COULD HARDLY MOVE IN HER BED

Eight Boxes of "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Completely Relieved Her.

MADAM RICHER
Labelle, P.Q., April 18th, 1921

"It is my duty to tell you and publish to all what your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me.

I suffered with Rheumatism for ten months; could hardly move in bed; and was miserable all the time. I tried several physicians and took many remedies, but they left me at the same place, in bed and suffering, the Rheumatism was so bad.

I finally started in taking "Fruit-a-tives" and continued the treatment regularly as I found myself getting better. After using eight boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" (which cost only $4.) I am completely well without a trace of Rheumatism."

Madam J. RICHER.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Brought Tourists.

The steamers Waubic and Brockville brought several tourists parties to the city on their afternoon trips on Friday.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Demarest, Hightstown, N.J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Minnie, to Orwin Goodison, Brockville, Ont.

Street Brick Laying.

A large block of the brick-work between the car tracks on the newly paved streets has been completed, and a good idea may now be obtained of the appearance of the job when it is finished.

Have the Bowlers' Bug.

Even in the morning many of the prominent bowlers of the local club can be seen on the green at Queen's University practising. The game is as popular this year as ever and keen interest is taken by spectators every evening.

Presented With Cane.

Before leaving for his new charge in Odessa, Rev. S. F. Dixon, Lakefield, was presented with a gold-headed cane by the brotherhood, and Mrs. Dixon with a silk umbrella by the sisterhood of Lakefield Methodist church.

For The Thrifty Buyer.

Our annual summer sale for July is on, everything in Boys' and Men's Ready-to-wear clothing and Gent's Furnishings reduced in price. We guarantee to save you from 15 per cent. to 25 per cent. Prevost Clothing House, Brock street.

Had One Good Dinner.

At noon to-day the newspaper publishers of Northern New York were taken from Alexandria Bay, N. Y., on Capt. Thomson's motor boats for Goose Bay park, where a shore dinner, including St. Lawrence river black bass and pike, was served.

Swimmers Want Raft.

Many of the older swimmers at the Richardson memorial bathing house are enquiring when the diving raft will be put in place. They point out that the season is well advanced now and that the raft would be a great convenience. It was put in place last year and as a result many of the swimmers learned diving.

Wedding in Rochester, N.Y.

The wedding took place in Lake avenue Baptist church, Rochester, N.Y., when John S. Denham, Rochester, was united in marriage to Eva Eugenia Turnbull, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Trunbull, 93 Johnson street, Kingston. They will reside in Rochester, N.Y.

To Address Kivanians.

Brig.-Gen. F. W. Hill, C.B., C.M.G., formerly commander of the 9th Infantry brigade in France, will be the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club in the Hotel Frontenac on Monday next. His subject will be "Military Training and Its Advantages to the Youth of the Land." W. J. Keeley will be the booster.

Summoning Speeders.

A number of motorists who have been speeding on the highway will likely be summoned during the next few days as it is understood that lately several have been "spotted" burning up the road. A local man has received a summons to appear in a village east of Toronto for speeding while passing through on his way here.

Receive Useful Gifts.

Rev. A. H. Foster, Belleville, who is leaving to take the pulpit of the Methodist church in Napanee, was presented with a gold-mounted umbrella by ladies of his Sunday school class in Holloway street church, and Mrs. Foster was presented with a pearl pin by members of the choir and with linen by members of the Aert bible class.

Pupils of Miss Grace Taft.

Who were successful in passing the Toronto Conservatory examinations:
Elementary piano—Margery Lyons (1st class honors).
Elementary piano—Mary Derry (1st class honors).
Elementary piano—Lillian Peters (pass).
Junior piano—Joan Hull (pass).

A Freaky Trick.

During Tuesday night's storm the wind played a freaky trick on the Hutcheson property, Prescott road. Miss A. R. Hutcheson and George Hutcheson were seated in a tent during the storm and the former remarked that they should move to the garage nearby for greater safety. No sooner had she passed the remark than the garage, which was of frame construction, was blown down, while the tent passed through the storm undamaged. The top on the automobile in the garage was considerably damaged.

Another Aged Odessa Couple.

Another couple hale and hearty in their eighties is Mr. and Mrs. William V. Smith, who reside on the outskirts of Odessa. Mr. Smith is in his eighty-fourth year while his wife is eighty-eight. When seen on Thursday, Mrs. Smith who is quite active, was in the garden digging potatoes for dinner. Mr. Smith is a wood worker and is still able to work at his trade. When visited he had just finished a piece of machinery. Mr.

and Mrs. Smith have been married sixty years.

Roads Graded.

The roads in the city park have been graded by the grading machine and are much more improved. These roads being of cinders do not stand the heavy traffic in wet weather, and have to be given careful attention.

Working on Division Street.

The first gang of the road pavers started to work on Division street, at Princess Friday morning. The road from Colborne street north was first dug, and now the gang is at work at the Princess street end of the road.

Want Fair Weather.

Although the storm of Wednesday night didn't do a great deal of good to the standing crops in the district, the farmers are very hopeful that the majority of the hay and grain will be saved. The haying is going on apace now, and all the farmers wish for now is a few more weeks of fair weather.

Kingston Bowlers Did Well.

The Kingston bowlers are being congratulated on their further win at Cobourg, the Kingston players winning the first prizes in the rink and doubles games and the others being runners up in both. The local club are quite gratified with the result for but two rinks went from Kingston while other cities had a larger representation, Peterboro having three rinks, Oshawa three and other places being equally well represented.

Mrs. Olivia Hinckley Buried.

Funeral services for Mrs. Olivia Hinckley, aged eighty-six were held on July 12th from the home of her son, M. F. Ainsworth, Port Leyden, N.Y. Burial was at Cape Vincent, N.Y.
