There is encouragement to be surance has merely shared in the found-in the words of President Fisher in his address at the annual meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. Generally speaking, he said, business is steadily. though very slowly, improving. There would be even more encouragement if the qualify words, "very slowly," could be omitted; but they serve as an evidence that the president was careful and cautious in the use of his language. According to Mr. Fisher, the international situation is clarifying, basic production is recovering, prices are stablizing, demand, reviving and unemployment decreasing.

All these are welcome signs, remarks the Woodstock Sentinel Review, which adds: Canada has still many serious problems, but nothing beyond her ability. Mr. Fisher's G. Elliett President formula is to be found in one short sentence.
