FIERCE FIGHT IN VIRGINIA

Sheriff And Twelve Others Killed at Mine.

Governor Orders the State Police And Deputies to the Scene.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 17.—Sheriff H. H. Duval and twelve other persons were killed and no less than twenty-five wounded in a fight at the Standard mine of the Richland coal company two miles from Wellsburg, West Virginia, this morning, according to a telephone message from the correspondent of the Wheeling News, at Wellsburg. The mine, which has been working on an open shop basis, was reported to have been attacked by a large party of men from over the Pennsylvania line.

State police and all Ohio county deputies are on their way to the scene and Governor Morgan has ordered Sheriff Harry Glouse of Ohio county to take charge of the situation.

Firing Continues.

Stuebenville, Ohio, July 17.—Automobiles carrying newspaper men and ambulances proceeding from Wellsburg and Follansbee, W. Va., to Richland mines, were turned back by bullets at 9.45 this morning, according to word received here. Firing is still going on along the road leading to the mines.

Payroll Is Snatched From Girl Cashier

Montreal, July 17.—The $1,500 payroll of the firm of N. C. Polson & Company, wholesale druggists, 311 Notre Dame street west, was stolen Saturday when a youth snatched a satchel containing the money from the hands of a girl cashier as she was entering the company's offices with it. The thief made his getaway in a high-powered car which was waiting for him near the scene of the robbery.

Returned Hero Drowned Swimming at Midnight

Stratford, July 17.—Earl P. Kane, a young business man, lost his life by drowning in the Avon river. With two associates, the young man went in for a swim after one o'clock Saturday morning. He had been in the water only a little more than a minute when he threw up his hands and sank. Deceased had been seriously wounded and gassed and it is thought that the gas affected his heart.

Attended Queen's University.

The late Miss Marion Fraser, Clerk in the Auditor-General's department, Ottawa, who met a tragic death on Saturday morning by falling from a window on the seventh floor of the transportation building, attended Queen's university from 1894 to 1896. She originally belonged to L'Orignal. For seventeen years she was in the civil service. Miss Fraser had only returned to her duties two weeks ago from a month's sick leave, and she was subject to fainting spells.

MORE LARGE CAPTURES OF IRISH INSURGENTS

Free State Government Receives About All the Volunteers It Requires.

Dublin, July 17.—During the week-end operations throughout the fighting zone the national army captured about five hundred prisoners from the insurgents, it was announced today.

A sufficient response. London, July 17.—The Irish provisional government's recent appeal to Irishmen to enlist in the army has met with such a ready response, according to an unofficial report from Dublin today, that an announcement that no more are needed at present is expected to be made soon. Another rumor reaching here credits the Free State government with the intention to float a war loan.

One of Party Lost First Wife in Motor Accident Years Ago.

St. Catharines, July 17.—Jeremiah Heaton and wife, St. Catharines; Pearl Overholt, Mrs. Heaton's daughter and Mrs. Slayter, of Syracuse, were Friday night precipitated into a pond under their overturned car when it went off a bridge on a detour on the northeastern outskirts of the city.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED.

Youth Threatened Girl With Revolver in Berry Field.

Cornwall, July 17.—Thomas Collison, a young man who lives near Iroquois, pleaded guilty to pointing a revolver at Miss Beatrice Thorpe, 14, while she was in a berry field on the Hyman farm some days ago. Miss Thorpe and Mrs. Hyman were picking berries when the former was attacked by Collison, who pointed a revolver at her head and threatened to assault her. The girl was quite brave and showed fight and a tussle followed. Mrs. Hyman was nearby and heard the row and ran and summoned the girl's parents. When they came they were also held up by Collison, who threatened to shoot unless they agreed not to take the case to law.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS COUNCIL IS IN LONDON

It Is Scheduled to Grapple With a Series of World Problems.

London, July 17.—The Council of the League of Nations, which was called to meet in London today for the first time in two years, will grapple with a series of world problems, instead of dealing with the details of establishing the league's machinery. The most important subject on the agenda is the ratification of A and B mandates which has been delayed by the claim of the United States to be consulted as to the disposal of the mandate and that her interests as one of the allied and associated powers be safeguarded in the mandatory areas.

A MOTOR ANNOYANCE.

Swimmers and Picnickers Claim of Stirring Up Dust.

Persons who were in the vicinity of Sandy Bottom on Sunday afternoon are incensed at the action of many motorists who raced along the road skirting the bathing beach without regard for those who were seeking pleasure there.

Burial of George Kennedy.

The funeral of the late George Kennedy, famous football player and a former member of the Kingston police force, who died in Ottawa on Friday, took place at half past two on Monday afternoon from James Reid's undertaking parlors to Cataragui cemetery. Adjutant Conde of the Salvation Army officiated. Chief of Police Robinson and Constables Thomas Mullinger, James Cotter, Leslie Armstrong and F. W. Clark represented the local force at the funeral. Deceased was a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

THE FOUR COURTS, DUBLIN, AFTER THE BATTLE.

A gaping breach beside the pillars and the wrecked condition of the corner structure shows the damage done by shellfire. The beautiful copper dome is completely gone, blown off by an explosion on the day of the surrender. Splinter pocks and bullet marks freckle the building. Windows are shattered and the interior is a mess of debris.

MUST FIND A SOLUTION

For Russian Deadlock at Hague Conference.

Or the British Delegation Will Leave, Lloyd George Announces.

London, July 17.—Prime Minister Lloyd George told the House of Commons this afternoon that unless solution was found for the deadlock in the conference over Russian affairs at The Hague the British delegation would probably return to England by the end of the present week.

Conference May Be Resumed.

The Hague, July 17.—Communication from the Russian delegation held out the prospect that the conference on Russia affairs which seemed on the edge of a breakdown might be resumed.

British Debt to U.S.

London, July 17.—The special British delegation will arrive in United States early in September in connection with negotiations for funding the British debt to the United States, it was announced by Prime Minister Lloyd George in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Germany Deposits Reparations.

Paris, July 17.—Reparations commission was officially notified today that Germany had deposited 32,000,000 gold marks in designated banks to meet her July 15th reparations payment.

Six Nations Indians To Try Their Own Cases

Brantford, July 17.—The local police court will administer justice to the red men of the Six Nations only for a short time to come, according to reports from the Indian reserve this morning. The police are agog at the news that in the near future all misdemeanors among the red men will be tried by their own people, excepting when an offence is committed on a white man's land. The report says that arrangements are being made at the Reserve for the erection of an Indian jail at Osheewa where all Indian misdemeanors will be incarcerated.

Hard Times Lessen Marriages.

Ottawa, July 17.—The present economic conditions are the cause of the marked decline in the number of marriages per year here in the opinion of a number of leading clergymen. Previous to 1919 and when the population was larger, the average for June was about two hundred. Last June there were only 117 joined in wedlock.

The Manitoba provincial police are investigating the death of Ernest Billerd, aged 45, and the disappearance of thirteen-year-old Jimmy Webster. Billerd was murdered Saturday afternoon by unknown man who shot him through the heart. The Webster boy it is believed was attacked by the murderer.

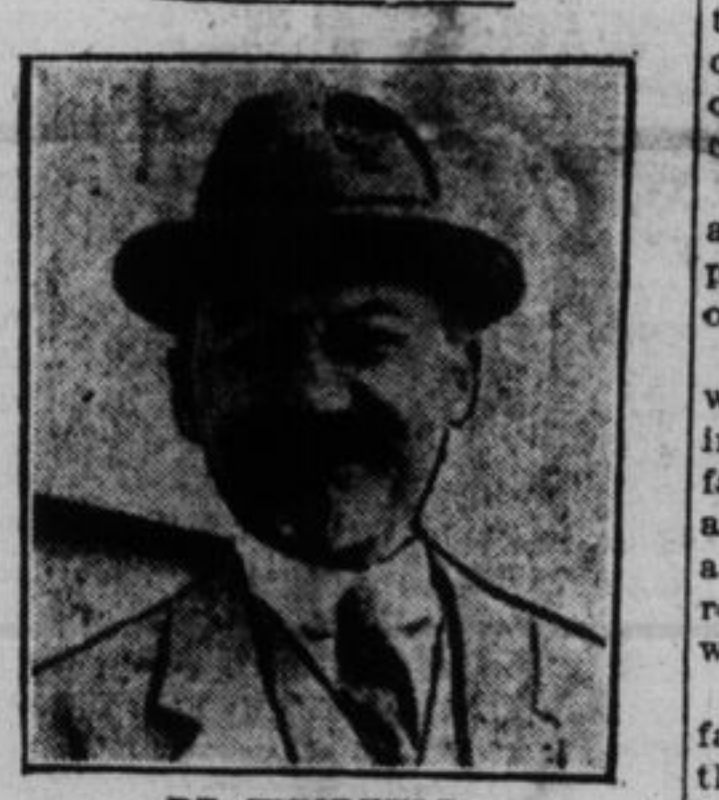

Approximately twenty-five thousand and maintenance-of-way men at Chicago have struck without permission from President Grable. J. C. Smock, president of the union, said the strikers probably will be outlawed by their national officers. It is very likely that the names of the commission to probe the G. W. V. A. charges against the pension board will be announced following the meeting of the cabinet Tuesday. The St. Mary's picnic, which was charged with theft from Woolworth's over a week ago was again enlarged for a week in the Juvenile Court on Monday morning.

Attorney For Red Men Severely Criticizes Government's Attitude.

Rochester, N.Y., July 17.—According to George P. Decker, attorney for the Six Nations Indians living on the Grand River lands of Ontario, the Indians do not wish to submit to an international tribunal their differences with the Canadian government unless a joint committee on arbitration cannot solve their problems.

Russia Will Harvest Enough to Feed Self

New York, July 17.—Russia will harvest enough food to feed herself this fall, former Governor James P. Goodrich of Indiana, who went to that country on a tour of inspection for the American relief administration, predicted upon his arrival here today on the Mauretania.

Ottawa, July 17.—Ship mechanics and maintenance of way employees of all chief railways of the Dominion are involved in application for boards of conciliation which have been made to the minister of labor by the unions of the employees concerned.

MUST OPEN COAL MINES

Or U.S. Government Will Operate Them.

President Harding Plans Action to Prevent Complete Coal Famine.

Washington, July 17.—President Harding is so determined to bring about immediate resumption of full coal production that he will not hesitate, if necessary, to take over the coal mines and operate them, even at the risk of impeachment for acting without express constitutional authority.

DE VALERA FIGHTING IN THE REBEL RANKS

He Is Seen at Limerick—Sporadic Fighting—Population Is in Panic.

Dublin, July 17.—Sporadic fighting was reported from various points Saturday. The insurgents and Free State forces were reported entrenched opposite each other at Limerick, where Eamon de Valera was seen among the rebels. There were occasional bursts of machine gun fire, and frequent bomb explosions. Roads are barricaded and supplies held back from the town. As a result the population of 2,000 is in a panic and threatened with starvation.

BOY KILLED BY HORSE.

Cornwall, July 17.—At the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Jacob Baker, Mountain township, Albert Clarke, aged 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke, of Morewood, was instantly killed when kicked by a horse. Albert and his horses in a pasture into which two horses of a neighbor had broken. Arthur had secured one horse and Albert was in the act of getting the other when he was kicked on the side of the head by one of the strange horses and died almost instantly. Arthur and his grandfather carried Albert to the house but life was extinct before they reached home.

MOTORIST MET DEATH NEAR THE END OF RACE

Tire Blew Up and His Machine Turned Over—Five Finished.

Strasburg, July 17.—Biagio Nazarro, Italian driver, was killed, and his mechanic was mortally injured Saturday when their car turned over on next to the last lap of the Grand Prix automobile race. The race was won by Felice Nazzaro in a Fiat car. He averaged one hundred and twenty-six kilometers an hour for the distance of 802 kilometers. The ill-fated car, also a Fiat, was going a strong second into the last lap when a tire blew up and overturned the machine. There were eighteen starters including three English cars and ten French cars. Only five finished and the Fiats led throughout. Premier King is back in Ottawa and looks for good results from his Washington trip.

FINISH FIGHT IS PROSPECT

Railway Forces Prepare For Long Battle.

Fundamental Differences Prevent Parties From Getting Together, Leader Says.

Chicago, July 17.—A fight to a finish between striking railway shopmen and their employers was in prospect today. The two forces are "irreconcilably" opposed and no settlement of the labor difficulties can be expected before a long drawn out battle is finished, according to information gained by the United Press from highest authority.

Railroads prepared to go ahead with attempts to operate shop with strike-breakers on a greater scale than ever before. Labor agencies are being flooded with requests for men. The unions trimmed their decks and reduced the strikers to a "fighting force" in preparation for the long fight. Railroad shopmen got set for a long drawn out strike Saturday, following virtual failure of peace negotiations.

Fundamental differences prevent the strikers and railway officials reaching an immediate basis of agreement. Chairman Ben. W. Hooper of the United States Rail Labor Board, who has been acting as mediator, announced.
