He recently drove the ball out of the lot close to the scoreboard, the drive being a much longer wallop than the one made by Gavy Cravath before joining the Phillies, or the Herculean sock of "Bunny" Brief early in the present season.

George Boehler, ex-big league hurler now with Tulsa, in the Western League, is the strike-out king of that circuit for the season. Boehler has amassed the tremendous total of 118 strike-outs thus far this season, more than twice the number of his nearest rival, Hovlik, of St. Joe.

When the Western International League disbanded recently the Wichita club, of the Western League, grabbed a brother of Billy Purcell, old star third sacker, from the ruins of the Vancouver club. The new Purcell is Mark, and he also plays third base. He looked so good that

TEMPERAMENTAL LENGLEN COMES INTO HER OWN

By beating Mrs. Bjurstedt Mallory 6-0, 6-2, in the final of the women's singles at the Wimbledon tournament in England on Saturday, Miss Lenglen retained her title as world's champion. It will be recalled that Miss Lenglen withdrew from her match with Mrs. Mallory in New York last year after the first set. She pleaded illness. The match in which the French girl beat the former Norwegian has been the subject of much speculation throughout the tennis world. In no other match in recent years has there been so much interest aroused. Miss Lenglen played against the advice of her physician and of her father. She announced some time ago that she would not play again in the United States.

"I have no excuses to offer for my defeat by Miss Lenglen on Saturday, but anybody who witnessed the match knows that I did not play my best game," said Mrs. Molla Mallory. "There is one thing that I would like to call attention to, though; is it fair or advisable to hold the world's championship after an 'o'clock at night? Owing to rain and other delays it was after 7 o'clock when we commenced our match. The sun came out for a few minutes, striking right across the court and almost blinding me. For another thing, the centre court at Wimbledon is not yet true and balls do not bound accurately," said the United States champion.

HITCH IN ARRANGEMENTS FOR HEAVYWEIGHT BOUTS

Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, and Harry Willis, his negro challenger, are as far from being matched for a championship struggle as they were on the day three years ago when Dempsey took the title from Jess Willard. No contract is signed in New York as yet. At the last minute Paddy Mullins, manager of Willis, declined to sign an agreement submitted by Jack Kearns. Another effort to get Mullins to sign will be made upon Kearns' return from Buffalo.

The desire of Mullins to have the proposed bout conducted this year was responsible for the failure of the two managers to come to a mutual understanding. The agreement approved and submitted by Kearns contained Dempsey's consent to a title bout with Willis, provided that bids for the contest must be satisfactory to all, and stipulated that the contest must be held within a period of sixty days from the acceptance by the signatories of the successful bid for the proposed bout. The time and place were not specified, but were left to be mutually agreed upon by the boxers and their respective managers.

Mullins objected to the agreement, on the ground that it did not bind Dempsey to any specified time limit in which to box wills.

Stay Away From Montreal.

No more big league ball teams are to visit Montreal. It is said Judge LaRid has issued a quiet order to that effect. The reason is, it is said, that it took the Pittsburgh Pirates too long to recover from the hospitality extended to them here recently and that their slump after the visit has also been laid to the doors of the generous entertainment offered them in this province. Therefore, the Montreal baseball club will try to bring the long-haired House-of-David and some Chinese and Japanese nines here to play exhibition games.
