Mr. and Mrs. Edward Asseltine, Portsmouth, have recovered from their recent illness.

It is economical and prudent to be an ad-student. Read the ads as regularly as you eat your breakfast.

The ads. are salesmen, helpful and courteous. They bring your attention to buying opportunities.

Season tickets for Kingston's first Chautauqua are now on sale by the Daughters of the Empire and at the down town stores.

Major A. V. Tremaine, R.C.A., succeeds Lieut.-Col. C. F. Constantine, D.S.O., R.C.A., as professor of artillery at Royal Military College, according to a recent militia order.

Commencing Saturday, June 17th, until further notice, cars will run to Lake Ontario Park from 11.30 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Only one more week before Chautauqua opens. If you have not bought your season ticket, get it today.

The local Y.M.C.A. executive is making preparations for the annual boys' camp which will be held this year July 8th to 18th at Grenadier Island, as usual.

A number of Kiwanians of Binghamton, N.Y., passed through the city Thursday evening after attending the international convention at Toronto.

Inspector Duncan, of the Children's Aid Society, Toronto, has been spending a few days in this city and district, on business in connection with the society.

Summer things are so dainty and so important. At little expense wonderful effects are created in clothes and furnishings. Watch the ads for the jolly things that make life colorful.

There will be a Junior Chautauqua every morning during the week July 1st to 7th. A season ticket costs $1.35 and admits to every performance, including the big pageant on the afternoon of the last day.

The games scheduled for last evening at the bowling green had to be postponed on account of the rain. This is the first evening the bowlers have not been able to play, the dampness rendering the court unplayable.

At the request of the police in Hamilton, the local police rounded up a young man hailing from Hamilton. He was accused of making off from his home with clothing belonging to members of the family. The goods were recovered and there will be no prosecution.

Chautauqua brings to your very door the best speakers, the best music, the best entertainers, etc., that money can secure. It is undenominational and non-political; purely educational and entertaining. Season tickets can be bought now, but will not be sold after the big tent is pitched.

A slight blaze occurred at the home of Ben Sears, at the Orange hall, Portsmouth, on Friday morning, when a plate of turpentine which was being heated on the stove exploded. Fortunately Mrs. Sears, who was near by at the time, was not burned, and the dish was carried out into the yard before any damage had been done.

Williamson-Hamilton Wedding
On Thursday at 11:30, Rev. J. A. Waddell united in marriage Miss Nettie L. Hamilton, daughter of Abram Hamilton, to R. Standish Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williamson, both of Gananoque. The bride was becomingly attired in a navy suit with a hat to match. Her maid, Miss Gladys Seward, was bridesmaid, and Allen L. Williamson, brother of the groom acted as best fellow. The groom's gift to the bride-maid was a gold brooch set with pearls and to the best man a pair of gold cuff links. The happy couple left for Syracuse, Boston and New York, and on their return will reside at the summer cottage among the Thousand Islands. The many costly and beautiful presents showed the high esteem in which the happy couple were held.

Expressed Thanks.
Warden Melville Drew, of Frontenac county, entertained a large number of the visiting delegates to the Orange Grand Lodge on Thursday evening. On Friday morning he made up parties and drove them about the city visiting the points of interest, such as Queen's University, the old parliament building, the General Hospital, Fort Henry, Rockwood Hospital and other places. The visitors passed a resolution thanking Warden Drew for his kindness in making their visit so pleasant.

To Address Kiwanians.
J. C. Ponsford, warden of the Kingston penitentiary, is to be the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club in the Hotel Frontenac at 6 p.m. on Monday. His subject will be: "Are the Ways of the Transgressor Hard in the Kingston Penitentiary?" Dr. George W. Bell, V.S., will be the booster. The question of holding weekly meetings during July and August will be discussed.

Can She Make a Cherry Pie?
You can get the right kind of cherries for 15c quart at Carnovsky's.

You will be thoroughly satisfied by the entire course of entertainment provided by Chautauqua. Eleven high-class concerts for $2.75 by buying a season ticket.

The Late Mrs. E. Moore.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore passed away at her home in Detroit on Wednesday. She was the wife of John Moore and was born at Latimer sixty years ago, being the daughter of the late Frank Dennee of that place. The remains were brought to Kingston on Friday morning and the funeral took place from James Reid's undertaking parlors to Latimer cemetery.

Mrs. Doris Edmondson passed away at the Mowat hospital on Thursday after a lengthy illness. She was the wife of Reginald Edmondson, Belleville, and was twenty-six years of age. The remains were transferred to Belleville by James Reid, undertaker, on Friday.

Must Engage New Staff.
Marmora, June 23. — Marmora continuation school board is faced with the problem of engaging an entirely new staff for the school year opening in September next. There is, however, no ground for complaint on either side, as the board has been considerate and the staff efficient and faithful.

Brickyard is Re-opened
After several years of idleness, the brickyard in Park street Brockville, has been re-opened by W. H. Wood, who has a force of men now manufacturing brick from clay dug in the old Garson & Purcer pits off Ormond street. The first kiln which is now nearing completion will contain 60,000 bricks.

There will be a Junior Chautauqua every morning during the week July 1st to 7th. A season ticket costs $1.35 and admits to every performance, including the big pageant on the afternoon of the last day. The Sand Banks brick plant is producing about 20,000 bricks a day. De Valera's party wins seventeen disputed seats.
