PLUMBERS WIN BY DEFAULT

Last evening's Mercantile League game went to the Plumbers by default as the Movies neglected to put a team in the field.

Last night's programme was not totally wrecked, however, for several famous baseball artists who happened to be on hand formed up a team and gave the Plumbers a good run for their money.

TO-NIGHT.

This evening at the cricket field there is to be a double-header if all the ins and outs of the Mercantile and the County Leagues work out well.

Either game would be an entertaining exhibition, and, with both going in full swing the fans should have ample entertainment.

LITTLE BITS.

That Walter Hagen and George Duncan are the world's greatest golfers today, and that Hagen will win more than one British open, is the belief of Harry Vardon, who says so in a London paper.

Portland sold Joe Sargent, formerly utility infielder for Detroit, to Birmingham, of the Southern League. Joe refused to report to the Barons and the deal had to be called off.

Tris Speaker's life must be a drab, dull monotonous routine. All he does is play ball, golf, billiards, ride wild horses, rope steers, hunt big game and shoot clay birds.

Jack Dempsey, Larry Williams, Stanley Zybzo, Bombardier Wells, Jack Thomas, Frank Fleming and Frank Nelson. What an array, all at once.

Joe Lynch has to pay nearly $10,000 out of his own pocket for the privilege of wearing the bantam-weight championship crown again.

Franco will send her tennis team, composed of Henri Cochet, J. Brugnon, Andre Gobert, Jean Borotra and Jean Samazeuilh, to America to meet the Australian team in preliminary competition for the Davis Cup.

Reduced Admission Prices. Reduced prices will likely be in order when racing is resumed at Mount Royal, Montreal, on Saturday.

The step is the first to be taken this year in Montreal in an effort to remedy the decreased returns that have been shown at the local race tracks this season.

The Toronto Telegram says: "In an effort to stem the inevitable loss that must come to the race track moguls in Canada, the Telegram hears today that admission fees to all race tracks will be reduced."

These hasty moves on the part of the track owners, come as no surprise to racing men who have for years attended the Fort Erie seasons.

Few men know when to begin or when to stop.

A MOST UNIQUE CLUB.

Has Recently Been Organized at Geneva.

What is probably the most unique club in the world has been organized at Geneva, Switzerland, according to advices received here.

The membership is made up of people from many nations, Great Britain and Canada, China and Japan, Finland and Spain, Italy and Sweden, Greece and Holland, Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia, India and France—these are but illustrative of the nations drawn upon.

The building occupied by the International Club is near the lake front at its most attractive point and is owned by the city of Geneva.

George Cup Yacht Series Is Decided on Points

The George Cup series is decided by points, the winner being the boat that secures the largest number of points in two races, and if a tie results, a third race is necessary.

The Huskies must win Friday's race, and the Scrapper be best, to give a victory to the Americans, while if the Watertown boat wins and the Toronto one is second, a third race will be necessary.

Tying to Get Dempsey To Appear in Kingston

Local sport promoters are endeavoring to secure for Kingston a place on the itinerary of Jack Dempsey, heavy weight boxing champion of the world, and his retinue of boxers and wrestlers.

Willard Receives Offer. At Los Angeles an offer of a match at Oklahoma City, Okla., on Labor Day with Billy Miske, Fred Fulton, Bob Martin, Captain Bob Roper or Tommy Gibbons was received by Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion, from Dan V. Lackey, an Oklahoma City promoter.

Prince of Wales Played. The Templeton polo team, which will go to America in August, has just defeated the King's Dragoon Guards in the first round of play for the Roshampton, Eng., cup.

Every trait of beauty may be traced to some virtue, as to innocence, candor, generosity, modesty and heroism.

The civilized people of the world use, on an average, over three million matches every minute.

PADDOCK IS MOST PHENOMENAL RUNNER

His Work Lacks Smoothness, But He Gets Over Ground Amazingly.

While Paddock, the California sprinter, will always be remembered as a phenomenal runner, his best title to fame will come through his record of seventeen seconds for 177 yards, made recently on the Pacific coast.

of quality as men who could run in even time. One hundred yards was considered the standard distance and ten seconds the standard time.

A ten-second man was talked about in the amateur ranks a generation ago, although a number of professionals could beat that figure.

in better than even. Training methods improved also, and soon most of the colleges boasted each of a man who could do his hundred yards in ten seconds and several won races in 9 4-5 seconds.

Taking Paddock's record of seventeen seconds for 175 yards, an analysis shows him running the distance in five yards better than even time, a performance of such merit that it will probably remain on the books for years unless Paddock himself should beat it within the next year or two.

CHARLES PADDOCK. Who recently broke five s printing records in California.

STUFFY McINNES IS FINALLY PARTED FROM HIS OLD GLOVE

Season in and season out, for ten consecutive years, Stuffy McInnes, first baseman of the Cleveland Indians, has worn the same glove in battles on the diamond.

Truth is the touchstone of all genius.

so it is at last that Stuffy and his glove have come to the dividing of the way. It became so topheavy, with all the upbuilding which its owner gave it in an effort to prolong its usefulness, that it has just given way to a new glove of 1922 model.
