HORSE DIVES INTO CANAL.

Driver Thrown From Wagon and Escapes Death.

Perth, July 14.—Alfred Wills, twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wills, Rideau Ferry, had a narrow escape from death yesterday when the horse he was driving bolted off the ferry bridge into the lake. The horse was drowned, but the boy was luckily thrown from the wagon before the outfit left the bridge. The bridge had just been opened to allow the steamer Victoria to pass, and the frightened animal, which the boy was unable to stop, plunged into the channel. For some moments passengers on the Victoria believed that the boy had gone down with the horse. This is the first accident of the kind during the twenty-seven years David Campbell has been bridge tender at Rideau Ferry.
