

Shorten the Sessions.
A Kingston township resident says he would not favor reducing the county councillors' allowance, but he would save money by shortening the session to three days.

The Barn Was Saved.
William Jerome's barn near New Dublin, Leeds county, was struck by lightning during a severe electric storm, but ready assistance succeeded in extinguishing the fire.

Good Store Tales.
The store ads are good store tales, and if you are interested, be the heroine and follow the tale to the end. Go a shopping and see the things that were advertised.

Veterans Buy Home.
The Great War Veterans of Belleville have just purchased the Hub block, a three-story building, from D. R. Leavens, and will transform it into a memorial home for veterans.

Engagement Announced.
The engagement is announced of Hazel J. Hubbell, B.A., daughter of Mrs. Hubbell and the late W. H. Hubbell, Smith's Falls, to George A. Bonney, B.A., Saskatoon, the marriage to take place in July.

Retires from Service.
Col. A. T. Oglvie, D.S.O., brother of Lorne C. Oglvie, and Miss Oglvie of "Glenora Park," Brockville, who has been officer commanding military district No. 7 at St. John, N.B., is retiring from the permanent force to reside in Victoria, B.C.

Left For Mimico.
Phillip Horton, accountant at the Brockville branch of the Bank of Montreal, has left on the steamer Kingston en route to Mimico to become manager of the Bank of Montreal branch at that place. He is succeeded by W. L. Covert, Montreal.

On A Pleasant Outing.
Miss Elsie Woodcock, one of Napoleon's most popular young ladies, is at present enjoying a trip to different points in the land of Uncle Sam. She will visit friends at Syracuse, Utica, Old Forge, Adirondacks and possibly New York and Washington, D. C.

Attacked by a Bull.
While leading a bull to Mallorytown from his farm, Charles Tennant had a narrow escape from serious injury when the animal got him down on the ground. A Cosgrove came to Mr. Tennant's assistance and succeeded in getting the bull away from him.

North Frontenac Neglected.
North Frontenac has certainly been neglected with regard to educational facilities, the reason being its sparse population. A continuation school at Sharbot Lake is an urgent necessity. The Wolfe Island continuation school is to be re-opened in September.

On Trip To Paris
Miss Ruth A. Folger, a former resident of Cape Vincent, N.Y., and now a teacher of art in Russel Sage College, Troy, N.Y., sailed on the Majestic to represent the society of University women at their meeting in Paris. After the meeting Miss Folger will remain to study art and will tour the continent before returning.

A Baseball Accident.
Stanley E. Burns, Barrie, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burns, Smith's Falls, is in the hospital at Barrie suffering from a broken leg. The accident occurred somehow during the course of a baseball match. Stanley Burns, before leaving Smith's Falls to join the staff of the Bank of Commerce at Barrie, was a member of the collegiate baseball team, holder of third base and one of the best batters.

About Summer Hotels
Westport is talking a summer hotel and a public meeting was held there recently to discuss the matter pending a visit to that place by the representatives of the Provincial Board of License Commissioners, who are agitating better accommodation for tourists. The "Mylywid" property at Chaffey's Lock has this year been taken over by United States people and others are visiting Westport and vicinity with the idea of opening a summer hotel.

Parker-Bowman Wedding
St. Peter's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday when Miss Jean Douglas Bowman, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Montague Bowman, became the bride of Thomas Rochley Parker, second son of John Parker, formerly of Toronto, now of Bury, Lancashire, England. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends of the contracting parties, including Mrs. John Samsom, aunt of the bride, Newburgh, Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Nicholson, Camden East.

Concert at Sunbury
A number of Kingston amateur artists motored to Sunbury on Wednesday evening, and assisted in the programme at a very enjoyable garden party conducted by the Sunbury Ladies' Aid Society. Included in the programme were selections by Cook's church choir, under the leadership of Miss Rogers; novelty dances by five little misses, directed by Miss Frances Devlin; solos, Master Billy Laird; and character sketches by Rex. Betts. An orchestra from Battersea was in attendance, and Rev. Mr. Codling presided. Refreshments were served by the Sunbury ladies.

Liberal Representatives
At the meeting of the Eastern Ontario Liberal Association, which was held in Ottawa recently, the following were elected for the under mentioned ridings:

Frontenac — James Halliday, Portsmouth; James Baxter, Barrie; Mrs. J. O. Ellerbeck, Westbrook; Miss May Lake, Battersea.
Kingston — R. F. Elliott; M. Sullivan; Mrs. (Dr.) C. C. Nash; Mrs. (Dr.) F. J. O'Connor.
Lennox — Dr. H. S. Northmore, Bath; D. H. Hines, Bath; Mrs. W. F. Herrington, Napanee; Mrs. F. F. Miller, Napanee.

Prince Edward — Grant Sprague, Mountain View; W. S. Benson, Picton; Mrs. Charles Wilson, Picton; Mrs. John Shaw, Bloomfield.

Flood-Carroll Wedding.
St. Francis de Sales church, Smith's Falls, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding when Miss Emma Carroll was united in marriage to John Flood, Mallorytown. The ceremony was conducted by Dean Kelly. Miss Clara Connelly presided at the organ and rendered appropriate music and during the "offertory" Miss Edna Gallipeau sang a solo very sweetly. The bride was given away by her brother, D. P. Carroll, and was unattended. She was becomingly attired in navy-blue satin trimmed with sand shade satin and brown silk mohair hat. Following the ceremony, the bride and groom were entertained at a reception at the home of Mrs. Carroll.

ing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Flood motored to the home of the bride's brother, D. P. Carroll, where a wedding breakfast was served, a number of friends of the bride and groom being present. Mr. and Mrs. Flood will reside near Mallorytown.

Alexander Vallier Died
Word was received in the city from Sault Ste Marie, of the sudden death of Alexander Vallier, formerly of Wilmur. The late Mr. Vallier was well-known throughout the township of Loughboro, having served as councillor for a number of years. He is survived by his second wife, formerly Mrs. William Akroyd, of Wilmur and three brothers, Thomas, and James of Kingston, and John of Bedford Mills and one sister, Mrs. Nichols Amey, of Wilmur. Mr. and Mrs. George Dart and daughter, Frances, left on Thursday for Sault Ste. Marie, to attend the funeral.

Anger is not love nor wisdom — therefore, gently move.
If the devil catch a man idle he'll set him at work.

ROMANCE NIPPED IN BUD
Pretty Gladys Warren, of Nashville, Tenn., who says she is nineteen, but who looks like sixteen. She ran away with Paul McQueen, and the pair tried to get married in several cities, but the parsons all declined on account of their youthfulness. Nothing daunted the couple went far away to Sand Lake, in the Barry Sound district, Northern Ontario, and were camping happily enough (except for the black flies), until a detective followed and arrested McQueen, charged with abduction. She says she still loves him, and will marry him when he comes out of prison, if he is ever convicted.
